2	time in the order that we went in before.	2	MR. ESCALERA: No. So how am I going to
3	So first is Mr. Escalera, if you could come	3	advertise something out of a company that has been shut
4	up.	4	down?
5	Okay. Mr. Escalera, did you have a chance	5	JUDGE PEARSON: Well, if it's been shut
6	to walk through the order with Ms. Jones? If you could	6	down, then you wouldn't have to worry about it.
7	just please speak into the microphone on the table.	7	MR. ESCALERA: Exactly.
8	MR. ESCALERA: Excuse me?	8	JUDGE PEARSON: What we're saying is if you
9	JUDGE PEARSON: Did you have a chance to	9	decided to reopen the company, you understand that that
10	walk through the order with Ms. Jones?	10	would subject you to the penalty?
11	MR. ESCALERA: Yes.	11	MR. ESCALERA: Yes.
12	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. And you understand	12	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So the cease and
13	everything that's in it? Did you have any questions	13	desist order is permanent. So that does not expire
14	about its contents?	14	after two years. So if after the two-year period Staff
15	MR. ESCALERA: Yeah, but I'm not going to	15	discovers you are still operating, Staff could go
16	voice them.	16	straight to superior court and seek enforcement of this
17	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So here comes the	17	order, so there's a very strong incentive for you to
18	order. I did look at it. It looks like, for the	18	comply with the law. And it looks like there is a
19	record, Ms. Jones, you recommended two violations in	19	proposed payment schedule for the $500 penalty and that
20	this case, one for offering to move and one for	20	you made a $44 payment today; is that correct?
21	advertising; is that correct?	21	MR. ESCALERA: Yes.
22	MS. JONES: Yes, it is.	22	JUDGE PEARSON: And you will make a second
23	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. And the $5,000	23	payment on or before February 27th and March 27th, both
24	penalty will be imposed, but a $4500 portion will be	24	in the amount of $228; is that correct?
25	suspended and the company will pay $500; is that	25	MR. ESCALERA: That is correct.
	Page 18		Page 20
1	correct?	1	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. And you understand if
2	MS. JONES: Yes, that is.	2	you miss a payment, the entire amount including the
3	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. And for the record,	3	$4500 penalty will become due and payable?
4	Mr. Escalera, you're agreeing to shut down Northwest	4	MR. ESCALERA: Correct.
5	Moving and Delivery Services unless or until you get a	5	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. And if for some

7	MR. ESCALERA: It has been.	7	just need to contact Staff and make arrangements. It's
8	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So the suspension	8	the failure to communicate that usually results in the
9	period for the $4,500 is two years from today's date,	9	penalty being imposed. So, you know, Staff can always
10	which is January 25th, 2019. That means if Staff finds	10	work with you if you need to be a couple days late or
11	an advertisement or you offer a move during that time,	11	something comes up, okay? And you also understand
12	the remaining $4500 becomes due and payable; do you	12	legally what you can and can't do?
13	understand that?	13	MR. ESCALERA: No.
14	MR. ESCALERA: No.	14	JUDGE PEARSON: You don't understand that?
15	JUDGE PEARSON: You don't understand that?	15	MR. ESCALERA: No, because the company is an
16	MR. ESCALERA: No.	16	LLC. I don't want the company to be shut down again.
17	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So what part are you	17	You're making this personal and it's an LLC. And when
18	struggling with?	18	LLC company has been shut down, you're telling me as I
19	MR. ESCALERA: The part I have told you	19	am the company, and I am not the company. It's an LLC
20	several times that the company has been shut down. How	20	and the LLC company has been shut down. So when you're

MR. DUMITRASCU: Thank you.	3	STATE OF WASHINGTON
JUDGE PEARSON: All right. Thanks for	4	COUNTY OF THURSTON
coming today.	5
So that concludes the list of companies that	6	I, Tayler Russell, a Certified Shorthand Reporter were present in the hearing room today. There is no one	7	in and for the State of Washington, do hereby certify else in the hearing room, so we can proceed with a	8	that the foregoing transcript is true and accurate to motion for default for Docket TV-161207, Dustin Wick,	9	the best of my knowledge, skill and ability.
d/b/a/ Lifters Moving.	10
Ms. Jones, I've had a chance to review	11	Tayler Russell, CCR
Docket TV-161207, the Commission's evidence that there	12	rayler Russell, COR
was an offer to for an intrastate move in Washington	13
and advertising that meets the definition of RCW	14
81.80.075, engaging in business as a moving company	15
without a household goods permit.	16
So what is the Company's motion at this	17
point with respect to Dustin Wick, d/b/a Lifters Moving?	18
MS. JONES: We would like the default order	19
classifying the defendant as a household goods carrier.	20
We would like the order or order the defendant to	21
cease and desist, and we would like to impose a full	22
$5,000 penalty for the two violations of offering a	23
household goods move and advertising.	24
Mr. Wick was served on January 4th of 2017,	25
Page 26
and as of today, he is still advertising as a household goods mover on Craigslist and on Yelp.
JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Staff also obtained an offer for a move?
MS. JONES: Yes, two. One was on September 20th, 2016 and the other one was October 28th, 2016. Both are in the form of text messages.
JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Great. Thank you.
And has this company ever filed for a permit
with the Commission to your knowledge?
MS. JONES: No.
JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. And this default order, again, you said it was the full $5,000 penalty, so nothing would be suspended, correct?
MS. JONES: Yes, that's correct.
JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So I will grant your motion for Dustin Wick, d/b/a Lifters Moving, and I will sign the order holding the company in default.
Okay. Is there any other business that we need to take care of today?
MS. JONES: No, that's it. Thank you.
JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Thank you so much.
We are adjourned.

We would like the order — or order the defendant to cease and desist, and we would like to impose a full $5,000 penalty for the two violations of offering a household goods move and advertising. Mr. Wick was served on January 4th of 2017, Page 26 and as of today, he is still advertising as a household goods mover on Craigslist and on Yelp. JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Staff also obtained an offer for a move? MS. JONES: Yes, two. One was on September 20th, 2016 and the other one was October 28th, 2016. Both are in the form of text messages. JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Great. Thank you. And has this company ever filed for a permit with the Commission to your knowledge? MS. JONES: No. JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. And this default order, again, you said it was the full $5,000 penalty, so nothing would be suspended, correct? MS. JONES: Yes, that's correct. JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So I will grant your motion for Dustin Wick, d/b/a Lifters Moving, and I will sign the order holding the company in default. Okay. Is there any other business that we need to take care of today? MS. JONES: No, that's it. Thank you. JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Thank you so much.	order. I will hand it down and you are free to go once you get your copy, okay? MR. DUMITRASCU: Thank you. JUDGE PEARSON: All right. Thanks for coming today. So that concludes the list of companies that were present in the hearing room today. There is no one else in the hearing room, so we can proceed with a motion for default for Docket TV-161207, Dustin Wick, d/b/a/ Lifters Moving. Ms. Jones, I've had a chance to review Docket TV-161207, the Commission's evidence that there was an offer to — for an intrastate move in Washington and advertising that meets the definition of RCW 81.80.075, engaging in business as a moving company without a household goods permit. So what is the Company's motion at this point with respect to Dustin Wick, d/b/a Lifters Moving? MS. JONES: We would like the default order classifying the defendant as a household goods carrier. We would like the order — or order the defendant to cease and desist, and we would like to impose a full $5,000 penalty for the two violations of offering a household goods move and advertising.
