RE: Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission v. Cascade Natural Gas Corporation, Docket UG-190775

TO ALL PARTIES:

On September 13, 2019, Cascade Natural Gas Corporation (Cascade or Company) filed with the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) revisions to its tariff Schedule 583, Temporary Federal Income Tax Rate Credit, for rates effective November 1, 2019.

On October 24, 2019, the Commission entered Order 01, Complaint and Order Suspending Tariff Revisions (Order 01). Order 01 concluded that the proposed tariff revisions warrant further investigation and provided notice that the Commission may hold hearings at such times and places as may be required to adjudicate any contested issues.

In adjudicative proceedings, Commission policy advisors advise the commissioners. The Commission's accounting policy advisor, Melissa Cheesman, participated as a staff witness in the general rate proceeding that gave rise to the tariff revisions filed in this docket. As such, the Commission will allow any party who objects to Ms. Cheesman's participation as an accounting policy advisor to the Commission in the above-referenced docket to file a response to this notice stating its objection and explaining the basis therefore no later than 5 p.m. on Wednesday, October 30, 2019.

THE COMMISSION GIVES NOTICE That any party to this proceeding who objects to Melissa Cheesman acting as accounting policy advisor to the Commission in Docket

UG-190775 must file a response to this notice stating its objection and explaining the basis therefore by 5 p.m. on Wednesday, October 30, 2019.
