One of my friends automatically took all out of town guests on a duck tour. Another friend took the whole family on the duck annually. We took every niece and nephew on a tour whenever they came to Seattle.

The amphibious style tour is a unique way to show off Seattle. It is challenging for an out-of-towner to drive around the city, and this gives them a great overview of the activities in Seattle. The added benefit of a beautiful portion on Lake Union without traffic is unmatched by other tours.
