RE: Avista Corporation,
Prudence of electric demand side management program expenditures during the prior two years, Docket UE-100176

TO ALL INTERESTED PERSONS:

On June 1, 2012, Avista Corporation (Avista) filed with the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) a report concerning the prudence of expenditures related to its electric demand side management (DSM) program during the preceding two years.

The report is required by Order 05, in Docket UE-110876. As outlined in the Order, within 30 days of filing, any person could request that the Commission set the matter for adjudication. If Avista's request was set for hearing, the Movants agreed to support a suspension period of up to 6 months.

The Commission will consider Avista's report at its July 27, 2012, open meeting.<sup>1</sup> The Commission strongly encourages written comments on Avista's report in advance of the meeting. Written comments should be submitted no later than 5:00 p.m., Monday, July 16, 2012, and, if possible, in electronic format.<sup>2</sup> Electronic format should be on a
