1. I am personally familiar with the facts set forth in this declaration. If called to testify about any of these matters, I could and would competently testify thereto.
2. I am an attorney and since 1982, since 1995 my private practice has been almost exclusively the appellate representation of criminal defendants. My office is at 705 Second Avenue, Suite 1300, Seattle, WA 98104.
3. Many of my clients are inmates at various Washington State prisons. My office communicates with our clients by letter and inmate-initiated telephone calls. It is our practice to accept collect telephone calls from clients in order to communicate with them regarding their cases.

4. My office pays for the inmate-initiated telephone calls it receives as part of our representation. My office spends approximately $ 200 per month inmate-initiated telephone calls.

5. In particular, since 1996, my office has received inmate-initiated calls originating from the following prisons: Clallam Bay, the Washington Women's Correctional.

6. I estimate that my office has received, on average, 5 calls a year from the Washington Women's Correctional facility since 1996.

7. Since 1996, my office has received 2 to 3 calls a month from inmates at Clallam Bay.

8. Until the last few years, I do not recall hearing any rate disclosure information before I accepted an inmate-initiated telephone call.
