Subject: Shuttle Express Investigation – CONFIDENTIAL Status

Dear Ms. Washburn:

As you know, we represent Shuttle Express with regard to the Commission's request for information dated October 23, 2007. Per this request, Shuttle Express submitted all pertinent information to the Commission in November 2007. The submitted information was "designated confidential," and consequently, submitted in compliance with WAC 480-07-160.

On April 23, 2008, we received a phone call from the Commission stating that it plans to post the investigative report of Shuttle Express, along with certain confidential documents with noted redactions on Monday, April 28, 2008. The Commission stated that it would not treat Shuttle Express's documents as confidential under Title 80 because the investigation regarded a transportation matter. Shuttle Express does not agree with the Commission's interpretation of the pertinent WAC and RCW. However, the issue is hereby rendered moot as to the documents emailed April 24, 2008 because Shuttle Express no longer designates these documents, in their redacted form, confidential. Thus, Shuttle Express hereby withdraws its confidential designation thereof and permits the Commission to post the redacted documents emailed April 24, 2008.
