JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. We are on the record. Good morning. Today is Tuesday, May 14th, 2019, and the time is approximately 9:03. We are here for mover's court. There is a traffic accident. Some of the parties are delayed, so we are going to go in recess until approximately 9:20. And that's it. We are in recess.
(Recess taken from 9:03 a.m.
until 9:25 a.m.)
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. We are on the record. Good morning. The time is approximately 9:25 a.m. We are back on the record. My name is Laura Chartoff. I am an administrative law judge with the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission.

There are three household goods carriers who should be here today, so the first thing we're going to do is see who is here. And there is a court reporter who is recording everything we say, so when I call your name, please, if you are in the room, raise your hand and say "here" or "present."

So Docket TV-190215, Visionary Movers?
MR. LEVERETTE: Here.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Thank you.
Docket TV-190216, iHaul LLC?
MR. COOPER: Here.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Thank you.
And Docket TV-190217, Move for Less LLC?
MR. DEYNEKA: Here.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Thank you.
Okay. So you are here because the Commission has information that your company is or was operating as a household goods carrier without a permit. Operating as a household goods carrier without a permit is illegal and subject to a penalty of up to $$ 5,000$ per violation. And if you are found to have engaged in business as a household goods carrier without a permit, the Commission can order you to cease and desist operating and impose the penalty.

So the Commission has initiated an enforcement action against you and your business, and at this preliminary hearing, I'm going to ask you how you choose to proceed.

So you have two options. So option A is to admit that you were operating illegally and to agree to cease and deist operating as an unpermitted household

1 goods carrier. If you choose this option, you must 2 agree to stop providing, offering, or advertising unpermitted household goods services unless or until you receive a household goods permit from the Commission.

If you have applied for or obtained a permit in advance of this hearing, please let me know that when I call you up. If you have obtained your permit, you can continue to operate so long as you are permitted as you have your permit, but we will need to discuss a penalty. There will be a penalty for periods when you were operating illegally.

So option B is to ask for a classification hearing, and you would choose option B if you believe you are not operating illegally. In other words, you're denying that you offer, advertise, or operate unpermitted household goods carrier services. So if you choose this option, we will schedule a formal evidentiary hearing where you will be required to present proof that your business is not subject to regulation by the Commission. The hearing will be set in the next two months with a deadline a week before the hearing for both you and the Commission Staff to list your witnesses and file any exhibits.

Mr. Brian Braun will be speaking for the Commission this morning. If you've not already met

1 Mr. Braun, he's seated at the table to my right and he
2 is a Commission compliance investigator. choices, I will explain what else will happen today. So in a few minutes, I'll call each of you up here to make your choice, and at that time, $I$ will swear you in so anything you tell the Court will be under oath. Once you are sworn in, $I$ will ask you if you understand your choices for today's hearing and ask you to state your choice. If there's anything else you want to explain to me, you will have a chance to do that.

So if you choose option $A$, you will need to testify how you plan to comply with the law going forward, either by becoming a permitted business or shutting down your unpermitted business. Depending on what proof you can provide, you may be offered an opportunity to speak with Staff during a break in the hearing to negotiate an agreed order to resolve this matter. The agreed order will also deal with the penalty.

You were each served with a complaint that asked the Commission to penalize you for engaging in business as a household goods carrier without a permit. The law sets the maximum penalty for each violation at $$ 5,000$. And Staff will recommend a penalty and you will

1 have a chance to reach an agreement with Staff about
2 that penalty amount. If you are unable to agree, Staff

MR. LEVERETTE: Okay.
(Juston Leverette sworn.)
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Please have a seat and hit the button on your microphone to make sure -- you should see a light.

MR. LEVERETTE: Good. JUDGE CHARTOFF: Cool.

Okay. Please state your first and last name, spelling your last name for the court reporter.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: And what is your position with the company?

MR. LEVERETTE: Owner.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: And do you understand the options I laid out today?

MR. LEVERETTE: Yes, I do.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: And do you know how you want to proceed?

MR. LEVERETTE: What I would prefer to do is
I believe go with option $A$ and I'm pretty much already in compliance with getting all of my -- I already have my application in for my permit, I've already paid that, I've already got all my annual reports in. I've pretty much followed up on everything on my end that I need to do to become permitted again.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Does Staff have a recommendation on this?

MR. BRAUN: Yes, Your Honor. I am compliance -- or I agree with that. He's all caught up. I just believe the mandatory training he needs to be attending on May 22 nd, $I$ believe.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Thank you.
Okay. So when we take a break, you can talk to Staff and see if you can sign an agreed order, and that order will say that you agree you were operating

1 without a permit and that you advertised without a
2 permit and that you agree to stop operating until you
3 get your permit. And once you feel comfortable with 4 that order, you and Mr. Braun will both sign it and it
5 will also include most likely an agreed penalty amount.
6 But if not, you'll have the opportunity to explain to me 7 why the penalty should be different than what Staff is 8 recommending.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. So you -- yeah, I have in my notes that you were -- you were permitted and that the -- you did not file your annual report, and so and I just heard you say that you had technical difficulties --

MR. LEVERETTE: Correct.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: -- trying to file?
MR. LEVERETTE: That's why I was hoping to get a reinstatement, but for some reason, I wasn't able to get that. So I ended up having to pretty much go over the whole entire process in which I already did, went through and I complied with. So that's why, I mean, it would have been nice to try to get the reinstatement, but instead I had to pretty much start the whole entire process over.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Mr. Braun, do -- do you have anything to add?

MR. BRAUN: No, Your Honor.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Okay. Well, I am going to -- so I'll have you meet with Mr. Braun and see if you -- you two can come to an agreed order. And I understand that you were permitted and that this is an annual report issue.

MR. LEVERETTE: Correct.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: So I understand that.

MR. LEVERETTE: Gotcha.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Can you -- so -okay. So at this point, you can please return to your seat, and then once I've had a chance to call up everybody, we'll take a break and that's when you can discuss.

MR. LEVERETTE: Sounds good. I appreciate it.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Thank you.
Okay. So the next Docket is iHaul LLC. Come forward.
(Ashley Simmons-Cooper and Markiss Cooper sworn.)

JUDGE CHARTOFF: You can take a seat over there. So -- so please state your first and last name, spelling your last name for the court reporter.

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Ashley Simmons-Cooper, S-i-m-m-o-n-s, hyphen, $\mathrm{C}-\mathrm{o}-\mathrm{o}-\mathrm{p}-\mathrm{e}-\mathrm{r}$.

MR. COOPER: Markiss Cooper, $C-o-o-p-e-r$, first name is M-a-r-k-i-s-s.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: So do you go by Ms. Simmons-Cooper?

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Yes.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. What is your position with the company?

Page 12

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: I am a general manager and co-owner.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: And you?
MR. COOPER: Owner.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: So do you understand the options that I explained today?

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Yes, and since -- well, it -- so we've received our temporary permit and it was kind of a -- Brian may have a better explanation, it was kind of timing issue with things. There was like a two-week period. I was under the understanding that once we were registered for the training course and we got our operation in that we were in compliance. So I did not realize we were actually in noncompliance until we received a phone call and they were trying to serve us the letter.

MR. BRAUN: I believe she's talking about the Order 01. I have been in contact with this company since February when doing application and the communication kind of fell off. And so according, you know, our procedures, we check to see if we can get a move. In the meantime, they actually got in their application while trying to achieve service. They had moved and wasn't able to get served, but then they stipulated acceptance of service, which you are aware

1 of.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. So but according to -- let me see. So according to my notes, you were not permitted prior to -- when -- when did you put the application in?

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: When I came for the training, because we needed the rest of the numbers to complete the application as far as the -- what was the State -- the L & I number, something like that. And where we receive our business mail, our business office was closed due to maintenance repairs, so we were unable to receive those numbers. So when I came here for the training, I went downstairs and spoke with Mike Dotson and we were able to complete everything then.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: So I -- I'm pulling up the -- the records from this case. So according to -let me see, so you got your first compliance letter from the Commission looks like February 20th, 2019, and then you applied for a permit April 18th, 2019; does that sound right?

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: So we received the letter March 2nd.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay.
MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: And that was -- I believe it was a Saturday because the following Monday

Page 14

1 is when I -- the first time I contacted Brian and I had 2 asked him, you know, can you explain this to me.

3 Because the date that it needed to be turned in was the 4 6th, which gave us four days.

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: No, ma'am.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. So you're admitting that you were operating prior to getting that compliance letter?

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Yes, because we were completely unaware. We had no clue. We thought we had everything and all these per- -- all the permits that we needed. We had never even heard of this.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Right, okay. Okay. So if you -- if you choose to oper- -- to enter into an agreed order with Staff or discuss that, what the order will say is that you agree you were operating without a permit prior -- you know, prior to finding out about it.

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Yes.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: And that you agree you'll stop operating if you should lose your permit.

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Correct.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: And you can negotiate with Staff about the penalty, and I believe that the fact that you were not permitted before, you were not aware of -- of the Commission and that you were required, that -- that will be taken into account with the penalty.

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Okay.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: So the fact that -- what
I -- what I think you're -- what I think I'm hearing is that you got that compliance letter, you applied for a permit -- I guess I -- I don't -- the fact that -- we -we still bring people -- I'm trying to think of how to say this. I'm twisting my -- I don't want to put -- I have to be careful because $I$ don't want to put words in your mouth that aren't -- that you're not trying to say.

So I guess I don't understand the issue of -- are you concerned that you feel like you were brought in -- you didn't have enough time to comply or...

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: No, not necessarily. So I can kind of give you a timeline. So the date on the letter that -- the first letter that we received from the Commission was February 20th. We didn't receive the letter until March 2 nd. The letter was the -- the -- I guess I'd call it a demand in the 1 letter, the deadline was March 6th.

So immediately, the following business day, which was that Monday, $I$ want to say that was the 4 th, $I$ contacted Brian, I asked him, you know, I'm -- I'm confused. How did we get here? I've never heard of this, and then $I$ received this letter saying that we could possibly be imposed with a $$ 5,000$ fine, you know, can you explain this to me?

So he explained, you know, you need to go through the application process and make sure you do the registration for the classes for the trainings. So we did that immediately. We got our training date. At the training date, I had more questions because I was still kind of confused about how all this works. And in between that time, I contacted Brian a couple of times, and the last time $I$ spoke with him, he reminded me to make sure $I$ watch my email for the exact training date. And then the list final -- we finally received the email notification of the list and whatnot.

So when I came down, $I$ did all that stuff, $I$ turned the application in there. And then the next thing I hear is I received an email from Mike saying that the application is on hold. And at that point, I was totally confused because I'm like I thought that we'd done everything that we were asked to do. And then

1 we get a phone call from the process server and I'm 2 like, well, what is -- I didn't understand how it got 3 there.

Page 18

1 you -- you know, as you said, you -- you were operating
2 illegally, so this is the process that we do to get
3 people into compliance.

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Right.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: So do you have anything else to add? No?

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: NO.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. So why don't you -- if you could return to your seat, and we'll take a break after I call the third party.

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Thank you. JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Thank you. Okay. So the third party is Docket 190217, Move for Less LLC? Are you still on the line? MR. DEYNEKA: Yes, yes, your Honor. JUDGE CHARTOFF: And I will swear you in. (Yuriy Deyneka sworn.) JUDGE CHARTOFF: Thank you. Please state your first and last name, spelling your last name for the court reporter.

MR. DEYNEKA: Yuriy Deyneka, last name $D-e-y-n$, as in Nancy, $e-k-a$.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Thank you. And what is your position with the company?

MR. DEYNEKA: I'm owner of the company.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Owner, okay. And do you understand your options here today?

MR. DEYNEKA: Yes, yes, I'm going with two (inaudible).

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Could you repeat what you said?

MR. DEYNEKA: I'm going with two, so -JUDGE CHARTOFF: Oh, okay. You're going -MR. DEYNEKA: Yeah, so it's not hard to choose from, but I guess I have to be the second one because we -- we were in compliance. The only is that I basically had Move for Less as a d/b/a for my other company and it was somehow in the process of like verification or something like that with -- but we -- we were in compliance fully so...

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Mr. Braun, do you have any comment?

MR. BRAUN: At the time of everything when the -- when I did my investigation, there was two -well, there were two separate companies, they had two separate UBIs, and it appears there were two separate companies operating.

Yes, Yuriy was a pivot point of being the owner of both companies, but Move for Less had a different UBI than the Two Men and a Moving Van, which

Page 20

1 he now has an active permit under and has moved his $2 \mathrm{~d} / \mathrm{b} / \mathrm{a}$ of his Move for Less under. He was previously had 3 both companies permitted with the UTC. The Move for

4 Less had lost its permit due to lack of insurance. The
5 Move for Less had a website that was active, had no UTC
6 number on it and it had no indication that it was even 7 tied to Two Men and a Moving Van. That would be based 8 on my investigation upon for bringing him into court
9 today.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Thank you.
Okay. So, Mr. Deyneka, so you have -- it does look like your permit was cancelled.

MR. DEYNEKA: It was -- it -- uh-huh.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: But you have the option to ask for an evidentiary hearing, so I will -- so I just want to make sure you understand that we will go ahead and set a hearing where you would need to prove that you were permitted.

MR. DEYNEKA: Of course. The thing is that I basically reopen -- I open another company, so I -- I didn't know that I have to have two UTC permits for each company. So I called the office, and there was a lady at the UTC office and she said that $I$ can do it as a d/b/a, so I proceeded with that. But yeah, I didn't know that I have to put like the UTC number on my

1 website. So -- so it was my mistake, so but we were 2 always in compliance.

25 July 22nd.

MR. DEYNEKA: Yeah.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Does that work for you?
MR. DEYNEKA: Yeah, yeah. If it's only one way, I have all paperwork, about 12 pages, all documents.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay.
MR. DEYNEKA: So everything is ready so...
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Do -- and I assume,
Mr. Braun, do we have an address for -- for Move for Less?

MR. BRAUN: Yes, Judge, we have an email address and a telephone number.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. So I will send a hearing notice to you by email, and at that hearing, you will be required to present proof that your business -actually --

MR. DEYNEKA: Yeah, but you guys have all of those -- those documents. I can't bring anything better than you -- than I sent to Mr. Brian and Mr. Mike.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: You know what, I have to -I have to consult with my supervisor because you're presenting something unusual. I'm not sure if a classification hearing is appropriate, so I'm going to ask you to remain on the line.

MR. DEYNEKA: Sure.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: And I will consult with my supervisor during the break, and let me get the rest of the parties going on that. Okay. So please hold on. MR. DEYNEKA: Sure.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: And -- so okay. So at this point, we're going to take a break. And as soon as you have a chance to review the cease and desist orders with Staff, you will have a chance to talk about the penalty. The penalty may be small or there may be a reason why Staff asked for a larger penalty, for example, if you've been in front of a judge here before or you used to have a household goods permit with the Commission that was cancelled.

Usually part of the penalty is suspended and you will not have to pay it unless you break the law again. So you will pay part of the penalty today, and you would only have to pay the rest of the penalty if you violate the order.

I will then call each of you back up, make sure you understand the order, I will sign it, and then you will leave with a copy of it. And is there anything else before we take a break?

MR. BRAUN: No, Your Honor. JUDGE CHARTOFF: Oh, okay. So we are in recess. I will be in my office, let me know when I need

Page 24

1 to come back.
(Recess taken from 10:00 a.m. until 10:35 a.m.)

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Let's be back on the record.

MR. DEYNEKA: Yes.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Mr. Deyneka, you're still on the line?

MR. DEYNEKA: Yes, mm-hmm.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. So I did have a chance to discuss with the supervising judge. You do -you have a right to dispute the allegations against you, so I will go ahead and set your case for hearing as we discussed on July 22nd.

MR. DEYNEKA: Mm-hmm.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: And we will get a notice out to you.

MR. DEYNEKA: Mm-hmm.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay.
MR. DEYNEKA: Okay.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: So you are --
MR. DEYNEKA: What -- what time?
JUDGE CHARTOFF: We can do 9:30 or 1:30.
MR. DEYNEKA: 1:30 will be best because I have to drop off the kid in the morning at the school so...
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. 1:30 it is.
MR. DEYNEKA: Mm-hmm, yeah.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Anything further? Okay. You are free to go.

MR. DEYNEKA: All right. Thank you much.
Thank you. Thank you, Your Honor.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Thank you.
MR. DEYNEKA: Thank you, bye-bye.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: So -- okay. So I'll call up Visionary Movers, Juston Leverette. Okay. And I'll just briefly go over the order. So did you have a chance to read the whole order?

MR. LEVERETTE: Yes.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: And do you understand it? MR. LEVERETTE: Yes, ma'am.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. And I see that you and Mr. Braun have both signed it. Looks like there are two violations; one for offering to transport household goods and one for advertising household goods. Visionary Movers is assessed a penalty of $$ 5,000$, a $$ 4,500$ portion of the penalty is suspended for a period of two years, and the company will pay the $$ 500$ in three installments?

MR. LEVERETTE: Correct.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Yes. And I understand the company -- you have an application pending?

MR. LEVERETTE: (Nodding head.)
JUDGE CHARTOFF: And do you understand that if you miss a payment you have to pay the entire amount?

MR. LEVERETTE: Yes.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Including the suspended penalty. So if for some reason you are going to be late making a payment, you must contact Staff and make arrangements so you don't end up having to pay the full amount.

MR. LEVERETTE: Gotcha.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: And the forty -- $$ 4,500$ is suspended for two years from today's date, which means that if Staff finds you operating without a permit during this period, you would have to pay the full $$ 4,500$.

MR. LEVERETTE: Gotcha.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: So -- and one last thing, the order to cease and desist is permanent. What that means, that even after two years, if Staff finds you operating without your permit, they can go straight to Superior Court and ask for higher penalties. So it's very important that you follow the law, that you keep your -- so long as you're operating that you keep your 1 permit in good standing.

MR. LEVERETTE: Gotcha.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: And don't let it lapse. MR. LEVERETTE: Right. Gotcha.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Do you have any additional questions?

MR. LEVERETTE: No, ma'am.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. I am going to sign this. Okay. And Staff will make a copy for you, and once you get the copy, you'll be free to go.

MR. LEVERETTE: Sweet deal. Appreciate it. JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. So you can return to your seat and once they give you the copy, you'll be free to go.

MR. LEVERETTE: Thank you.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: And iHaul, come back up.
So have you had a chance to read the whole order?
MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Yes.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: And do you understand it?
MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Yes.
MR. COOPER: Yes.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. And I see -- okay.
So Ms. Simmons-Cooper has signed it?
MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Yes.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. And it looks like

Page 28

1 there are two violations; one for offering a move and
2 one for advertising a move. There is a $$ 5,000$ penalty,
3 a $$ 4,750$ portion of the penalty is suspended for a provided iHaul maintains its permit or refraining permanently from operating should it fail to maintain the permit. The payments -- a $$ 100$ payment is being made today and then $$ 150$ on June 14 th, 2019?

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: That's correct.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. And do you understand that if you miss a payment, you'd have to pay the entire amount?
MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Yes.
MR. COOPER: Yes.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: So if, for some reason, you'll be late making a second payment, you should contact Staff and make arrangements so you don't have the full $$ 5,000$ owing. Okay. Do you have any questions?
MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: No.
MR. COOPER: No.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. I'll go ahead and sign this. Okay. Once you get a copy, you'll be free to go.
MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Thank you.
