Subject: RE: Docket UT-181051 Staff Letter

Dear Ms. Brown: I just received the attached letter via e-mail and wanted to respond as quickly as possible. I believe that Staff's new consultant is obliged to file an Exhibit B in each of the other dockets, and I request that he does so prior to the provision of any confidential information. CenturyLink will not object to the provision of the specific documents identified in Order 04 in this docket, but CenturyLink must have assurances that the expert is bound to the non-disclosure provisions under the protective orders in Dockets UT-140597 and 170042, as your previous expert was. I can formalize this in a letter to be filed if necessary, but for now am copying the Records Center and the ALJ.

Subject: Docket UT-181051 Staff Letter

I have attached an electronic copy of a letter from Commission Staff regarding provision of confidential documents to a newly-retained Commission consultant in the above-referenced docket. This is electronic-only service, no paper copy will follow. If you have any problems accessing this document, please contact me.
