

BEFORE THE WASHINGTON STATE
UTILITIES AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

WASHINGTON UTILITIES AND TRANSPORTATION
COMMISSION,

Complainant,

v.

AVISTA CORPORATION, d/b/a AVISTA UTILITIES,

Respondent.

) DOCKET NOS. UE-200900, ) UG-200901, UE-200894
) (Consolidated)

) AMENDED MOTION ) FOR LEAVE TO ) FILE REVISED TESTIMONY ) AND EXHIBITS RELATING ) TO AMI

---

1           On March 5, 2021, Avista Corporation (hereinafter "Avista" or the "Company") filed a Motion for Leave to File Revised Testimony on AMI, attached to which were revisions to the testimony and accompanying exhibits of Mr. Vermillion, Ms. Rosentrater and Mr. DeLuciano.

2           By this Amended Motion, Avista proposes to add revised pages of testimony of Ms. Elizabeth
Andrews (Exh. EMA-1T), which carry through the impact of the AMI revisions to the "AMI Adjustment (3.16)" in her prefiled direct testimony. These pages are attached to this Amended Motion. With these additional revisions, Avista understands that Staff will not oppose the underlying Motion as filed, and as amended.

3           RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 10th day of March, 2021.

/s/ David J. Meyer

---

David J. Meyer, Vice President and Chief Counsel for Regulatory and Governmental Affairs

cc: Service List