Mr. Tranisi,

I am the Administrative Law Judge assigned to your case. I received a copy of your letter today. With respect to your inquiry regarding the hearing, it would be preferable to have you appear in Olympia for the hearing. I understand your conflict with the current hearing date.

Our regulations allow us to liberally construe pleadings and I am willing to construe your letter as a motion to reschedule the hearing date. The Commission may grant such a request if the party requesting it states good cause and the rescheduling will not prejudice any other party or the Commission. The Commission Staff may file a response to your letter requesting that the hearing be rescheduled.

You may also contact Ms. Jennifer Cameron-Rulkowski who represents the Commission Staff in this case and try to select a hearing date that will work well for both of you. Ms. Cameron-Rulkowski's e-mail address is included in the address line of this message and her telephone number is (360) 664-1186.

You may also contact Ms. Cameron-Rulkowski regarding obtaining copies of the documents you request in your letter.

I am not permitted to engage in any communications regarding the substance of the complaint, but I am happy to answer any procedural questions you may have.

Patricia Clark

Administrative Law Judge
