RE: Notice of Intent to Send to Collections, Penalty Assessment No. TV-140340

Dear Mr. Adekanmbi:

As you are aware, on April 9, 2014, the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission issued a Complaint Seeking to Impose Penalties for engaging in business as a household goods carrier within the State of Washington without the authority required by RCW 81.80. On May 7, 2014, the Commission entered a Stipulated Initial Order Classifying Respondent as Household Goods Carrier; Ordering Respondent to Cease & Desist; Imposing and Suspending Penalties on Condition of Future Compliance, which imposed a penalty of $5,000. The Commission suspended $4,500 of the penalty, with the remaining $500 due subject to a payment schedule of three monthly installments. Sea-Tac Movers failed to make the final monthly installment and a balance of $166 remains due and owing. The Commission sent Sea-Tac Movers LLC a Final Notice on July 26, 2014.

The Commission has not received the $166 payment due and owing.

This is to notify you that the Commission intends to forward your outstanding debt to a collection agency for collection. You likely will incur additional expenses and fees, including costs of collection, attorney's fees, and interest. These expenses and fees will be added to your outstanding $166 balance.

If you have any questions about this letter or about the company's obligations under Commission rules, you may contact Sondra Walsh at (360) 664-1286.

Very truly yours,

SALLY BROWN
