Certificate of Public Convenience	)
and Necessity to Operate a Gas Plant	)	FIRST SUPPLEMENTAL
for Hire in the general area or	)	ORDER
areas of Battle Ground and Ridge-	)
field, in Clark County, Washington.	)
.....	)

By its order of August 20, 1963, in the above cause, the Commission amended the Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to Operate a Gas Plant for Hire held by the Northwest Natural Gas Company to include the towns of Battle Ground and Ridgefield and adjacent area in Clark County, Washington. The company now advises the Commission that part of its gas transmission line from Ridgefield to the El Paso Natural Gas Company's city gate station will be located outside of its certificated area and requests that the order certifying the Clark County area be modified to include all of the transmission line route. Since it is expected and planned to serve customers directly from the gas transmission line, the company's request is reasonable and should be approved.

Public convenience and necessity require that the Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to Operate a Gas Plant for Hire No. 1 amended, of the Northwest Natural Gas Company be amended to include the additional area in Clark County as requested and delineated in the order part of this order.
