goods carrier. If you choose this option, you must agree to stop providing, offering, or advertising unpermitted household goods services unless or until you receive a household goods permit from the Commission.

If you have applied for or obtained a permit in advance of this hearing, please let me know that when I call you up. If you have obtained your permit, you can continue to operate so long as you are permitted as you have your permit, but we will need to discuss a penalty. There will be a penalty for periods when you were operating illegally.

So option B is to ask for a classification hearing, and you would choose option B if you believe you are not operating illegally. In other words, you're denying that you offer, advertise, or operate unpermitted household goods carrier services. So if you choose this option, we will schedule a formal evidentiary hearing where you will be required to present proof that your business is not subject to regulation by the Commission. The hearing will be set in the next two months with a deadline a week before the hearing for both you and the Commission Staff to list your witnesses and file any exhibits.

Mr. Brian Braun will be speaking for the Commission this morning. If you've not already met have a chance to reach an agreement with Staff about that penalty amount. If you are unable to agree, Staff will explain their recommendation, but the Commission will make a final decision on the penalty amount.

If you choose option B, that is if you deny you are operating as a household goods mover, we will schedule another hearing and in that case, it would help if you have your schedule handy so we can choose a date.

Okay. So, Mr. Braun, I'll swear you in now.

10 (Brian Braun sworn.)

JUDGE CHARTOFF: So Visionary Movers, can you please come forward? Before you sit down -- oh, you will sit there, but before you sit down, I'll swear you in.

MR. LEVERETTE: Okay. (Juston Leverette sworn.)

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Please have a seat and hit the button on your microphone to make sure -- you should see a light.

MR. LEVERETTE: Good.
JUDGE CHARTOFF: Cool.

Okay. Please state your first and last name, spelling your last name for the court reporter.

Mr. Braun, he's seated at the table to my right and he is a Commission compliance investigator.

Okay. So now that I've gone over your choices, I will explain what else will happen today. So in a few minutes, I'll call each of you up here to make your choice, and at that time, I will swear you in so anything you tell the Court will be under oath. Once you are sworn in, I will ask you if you understand your choices for today's hearing and ask you to state your choice. If there's anything else you want to explain to me, you will have a chance to do that.

So if you choose option A, you will need to testify how you plan to comply with the law going forward, either by becoming a permitted business or shutting down your unpermitted business. Depending on what proof you can provide, you may be offered an opportunity to speak with Staff during a break in the hearing to negotiate an agreed order to resolve this matter. The agreed order will also deal with the penalty.

You were each served with a complaint that asked the Commission to penalize you for engaging in business as a household goods carrier without a permit. The law sets the maximum penalty for each violation at $5,000. And Staff will recommend a penalty and you will JUDGE CHARTOFF: And what is your position with the company?

MR. LEVERETTE: Owner.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: And do you understand the options I laid out today?

MR. LEVERETTE: Yes, I do.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: And do you know how you want to proceed?

MR. LEVERETTE: What I would prefer to do is I believe go with option A and I'm pretty much already in compliance with getting all of my -- I already have my application in for my permit, I've already paid that, I've already got all my annual reports in. I've pretty much followed up on everything on my end that I need to do to become permitted again.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Does Staff have a recommendation on this?

MR. BRAUN: Yes, Your Honor. I am compliance -- or I agree with that. He's all caught up. I just believe the mandatory training he needs to be attending on May 22nd, I believe.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Thank you.

Okay. So when we take a break, you can talk to Staff and see if you can sign an agreed order, and that order will say that you agree you were operating

Page 9 without a permit and that you advertised without a permit and that you agree to stop operating until you get your permit. And once you feel comfortable with that order, you and Mr. Braun will both sign it and it will also include most likely an agreed penalty amount.

But if not, you'll have the opportunity to explain to me why the penalty should be different than what Staff is recommending.

MR. LEVERETTE: Okay. And I do also just want to clarify, I have been in compliance with you guys for, I believe, a little bit over a year. It wasn't as if I was just kind of, you know, being -- sounds like I was just operating without being permitted and just kind of trying to get over on the system. And that by all means wasn't the case. I tried to deal with Benjamin -- I'm not sure last name. But I tried to get in my annual report. We had -- I had issues with my computer and filing and getting it over to him.

But I -- however, I did do that and I -- I thought I was in the clear and pretty much come to find out I wasn't, and then I -- then I find out all this stuff that I got and obviously from that point, I got right back into compliance. But it wasn't as if I was just kind of out operating illegally knowingly and just kind of in that situation on that.

MR. LEVERETTE: Gotcha.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Can you -- so -okay. So at this point, you can please return to your seat, and then once I've had a chance to call up everybody, we'll take a break and that's when you can discuss.

7 MR. LEVERETTE: Sounds good. I appreciate 8 it.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Thank you.
 Okay. So the next Docket is iHaul LLC.

Page 10

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. So you -- yeah, I have in my notes that you were -- you were permitted and that the -- you did not file your annual report, and so and I just heard you say that you had technical difficulties --

MR. LEVERETTE: Correct.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: -- trying to file?

MR. LEVERETTE: That's why I was hoping to get a reinstatement, but for some reason, I wasn't able to get that. So I ended up having to pretty much go over the whole entire process in which I already did, went through and I complied with. So that's why, I mean, it would have been nice to try to get the reinstatement, but instead I had to pretty much start the whole entire process over.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Mr. Braun, do -- do you have anything to add?

MR. BRAUN: No, Your Honor.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Okay. Well, I am going to -- so I'll have you meet with Mr. Braun and see if you -- you two can come to an agreed order. And I understand that you were permitted and that this is an annual report issue.

MR. LEVERETTE: Correct.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: So I understand that.

Page 12

1 MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: I am a general manager 2 and co-owner.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: And you?

MR. COOPER: Owner.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: So do you understand the options that I explained today?

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Yes, and since -- well, it -- so we've received our temporary permit and it was kind of a -- Brian may have a better explanation, it was kind of timing issue with things. There was like a two-week period. I was under the understanding that once we were registered for the training course and we got our operation in that we were in compliance. So I did not realize we were actually in noncompliance until we received a phone call and they were trying to serve

MR. BRAUN: I believe she's talking about the Order 01. I have been in contact with this company since February when doing application and the communication kind of fell off. And so according, you know, our procedures, we check to see if we can get a move. In the meantime, they actually got in their application while trying to achieve service. They had moved and wasn't able to get served, but then they stipulated acceptance of service, which you are aware of.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. So but according to -- let me see. So according to my notes, you were not permitted prior to -- when -- when did you put the application in?

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: When I came for the training, because we needed the rest of the numbers to complete the application as far as the -- what was the State -- the L & I number, something like that. And where we receive our business mail, our business office was closed due to maintenance repairs, so we were unable to receive those numbers. So when I came here for the training, I went downstairs and spoke with Mike Dotson and we were able to complete everything then.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: So I -- I'm pulling up the -- the records from this case. So according to -- let me see, so you got your first compliance letter from the Commission looks like February 20th, 2019, and then you applied for a permit April 18th, 2019; does that sound right?

 $\ensuremath{\mathsf{MS}}.$  SIMMONS-COOPER: So we received the letter March 2nd.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay.

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: And that was -- I believe it was a Saturday because the following Monday

JUDGE CHARTOFF: And you can negotiate with Staff about the penalty, and I believe that the fact that you were not permitted before, you were not aware of -- of the Commission and that you were required, that -- that will be taken into account with the penalty.

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Okay.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: So the fact that -- what I -- what I think you're -- what I think I'm hearing is that you got that compliance letter, you applied for a permit -- I guess I -- I don't -- the fact that -- we -- we still bring people -- I'm trying to think of how to say this. I'm twisting my -- I don't want to put -- I have to be careful because I don't want to put words in your mouth that aren't -- that you're not trying to say.

So I guess I don't understand the issue of -- are you concerned that you feel like you were brought in -- you didn't have enough time to comply or...

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: No, not necessarily. So I can kind of give you a timeline. So the date on the letter that -- the first letter that we received from the Commission was February 20th. We didn't receive the letter until March 2nd. The letter was the -- the -- I guess I'd call it a demand in the is when I -- the first time I contacted Brian and I had asked him, you know, can you explain this to me. Because the date that it needed to be turned in was the 6th, which gave us four days.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. So prior to -- so when you got the compliance letter, though, are -- are you denying that you were operating as a business prior to?

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: No, ma'am.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. So you're admitting that you were operating prior to getting that compliance letter?

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Yes, because we were completely unaware. We had no clue. We thought we had everything and all these per- -- all the permits that we needed. We had never even heard of this.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: Right, okay. Okay. So if you -- if you choose to oper- -- to enter into an agreed order with Staff or discuss that, what the order will say is that you agree you were operating without a permit prior -- you know, prior to finding out about it.

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Yes.

JUDGE CHARTOFF: And that you agree you'll stop operating if you should lose your permit.

MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Correct.

letter, the deadline was March 6th.

So immediately, the following business day, which was that Monday, I want to say that was the 4th, I contacted Brian, I asked him, you know, I'm -- I'm confused. How did we get here? I've never heard of this, and then I received this letter saying that we could possibly be imposed with a $5,000 fine, you know, can you explain this to me?

So he explained, you know, you need to go through the application process and make sure you do the registration for the classes for the trainings. So we did that immediately. We got our training date. At the training date, I had more questions because I was still kind of confused about how all this works. And in between that time, I contacted Brian a couple of times, and the last time I spoke with him, he reminded me to make sure I watch my email for the exact training date. And then the list final -- we finally received the email notification of the list and whatnot.

So when I came down, I did all that stuff, I turned the application in there. And then the next thing I hear is I received an email from Mike saying that the application is on hold. And at that point, I was totally confused because I'm like I thought that we'd done everything that we were asked to do. And then

Page 17 Page 19 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Owner, okay. And do you 1 we get a phone call from the process server and I'm 1 2 2 like, well, what is -- I didn't understand how it got understand your options here today? 3 3 there. MR. DEYNEKA: Yes, yes, I'm going with two 4 4 Now, I've spoken with Brian since this as (inaudible). 5 5 well and I understand the process of this. Whereas JUDGE CHARTOFF: Could you repeat what you said? 6 before, like I said, we'd never even heard of the 6 7 7 Utility Commission. MR. DEYNEKA: I'm going with two, so --8 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. 8 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Oh, okay. You're going --9 MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: And so it was -- it was 9 MR. DEYNEKA: Yeah, so it's not hard to 10 all kind of new to us, and I -- I feel like I made the 10 choose from, but I guess I have to be the second one 11 mistake. I should have kept better communication with 11 because we -- we were in compliance. The only is that I 12 him in between the time up until the training. 12 basically had Move for Less as a d/b/a for my other JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Okay. Lunderstand. 13 13 company and it was somehow in the process of like Yeah, you did not expect to be brought into this 14 14 verification or something like that with -- but we -- we proceeding when you had already got your application in 15 15 were in compliance fully so... 16 and were... 16 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Mr. Braun, do you have any 17 MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Right. 17 comment? 18 JUDGE CHARTOFF: In the process -- yeah. 18 MR. BRAUN: At the time of everything when 19 Okay. Okay. So I -- yeah. 19 the -- when I did my investigation, there was two --20 Do you have anything to add? No? 20 well, there were two separate companies, they had two 21 MR. BRAUN: No, Your Honor. 21 separate UBIs, and it appears there were two separate 22 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. So why don't we go 22 companies operating. 23 23 ahead and at the break, you can see if you can negotiate Yes, Yuriy was a pivot point of being the 24 an order with Brian to get this resolved. I do 24 owner of both companies, but Move for Less had a 25 understand that you were surprised to be brought in, but 2.5 different UBI than the Two Men and a Moving Van, which Page 18 Page 20 1 you -- you know, as you said, you -- you were operating 1 he now has an active permit under and has moved his 2 illegally, so this is the process that we do to get 2 d/b/a of his Move for Less under. He was previously had 3 people into compliance. 3 both companies permitted with the UTC. The Move for 4 MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Right. 4 Less had lost its permit due to lack of insurance. The 5 5 JUDGE CHARTOFF: So do you have anything Move for Less had a website that was active, had no UTC 6 else to add? No? 6 number on it and it had no indication that it was even MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: No. 7 7 tied to Two Men and a Moving Van. That would be based 8 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. So why don't you --8 on my investigation upon for bringing him into court 9 if you could return to your seat, and we'll take a break 9 10 after I call the third party. 10 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Thank you. MS. SIMMONS-COOPER: Thank you. 11 11 Okay. So, Mr. Deyneka, so you have -- it 12 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Thank you. 12 does look like your permit was cancelled. 13 Okay. So the third party is Docket 190217, 13 MR. DEYNEKA: It was -- it -- uh-huh. Move for Less LLC? Are you still on the line? 14 JUDGE CHARTOFF: But you have the option to 14 ask for an evidentiary hearing, so I will -- so I just 15 MR. DEYNEKA: Yes, yes, your Honor. 15 JUDGE CHARTOFF: And I will swear you in. 16 16 want to make sure you understand that we will go ahead 17 17 (Yuriy Deyneka sworn.) and set a hearing where you would need to prove that you JUDGE CHARTOFF: Thank you. Please state 18 18 were permitted. 19 your first and last name, spelling your last name for 19 MR. DEYNEKA: Of course. The thing is that 20 the court reporter. 20 I basically reopen -- I open another company, so I -- I 21 MR. DEYNEKA: Yuriy Deyneka, last name 21 didn't know that I have to have two UTC permits for each 22 D-e-y-n, as in Nancy, e-k-a. 22 company. So I called the office, and there was a lady 23 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Thank you. And what is 23 at the UTC office and she said that I can do it as a 24 24 d/b/a, so I proceeded with that. But yeah, I didn't your position with the company? 25 25 MR. DEYNEKA: I'm owner of the company. know that I have to put like the UTC number on my

Page 21 Page 23 1 1 website. So -- so it was my mistake, so but we were JUDGE CHARTOFF: And I will consult with my 2 2 always in compliance. supervisor during the break, and let me get the rest of 3 3 the parties going on that. Okay. So please hold on. JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. 4 4 MR. DEYNEKA: Had insurance. Actually I had MR. DEYNEKA: Sure. 5 5 insurance, but -- for that particular unit that I used JUDGE CHARTOFF: And -- so okay. So at this 6 for Move for Less, but I transfer it to Two Men and a 6 point, we're going to take a break. And as soon as you 7 7 Moving Van, so it was always on the insurance. So we have a chance to review the cease and desist orders with 8 never break the UTC law about what insurances and 8 Staff, you will have a chance to talk about the penalty. 9 9 everything. So it was always under insurance, and it The penalty may be small or there may be a reason why 10 10 was always cargo, it was always physical damage and Staff asked for a larger penalty, for example, if you've 11 general liability. So I wasn't aware but under Two Men 11 been in front of a judge here before or you used to have 12 and a Moving Van, which is my second company so... 12 a household goods permit with the Commission that was 13 13 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. All right. Well, cancelled. 14 it's your choice, so I -- I'm going to go ahead and --14 Usually part of the penalty is suspended and so I have some tentative dates. Our -- we're 15 15 you will not have to pay it unless you break the law 16 actually -- UTC headquarters is moving next month, and 16 again. So you will pay part of the penalty today, and 17 I'm not -- I'm not entirely sure if the room is 17 you would only have to pay the rest of the penalty if 18 available, but I can -- I'll pick -- I picked some 18 you violate the order. 19 tentative dates. So we'd be looking at a hearing on --19 I will then call each of you back up, make 20 during the week of July 22nd. Are you available? 20 sure you understand the order, I will sign it, and then 21 MR. DEYNEKA: Yeah, yeah, I'm available. My 21 you will leave with a copy of it. And is there anything 22 wife is pregnant. So I'm not sure, because our due date 22 else before we take a break? 23 is close, but -- but I will do my best so ... 23 MR. BRAUN: No, Your Honor. 24 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. So I'm looking at 24 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Oh, okay. So we are in 25 July 22nd. 25 recess. I will be in my office, let me know when I need Page 22 Page 24 1 MR. DEYNEKA: Yeah. 1 to come back. 2 2 (Recess taken from 10:00 a.m. JUDGE CHARTOFF: Does that work for you? 3 3 MR. DEYNEKA: Yeah, yeah. If it's only one until 10:35 a.m.) way, I have all paperwork, about 12 pages, all 4 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Let's be back on the 4 5 documents. 5 record. 6 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. 6 MR. DEYNEKA: Yes. 7 MR. DEYNEKA: So everything is ready so... 7 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. Mr. Deyneka, you're 8 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Do -- and I assume, 8 still on the line? MR. DEYNEKA: Yes, mm-hmm. 9 Mr. Braun, do we have an address for -- for Move for 9 10 10 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. So I did have a Less? 11 MR. BRAUN: Yes, Judge, we have an email 11 chance to discuss with the supervising judge. You do --12 address and a telephone number. 12 you have a right to dispute the allegations against you, 13 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. So I will send a 13 so I will go ahead and set your case for hearing as we hearing notice to you by email, and at that hearing, you 14 discussed on July 22nd. 14 15 will be required to present proof that your business --15 MR. DEYNEKA: Mm-hmm. 16 16 JUDGE CHARTOFF: And we will get a notice actually --17 17 MR. DEYNEKA: Yeah, but you guys have all of out to you. 18 those -- those documents. I can't bring anything better 18 MR. DEYNEKA: Mm-hmm. 19 than you -- than I sent to Mr. Brian and Mr. Mike. 19 JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. 20 JUDGE CHARTOFF: You know what, I have to --20 MR. DEYNEKA: Okay. 21 I have to consult with my supervisor because you're 21 JUDGE CHARTOFF: So you are --22 presenting something unusual. I'm not sure if a 22 MR. DEYNEKA: What -- what time? 23 classification hearing is appropriate, so I'm going to 23 JUDGE CHARTOFF: We can do 9:30 or 1:30. 24 ask you to remain on the line. 24 MR. DEYNEKA: 1:30 will be best because I 25 25 MR. DEYNEKA: Sure. have to drop off the kid in the morning at the school

14	MR. LEVERETTE: Yes.	14	free to go.
15	JUDGE CHARTOFF: And do you understand it?	15	MR. LEVERETTE: Thank you.
16	MR. LEVERETTE: Yes, ma'am.	16	JUDGE CHARTOFF: And iHaul, come back up.
17	JUDGE CHARTOFF: Okay. And I see that you	17	So have you had a chance to read the whole order?
