Docket No. TE-190822 - Vol. I Page 5 1 certificate, and can impose penalties of up to $5,000 1 lawyer, I'll swear you in so that anything you say 2 will be under oath. And once you're sworn in, I will 2 per violation. So at this preliminary hearing today, I'm ask if you understand your choices for today's 4 going to ask you how you'd like to proceed. Your hearing, and then ask you to state your choice. And first option is to agree to cease and desist operating if there's anything else that you want to explain to 5 as an unpermitted charter and excursion carrier. And 6 me, you'll have an opportunity to do that at that 7 if you choose that option, you must agree to stop time. 7 8 providing, offering and advertising unpermitted 8 If you choose option A, you'll want to charter and excursion carrier services unless or until 9 testify about how you're getting out of the charter you obtain a permit from the Commission. and excursion business, and you can explain how you 10 10 11 If you choose this option, you'll need to plan to do that. Depending on what proof you can show what you've done to shut down your business, provide, you may be given an opportunity to meet with either completely or partially, so that you're no Staff during the break in the hearing to negotiate an 13 13 longer advertising, offering or providing unpermitted agreed cease and desist order. 14 14 services in this state. For example, you'll need to 15 Again, if you've recently applied for or 15 prove that you have taken down or changed your website received a permit, you'll also be given an opportunity 16 16 17 or other online advertisements for your business to meet with Staff to negotiate an agreed order to 17 resolve this matter. 18 If you have applied for or obtained a 18 certificate in advance of the hearing, please let me 19 In the agreed order, we'll also deal with know that when I call you up. In that case, we will the penalty. You were each served with a complaint 20 21 not ask you to stop operating, but we will want you to 21 that asked the Commission to penalize you for engaging acknowledge that you were operating previously without in business as a charter or excursion carrier without 22 22 a permit, and that you agree that you will stop a permit, and the law sets the maximum penalty for 23 23 operating if your certificate is suspended or canceled 24 each violation at $5,000. in the future for any reason. 25 So Staff will recommend a penalty amount, Page 6

Your second option is to ask for a 2 classification hearing, and you would choose this 3 option if you believe that your business is not 4 subject to regulation by the Commission. In other words, you would be denying that you advertise, offer 6 or provide unpermitted charter and excursion carrier And if you choose this option, we will 8 schedule a formal evidentiary hearing where you will be required to present evidence that your business is three months from now, with a deadline a week before the hearing for both you and Commission Staff to list not subject to regulation by the Commission. The hearing will be set in approximately two to your witnesses and file any exhibits. 15

16 Michael Dotson will be speaking for Commission Staff this morning. Mr. Dotson is seated 17 over here to my right. He's a Commission compliance 18 investigator. 19 20 So now that we've gone over your choices, 21 I'll explain what else will happen today. In a few minutes, I will call each of you up here to make your choice. Just one second.

2.4 For those of you appearing pro se, which means that you are representing yourself without a 1 and you will have a chance to reach an agreement with Staff about the penalty amount. If you're unable to agree, Staff will explain its recommendation, but the Commission will make the final decision about the penalty amount.

6 And if you choose option B, that is, if you deny that you're operating as a charter and 7 excursion service carrier, we will schedule another

9 hearing, like I discussed earlier.

So Mr. Dotson, I will go ahead and swear 10 you in now before we call up the first carrier. If you could please stand and raise your right hand. 12

13 (Michael Dotson sworn.)

JUDGE PEARSON: Go ahead and be seated. 14
