Comments	I think this company would be a big plus for Seattle. As a former duck driver I got to show off this city to tourists and locals alike. Many groups rode the ducks every year. Birthday parties, weddings, anniversaries - all having a special day on the duck. It is also a way to point out the many great spots to eat and all the museums in town and that in turn helps support many local businesses. They just bring a smile to peoples faces when they see everyone waving or singing around town.
