Rayne,

Thank you for letting us know. We plan on filing a second stipulation for extension today, requesting the deadline be moved to next Friday, May 28. The parties are very close to an agreement, just confirming a few last details. Do we need to make a second formal filing or does this email suffice? Thanks.

Good afternoon,

I did not receive a notification when this motion was filed, so I apologize for my delayed response. The joint motion for a continuance to respond to the complaint is granted. Please let me know if you need additional time, or have any questions.

Thank you,
