Re: Docket No. UT-003022 AND UT-003040

Dear Ms. Washburn:

Pursuant to the 29th Supplemental Order in this docket, this is to identify WorldCom's witnesses for the hearing scheduled for the week of April 22, 2002. Also attached is WorldCom's exhibit list. WorldCom will not designate cross examination exhibits separate from documents identified by other parties as direct exhibits.

WorldCom intends to call Thomas Dixon and Leilani Hines as witnesses on the change management process. Mr. Dixon works as an attorney for WorldCom and also has been personally involved in the change management process. Thus, he is capable of acting as a fact witness for WorldCom. I understand that the Commission will decide during the prehearing conference whether it will allow attorneys to testify as factual witnesses. If the Commission permits the attorneys to testify as fact witnesses, Mr. Dixon will represent WorldCom and Ms. Hines will not attend the hearing. If, however, the Commission decides not to allow attorneys to present factual information about the change management process, WorldCom will call Ms. Hines.

Please call me with any questions or concerns you have about this letter.

Very truly yours,

Michel L. Singer Nelson
