WASHINGTON TELEPHONE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The Company participates in the Washington Telephone Assistance Program established by Chapter 229, Washington Laws of 1987 as amended by Chapter 170, Laws of 1990 and Chapter 480-122 of the Washington Administrative Code offers to eligible Subscribers the Washington Telephone Assistance Program described therein; and, applies to switched access lines within its exchange areas the excise tax described therein. To the extent applicable, Chapter 229, Washington Laws of 1987 as amended by Chapter 170, Laws of 1990 and Chapter 480-122 of the Washington Administrative Code are by this reference thereto incorporated herein as though fully set forth herein, and copies thereof are on file and available for inspection in the Company's business office.

Subscribers eligible to participate in the Washington Telephone Assistance Program may also be eligible for the Lifeline local service offering and Link-up program discount for connection fees under the Federal Communications Report and Order in CC Docket No.96-45 (FCC 97-157) and 47 C.F.R. § 54.400-470. Within the service area(s) for which the Company is designated as an "eligible telecommunications carrier" in accordance with Subpart C of Part 54 to Title 47, Code of Federal Regulations, the Company offers to "qualifying low-income consumers," Toll Limitation service in the form of Toll Blocking is available at no charge to Subscribers who participate in the Lifeline program. Under Toll Blocking the Subscriber may elect not to allow the completion of toll calls from his or her telephone line. Collect calls accepted by a person answering the Subscriber's telephone and calls billed from another location to the Subscriber's telephone line are not blocked under this service.

Lifeline service is a retail local service offering that is available only to qualifying low-income consumers and for which qualifying low-income consumers pay charges that have been reduced in certain respects. Under the Link Up program, qualifying low-income consumers (1) may receive a reduction in the Company's customary charge for commencing telecommunications service for qualifying connections at qualifying locations and (2) may have a deferred schedule for payment of qualifying charges assessed by the Company for commencing such service.
