DECLARATION OF APPLICANT

I understand that filing this application does not in itself constitute authority to operate as a household goods mover.

As the applicant for a household goods permit, I understand the responsibilities of a motor carrier and I am in compliance with all local, state and federal regulations governing businesses, including household goods movers, in the state of Washington.

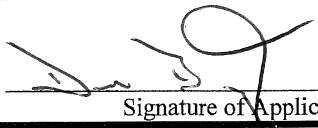

I understand that if the commission grants my application as a new entrant I will receive temporary authority to provide service as a household goods carrier on a provisional basis for at least six months. During this time, the commission will evaluate whether I have met the criteria in WAC 480-15-330 to obtain permanent authority. I also understand that I must comply with all conditions placed on my temporary permit and that failure to do so will result in cancellation of my permit.

My employees are sufficiently trained to comply with commission rules regarding estimates, bills of lading, rates and charges and terms and conditions of household goods moves. In addition, my employees are sufficiently trained to comply with commission rules regarding vehicle operation, maintenance, and all other safety requirements. My company will provide a copy of the customer survey to each customer for whom we provide transportation service.

RE: Washington State Moving Authority

Cobalt Mortgage is currently expanding into the Vancouver WA market with the anticipated opening of two new offices. Part of our marketing strategy is to offer the consumer a valuable 3rd party service provider list. The list would include 3rd party providers such as Prestige Moving Services. This strategy has worked quite well for us in the Oregon market and part of our success has been in utilizing the competent 3rd party vendors like Prestige Moving & Storage. Prestige has been a valuable partner in servicing our clients. We have worked with other 3rd party vendor services like Prestige in the past however no company has been able to handle our volume of business with the quality of service we demand like Prestige has. Simply stated, Prestige is a valued partner and is critical to our expansion efforts in Southwest Washington.

Sincerely,

Kelly Lee
