RE: In the Matter of Determining the Proper Carrier Classification of, and Complaint for Penalties against Munroe, Gerald, d/b/a AAA Movers and Delivery Specialist LLC, Docket TV-143346

TO ALL PARTIES:

On November 4, 2014, the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) entered Order 02, Stipulated Initial Order Classifying Respondent as Household Goods Carrier; Ordering Respondent to Cease & Desist; Imposing and Suspending Penalties on Condition of Future Compliance (Order 02). Order 02 ordered Gerald Munroe d/b/a AAA Movers and Delivery Specialist LLC (AAA Movers or Company) to cease and desist operating as a household goods carrier and imposed a fine of $5,000 for two violations of RCW 81.80.075, all but $1,000 of which was suspended for a period of two years from the date of Order 02, conditioned on the Company (a) refraining from operating as a household goods carrier without a permit from the Commission and (b) paying the assessed penalty of $1,000 that was not suspended.

Order 02 required that the Company pay $500 by November 4 and $500 by December 4, 2014, $1,000 of the total $5,000 in penalties assessed. Order 02 states that if a payment is missed, the entire amount of the penalty, including the suspended portion of $4,000 would become due and payable the day after the missed penalty was due. Commission records indicate that AAA Movers made a $500 payment on November 4, 2014, but failed to make the payment due on December 4, 2014.

Accordingly, AAA Movers has not complied with the conditions under which the Commission suspended $4,000 of the $5,000 penalty assessment. The full penalty amount of $5,000, less the $500 paid to date, is now due and payable.

Sincerely,

STEVEN V. KING
