YAKIMOVICH: Thank you.  JUDGE PEARSON: All right. So that  concludes the companies who are present in the hearing room today. There's no one else in the hearing room present.  So, Mr. Braun, we can proceed with a motion for default for the two remaining companies.  MR. BRAUN: Correct.  JUDGE PEARSON: So I have had a chance to review Docket TV-190832 and TV-190834. The Commission's evidence that there were offers for an intrastate move in Washington and there was advertising that meets the definition in RCW 81.80.075, engaging in business as a moving company without a household goods permit.  So what is Staff's motion with respect to these two companies?  MR. BRAUN: Staff's motion response to both companies would be a default with the penalty of $5,000 assessed to each company.  JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So let's walk through
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	the $100 payment today?  MR. YAKIMOVICH: Yes.  JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. All right. Well, if you will bring that up, I will sign it if both of you want to sign it first.  Okay. So you've had a chance to read the whole order and you understand what you signed? Okay. And it looks like there are two violations in this case; one for offering a move, one for advertising a move. The order suspends or imposes a $5,000 penalty for those two violations and suspends a $4,500 portion for a period of two years from today's date, which is November 13th, 2021. So that means if Staff finds an advertisement or you offer a move anytime during the next two years, you will have to pay that $4,500 penalty; do you understand that?  MR. YAKIMOVICH: (Nodding head.)  JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. And for the record, you're agreeing to shut down your company until you get a permit?  MR.
