Warren,

Congratulations on closing the merger today.

As we discussed, we met yesterday to internally discuss the information Qwest provided regarding CEMR. I understand that there is quite a lot of information that we need from Qwest, now CenturyLink, before we can evaluate your proposal and discuss next steps. Integra laid out its responses and identified additional information that it needs in the enclosed document, which Integra provided to Linda Gardner and Daphne Butler on March 18th.

A key answer that we need early on is how the Company, now that the deal has closed, plans to proceed with respect to this issue. Until now, although Qwest has suggested there are extenuating circumstances with respect to CEMR/MEDIACC, I believe that Qwest has not recognized this as a unique situation. Without distinguishing this situation from others, however, a precedent could be set that would be a real problem for us as well as other CLECs and regulatory authorities. If the Company intends to continue down the path of replacing CEMR/MEDIACC with a new system, the Company needs to sync up those plans with the terms of the merger settlement agreements and orders. If CenturyLink is going to ask CLECs to agree to waive the time period for a moratorium on OSS changes, then the Company needs to agree to implement the steps in the settlement agreement (paragraph 12 of the Integra agreement) for making changes to implement a new system. If CenturyLink proposes something along those lines, the CLECs may consider a waiver, but at this time we do not yet have sufficient information to evaluate the request.

We will continue to evaluate information as your Company continues to provide it. As other CLECs will also be impacted by any changes, we anticipate their involvement as well.

Jim

Enclosed is Jim Huesgen's email to Warren Mickens and Bill Cheek, FYI.

If you would like a call, or meeting in MN, to discuss the variety of topics you mentioned, let us know if those dates in April work, or if there are dates in May that are better for you.
