Then on January 8th of 2019, I had called the 206-778-1307 using an assumed name. I obtained a quote for moving services. A company representative who identified himself as Ben gave an estimate of $890 for three workers and a truck, and that was confirmed in a text message. All that was in my paperwork. And then I checked on April 8th of 2019, I visited the website again of Bensmovingservices.net, it was no longer active. JUDGE CHARTOFF: Thank you. Okay. So I will grant the motion for default for that company. You can get a copy of the default order to me after we are adjourned. Okay. So let's call the next company that did not appear, TV-190499, Samuel Owen Svarny, doing business as Brothers Moving? Again, hearing nothing, do you move for default for this company? MR. BRAUN: I do, Judge. Would you like me to go over the information again?	<ul> <li>himself as Sam gave me an estimate of between 300</li> <li>$500 for three to six hours with two workers and a</li> <li>truck.
