- 1 you're here today because the Commission has information
- 2 that your company is or was operating as a household
- 3 goods carrier without a permit, and operating or
- 4 advertising as a household goods mover without the
- 5 required permit is illegal and subject to a penalty of
- 6 up to $5,000 per violation. So if you're found to have
- 7 engaged in business as a household goods mover without a
- 8 permit, the Commission can order you to cease and desist
- 9 operating and also impose a penalty.
- 10 So the Commission initiated an enforcement
- 11 action against your business, and at this hearing today,
- 12 I'm going to ask you how you want to proceed, and you
- 13 have two options.
- So the first option is to agree to cease and
- 15 desist operating as an unpermitted household goods
- 16 carrier. And if you choose that option, that means that
- 17 you agree to stop providing, offering, and advertising
- 18 unpermitted household goods services unless or until you
- get a permit from the Commission. And you will need to
- 20 show what you've done to shut down your business either
- 21 completely or partially if -- if that's what you choose.
- 22 If you have already obtained or applied for a permit in
- 23 advance of the hearing, please let me know that, because
- 24 if you've obtained your permit, you can continue to
- 25 operate your business as long as you are permitted.
- Page 6
- 1 Have you applied for a household goods
- 2 permit?
- 3 MR. SCOTT: No, Your Honor.
- 4 JUDGE PEARSON: No, okay.
- 5 Okay. So in that case, Staff is going to
- 6 want to see proof that you're no longer operating or
- 7 advertising, so proof that you've taken down or changed
- 8 your website or other online advertisements.
- 9 The second option is to ask for a
- 10 classification hearing, and you would choose option B if
- 11 you believe that you're not operating illegally and that
- 12 your business is not subject to regulation by the
- 13 Commission. So you would be denying that you advertise
- 14 or offer unpermitted household goods carrier services.
- 15 And if you choose that option, we will
- schedule a formal evidentiary hearing where you'll be
- 17 required to present proof that your business is not
- 18 within the Commission's jurisdiction. And that hearing
- 19 would be set in the next few weeks, probably next month
- 20 or so with a deadline a week before the hearing for both
- ZO OF 30 WILL A ACCOUNT A WOCK DOLOTO THE HEATING TO DOL
- you and Commission Staff to list your witnesses and fileany exhibits.
- 23 And Brian Braun will be speaking for
- 24 Commission Staff this morning. If you have not already
- met Mr. Braun, he is seated over here at the table to my

- Page 7
- 1 right. He's a Commission compliance investigator.
- 2 So in a few minutes, I'll ask you which
- 3 choice you want to make. So I'll swear you in before we
- 4 do that so that anything that you tell me will be
- 5 considered sworn testimony made under penalty of
- 6 perjury. And once you're sworn in, I'll ask if you
- 7 understand your choices and then ask you to state your
- 8 choice. And if there's anything else you want to
- 9 explain to me, you'll have a chance to do that as well.
- 10 So if you choose the first option, agreeing
- 11 to shut down your business, you'll just need to explain
- 12 how you plan to comply with the law. And you'll have an
- 13 opportunity to meet with Staff during the break to
- 14 attempt to negotiate an agreed order to resolve this
- 15 matter, and the agreed order will also deal with the
- 16 penalty amount.
- 17 And the -- the complaint that you were
- 18 served with explains that the maximum penalty for each
- 19 violation is $5,000. Staff will recommend a penalty,
- 20 and you'll have a chance to reach an agreement with
- 21 Staff about that penalty amount. If you're unable to
- 22 agree, Staff will explain its recommendation, you can
- 23 explain your side of the story, and then I'll make the
- 4 final decision about the penalty amount. And if you
- 5 choose option B, then we'll schedule another hearing
- Page 8
- 1 like I explained earlier.
 - 2 So, Mr. Braun, why don't I swear you in now.
 - 3 (Brian Braun sworn.)
 - 4 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Please be seated.
 - 5 Okay. So who is going to speak on behalf of
 - 6 the company today?
 - 7 MR. SCOTT: Your Honor.
 - 8 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Can you state your
 - 9 full name and spell your last name for the record and
 - 10 can you speak into the microphone?
 - 11 MR. SCOTT: LeRoy Scott, and that is
 - 12 S-c-o-t-t.
 - 13 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. And what's your
 - 14 position with the company?
 - MR. SCOTT: We're a third-party carrier,
 - 16 service provider, kind of administrator, compliance,
 - 17 safety compliance, and we've been assisting Santamaria
 - 18 for a period of time prior to this event.
 - 19 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Are you an owner of
 - 20 the company?
 - 21 MR. SCOTT: Not of Santamaria.
 - 22 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Are these the --
 - 23 MR. SCOTT: I'm third-party.
 - JUDGE PEARSON: -- owners? Okay.
 - MR. SCOTT: These folks are the owners.

MR. BRAUN: That is correct. JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. All right. So we can go ahead and proceed with a motion for default for Docket TV-190833, Mark Alberto Marrero, d/b/a Mark the Mover. So I've had a chance to review that docket and Staff's evidence that there was an offer for an intrastate move in Washington and also advertising that meets the statutory definition. So what is Staff's motion for this company? MR. BRAUN: Your Honor JUDGE PEARSON: Unless that's him. Are you Mr. Marrero? MR. MARRERO: I am. JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Can you please come

- 1 will give you an opportunity to talk with Mr. Braun, who
- 2 is the Commission's compliance investigator and see if
- 3 you can reach an agreed order --
- 4 MR. MARRERO: Okay.
- 5 JUDGE PEARSON: -- for this case.
- 6 So you're here because the Commission had
- 7 information that your company is or was operating or
- 8 advertising as a household goods company without a
- 9 permit, and that conduct is subject to violation -- or
- 10 penalties of up to $5,000 per violation.
- So today, you have one of two choices. You
- 12 can either agree to cease and desist operating as a
- 13 household goods carrier unless and until you get a
- 14 permit or you can contest the allegations that you were
- 15 illegally operating as a household goods carrier. And
- 16 if you do that, we'll schedule a second hearing for a
- 17 later date where you will be required to show proof that
- 18 you are not actually engaging in the conduct that Staff
- 19 alleged in the complaint that was issued against you.
- 20 So do you know how you would like to
- 21 proceed?
- MR. MARRERO: Well, I'm going to contest it
- 23 I'm pretty sure. I -- I -- I get why I'm here, but
- 24 I didn't -- I wasn't aware of the -- that we weren't
- 25 allowed to do that. I've been a delivery contractor in

- 1 the Pacific Northwest for 25 years --
- 2 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So before you start
- 3 talking --
- 4 MR. MARRERO: Sure.
- 5 JUDGE PEARSON: -- let me swear you in,
- 6 okay?
- 7 MR. MARRERO: Okay.
- 8 (Mark Alberto Marrero sworn.)
- 9 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Go ahead and be
- 10 seated. And why don't you state your name for the
- 11 record, your whole name, and spell your last name.
- MR. MARRERO: It's Mark Alberto Marrero,
- 13 M-a-r-r-e-r-o.
- 14 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. And what's your
- 15 position with company?
- MR. MARRERO: I'm the owner.
- 17 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. All right. So go
- 18 ahead. You can continue to explain.
- MR. MARRERO: Well, I mean, we've -- we're a
- 20 white glove furniture delivery service, and I've
- 21 always -- I mean, I've been doing this since before
- 22 there was a Craigslist. So I -- I -- I just didn't know
- 23 we weren't allowed to move people's boxes. But even
- 24 in -- even in what the copies of the ads that he's
- 25 questioning this on, I mean, it's pretty -- it's a

- 1 wording issue. If I can change one word in my ad, he
- 2 couldn't even -- couldn't even -- this couldn't even be
- 3 happening.
- 4 I don't understand the process. I'm a
- 5 little irritated because you have my email address, it's
- 6 2020, you know, come on. I mean, you guys -- you guys
- 7 don't use telephones? He could have just called me and
- 8 told me that I can't do this. We didn't have to go
- 9 through all this.
- 10 JUDGE PEARSON: Did you receive a compliance
- 11 letter from the Commission --
- 12 MR. MARRERO: Well, he -- no, because the
- 13 address that I use when I -- so I just got back in April
- 14 of last year. I've been gone for like three years, and
- 15 I just came back April last year, start putting up ads,
- 16 and that address was like my best friend in Lynnwood,
- 17 that's where I went when I -- when I moved back here.
- So I -- I retired like four years ago,
- 19 and -- and things didn't work out, and so I had to come
- 20 back to Seattle, and I'm just going back to work, that's
- all. But I have a history -- I mean, I have a history
- of being -- I -- I service furniture stores, that's what
- 23 I do. And I'm licensed to do it, and I've been doing it
- 24 for a really, really long time. I've always put ads on
- 25 Craigslist. I wasn't aware that we weren't allowed to

- 1 move people's -- I mean, it's kind of silly when you
- 2 think about it. I can move a $20,000 dining room set
- 3 that these people own, but I can't move their toaster.
- 4 I mean, you know what I'm saying? It's like it's -- to
- 5 me it's ridiculous, but --
- 6 JUDGE PEARSON: Is that your phone?
- 7 MR. MARRERO: Yes, ma'am, sorry.
- 8 And so I mean, it's -- I don't want to -- I
- 9 don't want to own a moving company. I never have.
- 10 That's not what my --
- JUDGE PEARSON: You -- you have a common
- 12 carrier permit with the Commission?
- 13 MR. MARRERO: Yes, ma'am. It even says so
- 14 in this thing on line 13 or whatever it says, that
- 15 I'm -- yeah, page 3, it's respondent Mark Marrero is a
- 16 household goods carrier doing business in the state of
- 17 Washington because I am. I mean, that is what I do for
- 18 a living.
- 19 JUDGE PEARSON: Household goods?
- 20 MR. MARRERO: Yes, ma'am.
- JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. I thought that you
- 22 just said that you didn't move house --
- MR. MARRERO: I have a UB -- I have the same
- 24 UBI number for Mark the Mover, which is what he's
- 25 questioning --
