Re: Docket No. UG-920840

Dear Mr. Curl:

Washington Natural Gas Company (WNG) has reached an agreement with Commission Staff concerning the time for responding to certain Staff data requests. As part of this agreement, WNG waives the existing suspension date of June 27, 1993, as established pursuant to RCW 80.04.130(1) and the Commission's Complaint and Order Suspending Tariff Revisions. WNG agrees to a new suspension date of October 1, 1993. The operation of the tariff revisions in the above docket filing may be suspended by the Commission through the new suspension date.

WNG also requests the Commission to vacate the hearing dates which were set at the September 17, 1992 prehearing conference. New hearing dates should be scheduled which are consistent with the new suspension date. Staff and the other parties are in agreement on this matter and consent to the scheduling of new hearing dates.

Very truly yours,

D. Scott Johnson
