Good morning. Yes, Monday would be fine, but please keep in mind that the documents are still on the RMS and fully searchable until you withdraw them and resubmit as confidential.

Thank you for keeping me apprised.

Judge Friedlander – during the hearings last week, Qwest committed to file some revised exhibits to reflect confidential designations. In addition, Qwest and Charter committed to get back to you regarding the briefing schedule. I think that both commitments have been impacted by the bad weather. Today is my first day back in the office and I do not have support staff. May we postpone both deadlines until no later than next Monday?

Good morning,

The email I received from Charter only contains the testimony of Tom Degnan. There are no other attachments, and I still haven't received Charter's witness and exhibit lists. Please send these as soon as possible. Thank you.

The Word version of the testimony insert for Tom Degnan included in my earlier message was corrupted. Please substitute the enclosed Word document instead. I apologize for any confusion.
