Re: Seatac Shuttle LLC v. Kenmore Air Harbor LLC
Docket TC-072180

Dear Ms. Washburn:

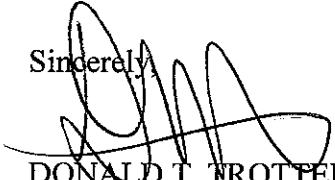

Enclosed for filing in the above-referenced docket are the original and 12 copies of the Motion for Summary Determination and Certificate of Service.

This is a dispositive motion. Pursuant to WAC 480-07-380(2)(b), such a motion must be filed at least 30 days before "the next applicable hearing session," unless the Commission establishes a different date for the motion to be filed.

The Commission has set a pre-hearing conference for January 10, 2007, but has set no "hearing sessions." Consequently, Staff requests the Commission inform the parties as to how the Commission wishes to address this motion procedurally.

The parties' responses to this motion are due 20 days after this motion is served, unless the Commission establishes a different date. WAC 480-07-380(2)(c). That schedule should be workable in this case because the arguments contained in Staff's motion have been discussed in previous correspondence between the parties, so the parties should be familiar with those arguments. Nonetheless, due to the holidays, Staff will not oppose reasonable requests for time extensions.

Sincerely,

DONALD T. TROTTER
Senior Counsel
