MR. SHAFER: Andrew Shafer, counsel for Moves for Seniors.

JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. And I --

MR. SHAFER: There's an error. Tara is an employee of the company. The corporate parent is Transit Systems Inc.

JUDGE PEARSON: And I'm sorry, if the gentleman on the bridge line can please identify himself again.

MR. PIENKOWSKI: Yes. Chris, I will spell my last name, Pienkowski. P as in Paul, i-e-n-k-o-w-s-k-i, I'm calling for Moves for Seniors. I'm the managing director.

JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Great. Thank you. Next is Docket TV-170812, James Moseley, d/b/a You Got It Movers.

MR. MOSELEY: Here, Your Honor.

JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. And finally is Docket

TV-170972, Jake Theis, d/b/a Royal Moving.

MR. THEIS: Here. Theis.

JUDGE PEARSON: Theis?

22 MR. THEIS: Theis.

JUDGE PEARSON: Theis, okay. Thank you.
Okay. So there's just one company who did not enter an appearance today and that company is classification hearing to show why you don't need a permit, and if you choose that option, you are contesting allegations in the complaint and claim not to be conducting household goods moving services. If you choose that option, we will schedule a hearing for a date in the near future with the deadline about a week in advance for both the company and Commission Staff to declare witnesses and file all exhibits.

So I will call each of you individually in just a moment to hear from you. Ms. Rachel Jones, who is seated over here to my right, is representing the Commission this morning, and if you have not already met her, she is a Commission compliance investigator.

So now that we have gone over the general options for each of your companies, I will explain the rest of today's procedures. So in a few minutes, I'll call each of you forward and at that time, I will swear you in so anything you tell the Court will be under oath and is considered sworn testimony. Once you're sworn in, I'll ask if you understand your options for today's hearing and then ask you to state your preference. And if there's anything else you want to explain to me, you can do so at that time.

So with each of the complaints, Commission Staff has not only alleged that you're providing subject to being held in default and having an order entered against them, and I will take that case up later this morning.

Did you have something you wanted to say? MS. JONES: No.

JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So each of you are here because the Commission filed a complaint alleging that your company is either performing or advertising to perform work as a household goods carrier without the required permit. And the purpose of today's proceeding is to formally explain what your choices are and then hear from each of you regarding which option that you wish to pursue.

You can choose one of two options on behalf of your company. You can either agree to cease and desist providing, offering, and advertising unpermitted household goods services, and if you choose that option, then you will need to demonstrate what you've done to either shut down your business completely or partially to avoid further enforcement action by the Commission. So Staff is going to want to see proof that you are no longer performing unlawful services, for example, that you've changed the language on your website or other online advertisements for your business.

The second option is to ask for a household goods moving services without a permit, they are also seeking to have a penalty imposed. The law sets the maximum penalty for each violation at $5,000, and Staff will be making a penalty recommendation as part of any agreed order. Ms. Jones will explain that recommendation, but the Commission will make the final decision about the amount of penalty to be imposed.

If you choose to testify about how you are getting out of the household goods business, I will allow you to make a statement explaining how you plan to do that, and depending on what proof you can provide, you should be able to reach an agreed order resolving this matter with Staff, and you can speak to Ms. Jones about that during the recess.

If you choose to contest the allegations in the complaint, we will schedule another hearing, as I explained earlier, for the Commission to present evidence to prove its case. And if we are going to set a hearing, it will help if you know your schedule for the next month or two.

After I hear from each of your companies, we will take a break, which will provide Staff time to meet with each of you and prepare a final disposition for your case.

So, Ms. Jones, why don't I go ahead and

Page 9 Page 11 1 1 file a motion and show cause as to why it would need to swear you in at this point. 2 2 (Rachel Jones sworn.) be moved. So if you're not certain, I would recommend 3 JUDGE PEARSON: Thank you. So after I hear 3 choosing a different date. 4 from each of you, I will address the company that did 4 MR. SHAFER: Well, let me explain my 5 5 not appear today, and, Ms. Jones, when I call that case, situation. My wife is very ill. 6 you can make a brief summary of the status and present 6 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. 7 7 your motion for default at that time. MR. SHAFER: And right now the 19th is fine. 8 So I will begin with the two companies who 8 I don't know what's going to happen over the next two 9 are represented by counsel beginning with TV-170747, 9 months. 10 10 Moves for Seniors. JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Mr. Shafer, if you could take a seat right 11 11 MR. SHAFER: So that would be the cause for 12 there and make sure the microphone is turned on. The 12 the show cause for continuance, but yes. 13 13 red light will come on when it's on. JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. That makes sense. 14 MR. SHAFER: I think it's on now. 14 MR. SHAFER: Okav. JUDGE PEARSON: So does that work for Staff? 15 JUDGE PEARSON: Perfect. Thank you. Okay. 15 16 So if you could state your first and last name for the 16 Is there someone here who can indicate whether that 17 17 works for Staff? I believe -record 18 MR. SHAFER: Yes, Andrew Shafer, attorney at 18 MR. TURCOTT: Yes, Your Honor. 19 law. We will 21 JUDGE PEARSON: Do you have a business card 21 check our calendars --22 that you can give to the court reporter? 22 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. 23 MR. SHAFER: Yes, I do. 23 MR. TURCOTT: -- and make that work. 24 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. And one for me, too, 24 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So we can tentatively 25 that would be great. 2.5 schedule it for the 19th. And I wanted to address also, Page 10 Page 12 1 MR. SHAFER: Simburg, Ketter, Sheppard & 1 Mr. Shafer, the letter that you submitted. I assume you 2 2 filed the order dismissing the petition for declaratory Purdy. Did you --3 3 JUDGE PEARSON: I'm sorry, what? proceeding. MR. SHAFER: Did you ask the firm that I was 4 MR. SHAFER: I did. 4 with? 5 5 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. And you asked for a 6 JUDGE PEARSON: Oh, no, just a business card 6 full evidentiary hearing. I wanted to give you a little 7 for the court reporter would be fine. 7 bit more of an explanation about how we conduct our 8 MR. SHAFER: That's not a problem. Your 8 brief adjudicative proceedings because as you can see, 9 9 Honor, Moves for Seniors contests the complaint in its we do things a little bit differently here. Our 10 entirety on several grounds. First of all, Moves for 10 administrative hearings are more formal than what you 11 might be accustomed to with other state agencies. So 11 Seniors isn't a moving company, it's a broker. 12 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So I'm not going to 12 the only difference between what we would consider a 13 hear argument from you right now. If you wish to 13 full-blown hearing versus a brief adjudicative schedule a hearing, we can talk about dates for that. 14 proceeding is that we will not require you to file 14 MR. SHAFER: Absolutely. 15 15 prefiled written testimony, but at the brief 16 16 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. adjudicative proceeding, you have -- we have a court MR. SHAFER: You know, actually, I had 17 17 reporter present, you have an opportunity to present spoken with Ms. Paul last week, and we had agreed upon a 18 witnesses and exhibits. If we schedule it in the 18 tentative date of December 19th. I'm unavailable before 19 19 morning and it goes all day, that's fine. 20 the 15th of December, and I'm not sure the 19th is going 20 MR. SHAFER: That's fine. 21 to work, but for place-setting purposes now, that's 21 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. 22 22 MR. SHAFER: No, that's -- that's -- that 23 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So I will tell you 23 was my concern. 24 that if we commit to that date and it works for you now 24 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. 25 25 but ends up not working for you later, you'll have to MR. And how do you want 7 7 the -- the necessary documents and all those other to proceed this morning? 8 things in order to make his application to the UTC for 8 MR. MOSELEY: Your Honor, I was going 9 9 through some hard times. I pretty much got divorced, Bogdan Movers and to change his business model. So 10 10 there's some -- he can't just pour over the same going through child custody. It cost me a lot of money 11 structure that he had before. 11 going through court and everything. It did work out. I 12 JUDGE PEARSON: Sure. 12 did get the joint custody of my son, but it cost me a lot of money, like I said. The insurance company I was 13 MR. WALSH: So -- so it's a qualified we're 13 working with stopped doing the -- for me, and then I had 14 shutting down temporarily response. 14 15 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So that sounds like 15 to obtain more insurance and was -- cost, you know, a 16 it is ripe for negotiations with Staff about a reduced 16 whole lot more money. And I did receive an inheritance, 17 penalty most likely with a suspended penalty and a cease 17 so I obtained the insurance that I needed and did all 18 and desist, which is just unless and until he obtains a 18 the paperwork that I needed to do and turned it in. So 19 19 I'm just waiting for the paperwork to go through to permit. 20 MR. WALSH: Right. 20 complete the -- the permits. 21 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So are you planning 21 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So it sounds like you 22 to stay here with your client and --22 would like to choose the cease and desist option until 23 23 MR. So Page 18 Page 20 1 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. And, Ms. Jones, do 1 like you heard me say to the gentleman before you, at 2 you have a recommendation regarding the cease and desist 2 the break, you will have an opportunity to sit down with 3 3 order for this company? So when we take a 9 9 JUDGE PEARSON: -- once your application is 10 recess, then you both will have an opportunity to speak 10 complete. So we will be back on 15 everything that I said to him, that you can negotiate a 15 16 penalty and hopefully come to an agreement with Staff --16 the record at 10:21 a.m., and, Ms. Jones, has Staff been 17 MR. And was the $1,000 11 that will be suspended, and the company has agreed to 12 payment made today? 12 pay -- or is this a $1,000? MS. JONES: It's 1,000. 13 MS. Great. 14 15 And just for the record, the company is 15 company has reached a payment arrangement? 16 agreeing to cease and desist until you get a permit; is 16 MS. JONES: Yes. JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So the $600 was paid 17 that correct? 17 18 MR. MOMOTYUK: Yes. 18 today? 19 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. Can you turn on the 19 MS. And you do understand 24 suspension period for the $4,000 is two years from 24 that if you miss a payment, the entire amount including 25 today's date, which is October 25th, 2019. That means 25 the $4,000 that's suspended will become immediately due Page 26 Page 28 if Staff finds an advertisement or you offer a move 1 and payable? 1 2 during that time without having a permit, Staff will 2 MR.
