Re: Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission, Complainant, v. JFS Transport, Inc. d/b/a Coast Movers, Respondent, Docket TV-180315.

On June 20, 2018, the regulatory staff (Staff) of the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) filed a Complaint against JFS Transport, Inc. d/b/a Coast Movers (JFS or Respondent), alleging seven causes of action. The Complaint requested that the Commission impose monetary penalties on Respondent for violations of Commission rules and state laws and order Respondent to refund excess charges to customers who were overcharged by JFS.

On July 13, 2018, the Commission issued a Notice Rescheduling the Brief Adjudicative Proceeding which set the evidentiary hearing in this proceeding for August 20, 2018. Staff filed a letter on August 10, 2018, informing the Commission that the parties reached a settlement in principle, and they request a temporary suspension of the procedural schedule. The parties propose to file a settlement proposal, or at the least, a status report, no later than Friday, August 31, 2018.

Pursuant to WAC 480-07-385, the Commission finds good cause to suspend the procedural schedule and therefore grants the parties' request. The parties must file a settlement agreement and supporting documentation or a report on the status of their settlement negotiations by August 31, 2018.

THE COMMISSION GIVES NOTICE That the procedural schedule in this matter is suspended. By August 31, 2018, the parties must either file a settlement agreement and supporting documentation or a status report of their negotiations.
