RE: In the Matter of Determining the Proper Carrier Classification of, and Complaint for Penalties Against: ROBERT RINDFUSS d/b/a BOB THE MOVER
Docket TV-143268

TO ALL PARTIES:

On November 4, 2014, the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) issued Order 02, Stipulated Initial Order Classifying Respondent as Household Goods Carrier; Ordering Respondent to Cease and Desist; Imposing and Suspending Penalties on Condition of Future Compliance (Order 02). Order 02 ordered Robert Rindfuss d/b/a Bob the Mover (Company) to cease and desist operating as a household goods carrier and imposed a fine of $2,500 for one violation of RCW 81.80.075(1), all but $1,000 of which was suspended for a period of two years from the date of Order 02 conditioned on the Company (a) refraining from operating as a household goods carrier without a permit from the Commission and (b) complying with the payment plan included in the stipulated agreement for the payment of the $1,000 portion of the penalty that was not suspended. That plan required the Company to pay $125 by November 18, and December 18, 2014, and $125 by January 18, February 18, March 18, April 18, May 18, and June 18, 2015. Order 02 states that if the Company fails to make a payment under the payment plan, the entire amount of the penalty, including the $1,500 that was suspended, would be due and payable the day after the missed payment was due.

Commission records indicate that the Company made payments of $125 on November 18, and December 18, 2014. The Commission has no record that the Company has made any additional payments to the Commission in this docket. Accordingly, Robert Rindfuss d/b/a Bob the Mover has not complied with the conditions under which the Commission suspended $1,000 of the $2,500 penalty assessment. The full penalty amount of $2,500, less the $250 paid to date, is therefore, now due and payable.

Sincerely,
