BACKGROUND

Synopsis. This is an Administrative Law Judge's Initial Order that is not effective unless approved or allowed to become effective as described in the notice at the end of this Order. This Initial Order is based upon a stipulation presented by the parties. If this Initial Order becomes final, Crescent Bar Charters LLC (Crescent Bar or Company) will be assessed a financial penalty in the amount of $5,000 for two violations of RCW 81.70.260. A $1,500 portion of the penalty will be suspended for a period of two years from the date of this order, then waived, subject to the condition that Crescent Bar refrains from further operation as charter party or excursion service carrier without first obtaining the required certificate from the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission). In addition, if this Initial Order becomes final, Crescent Bar will be classified as a charter party or excursion service carrier and required to permanently cease and desist from operating as a charter party or excursion service carrier without first obtaining a certificate from the Commission.

- 1 Nature of Proceeding. The Commission initiated this special proceeding to determine if Crescent Bar has engaged, and is engaging, in unlawful operations following the cancellation of its charter party or excursion carrier certificate.

- 2 Procedural History. On March 12, 2018, the Commission entered Order 01, Order Instituting Special Proceeding; Complaint Seeking to Impose Penalties; and Notice of Mandatory Appearance at Hearing, pursuant to RCW 81.04.510, initiating this docket on its own motion. The Complaint alleges that Crescent Bar violated RCW 81.70.260 by:

Pursuant to RCW 80.01.060(3)
This packet is the final order
In this docket.

- (1) offering on at least one occasion to provide charter party or excursion service in the state of Washington;
- (2) advertising charter party or excursion services within the state of Washington on at least one occasion;

after the cancellation of their certificate required for such operations. On the same date, the Commission issued a Subpoena and Subpoena Duces Tecum For Production of Documents (Subpoenas) to the Company commanding Christene Davis to appear before the Commission at a special proceeding scheduled to convene at 1:30 p.m. on April 11, 2018, in the Commission's offices at 1300 S. Evergreen Park Drive S.W., Olympia, Washington, and to bring the documents specified in the Subpoenas.

3 Hearing. On April 11, 2018, the hearing convened as scheduled in Olympia, Washington, before Administrative Law Judge Laura Chartoff.

DISCUSSION

5 Applicable Law. RCW 81.70.020(1) defines "charter party carrier" as:

every person engaged in the transportation over any public highways in this state of a group of persons, who, pursuant to a common purpose and under a single contract, acquire the use of a motor vehicle to travel together as a group to a specified destination or for a particular itinerary, either agreed upon in advance or modified by the chartered group after leaving the place of origin.

¹ In adjudications the Commission's regulatory staff participates like any other party, while an administrative law judge or the Commissioners make the decision. To assure fairness, the Commissioners and the presiding administrative law judge do not discuss the merits of the proceeding with regulatory staff or any other party without giving notice and opportunity for all parties to participate. See RCW 34.05.455.

6 RCW 81.70.020(5) defines “excursion service carrier” as:

every person engaged in the transportation of persons for compensation over any public highway in this state from points of origin within the incorporated limits of any city or town or area, to any other location within the state of Washington and returning to that origin.

7 RCW 81.70.260(1) defines “conduct any operations” as:

Advertising or soliciting, offering, or entering into an agreement to provide such service.

8 RCW 81.70.260(1) prohibits charter party or excursion service carriers from conducting any operations after the cancellation or revocation of a certificate from the Commission. Upon proof of unauthorized operations, RCW 81.04.510 authorizes the Commission to order the unpermitted company to cease and desist its activities. Additionally, RCW 81.04.110 authorizes the Commission to file a complaint on its own motion setting forth any act or omission by a company that violates any law, order, or rule of the Commission.

9 RCW 81.70.260(2) subjects persons who conducts operations as a charter party or excursion service carrier of passengers in violation of RCW 81.70.260(1) a penalty of up to $5,000 for each violation.

10 Stipulation Presented by Parties. At hearing, Christene Davis agreed that she has conducted operations in the state of Washington after the cancellation or revocation of the required certificate. The Company offered to provide charter party or excursion service carrier service on at least one occasion in the state of Washington and also advertised to operate as a charter party or excursion service carrier service in the state of Washington on at least one occasion.

11 On Dec. 7, 2017, Crescent Bar was notified that its certificate (CH-066094) was cancelled due to insufficient proof of insurance. The notice informed Crescent Bar that it must immediately cease all operations associated with the certificate.

- 12 Christene Davis has agreed to permanently shut down and cease operations as a charter party or excursion service carrier, as defined by RCW 81.70.020, without first obtaining a certificate from the Commission.
- 13 Under RCW 81.70.260(2), Commission Staff is authorized to seek a penalty of up to $10,000 against the Company. Based upon the above-noted stipulation, Staff now seeks a lesser penalty of $5,000 and, on the condition that the Company honors its pledge of future compliance by permanently staying out of the industry without first obtaining a certificate from the Commission, seeks to have $1,500 of the penalty suspended for two years, then waived.
- 14 The parties agree that the Company's expressed willingness to cease its unlawful operations is a positive factor, mitigating in favor of a lowered penalty amount to be paid now. The parties also agree that the Company's compliance history is a negative factor, making a penalty appropriate as a tool to ensure Crescent Bar does not re-enter the charter party or excursion service carrier business without first obtaining the required certificate.

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

- 15 (1) The Commission is an agency of the State of Washington vested by statute with authority to regulate persons conducting operations as a charter party or excursion service carrier for compensation over public roads in Washington.
- 16 (2) The Commission has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding and over Crescent Bar.
- 17 (3) On at least one occasion, Crescent Bar offered to conduct operations after the cancellation or revocation of a certificate from the Commission, in violation of RCW 81.70.260(1).
- 18 (4) On at least one occasion, Crescent Bar advertised to conduct operations after the cancellation or revocation of a certificate from the Commission, in violation of RCW 81.70.260(1).
