Re: Washington Natural Gas Company
Docket No. UG-920840

Dear Judge Anderl:

In a letter to Jeff Goltz (copy enclosed), I stated the order of witnesses for the hearings on the Company's direct case. I have since learned that the hearings will not take place on January 28-29, but will occur on January 25-27 and February 11-12. To accommodate this development and the constraints of out-of-state witnesses and attendees, the Company proposes the following adjustments to the witness schedule. Staff is agreeable to these adjustments.

The first seven witnesses (Mr. Thorpe through Mr. Sullivan) will testify in the order outlined in my letter, with one caveat. Mr. Torgerson will testify on February 11 as the first witness that day. Mr. Johnson will follow Mr. Torgerson if examination of the first seven witnesses has been completed by January 27. If examination of the first seven witnesses has not been completed by January 27, however, then that examination will continue after Mr. Torgerson's testimony. In both cases, the hearings on the direct case will conclude with Mr. Johnson's testimony.

Please contact me should you have any questions concerning this schedule.

Very truly yours,

D. Scott Johnson
