

Dear Mr. Rowswell,

I would like to voice my strong support for the WUTC's proposed rules on operating remote control locomotives within the State of Washington. It is imperative that the State step forward and promulgate regulations to protect the public and rail workers from accidents involving this new technology. I thank the WUTC for addressing this important safety issue.

Sincerely,

Terry Reddish

23809 NE Alva's Rd.

Battle Ground, WA 98604