Re: Norse Home, Complainant v. AT&T Communications of the Pacific Northwest, Inc., Respondent, Docket No. UT-051853

Dear Ms. Washburn:

This letter is to notify the Commission that the parties have reached a settlement in the above-referenced case. A copy of the settlement agreement is attached. Accordingly, AT&T requests that this case be dismissed with prejudice.

In order to ensure that the Complainant has a copy of the executed copy, I am faxing this letter and a copy of the final agreement to Mr. Solem of Norse Home.

Please let me know if you need additional information.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Letty Friesen". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Letty" and the last name "Friesen" clearly legible.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT
*****

Dear Norse Home,

AT&T Corp. has agreed that Southwest Credit Systems, LP may accept from Norse Home the sum of $11,800.00 to resolve this unpaid balance of $23,565.73. This balance is due to the AT&T account number NORH-NOHW01 our file #23316350.

Payment due date: 03/30/06

THOSE WITH ACTIVE AT&T SERVICE ARE NOT ELIGIBLE FOR THIS SETTLEMENT
ANY ALTERATIONS TO THIS LETTER WILL VOID ALL SETTLEMENT AGREEMENTS

Once the executed letter has been received and the payment for the settlement amount has cleared your account, AT&T agrees that it will not pursue further collection activity against Norse Home regarding the remaining balance owing on account number NORH-NOHW01. However, should Norse Home desire to establish service with AT&T Corp. in the future, AT&T Corp. reserves the right to require that the remaining balance of $11,765.73 be paid in full, and/or that Norse Home should furnish AT&T Corp. with a deposit to establish service.

Important: In order for this settlement offer to be valid, a signed copy of this letter must accompany your payment.

Send payment to: Southwest Credit Systems, LP
5910 West Plano Pkwy, Ste 100
Plano, TX 75093

I agree to terms set forth by AT&T Corp.
