RE: *Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission v. Tiraogo Simporre, d/b/a TS Moving Services
Staff's Request to Impose Suspended Penalties
Docket TV-170168*

Dear Mr. Johnson:

On April 26, 2017, the commission issued Order 02 in this docket, classifying Tiraogo Simporre as a common carrier of household goods within the state of Washington, ordering the company not to operate as a household goods carrier without a permit, and assessing a penalty of $5,000. Order 02 also suspended $4,500 of the penalty on the condition the company not operate without a permit, and pay the remaining $500 as agreed upon in the payment schedule in Appendix A. The payment schedule required the company to make two payments of $250 each, due April 28 and May 31, 2017.

Believing that the company failed to make the required payments, on December 19, 2018, staff requested the commission impose the suspended penalty amount. Staff learned today that the company did make both payments in May 2017, however these payments were not reflected in the docket. The company has satisfied its obligations in this matter and staff withdraws its request to impose the suspended penalty amount.
