Comments Tourism is a major industry in Seattle. The pandemic, pause in cruise ships, and general reduction in travel has cost the region jobs and tax revenue. Bringing amphibious tours to Seattle will not only bring jobs back to Seattle but will be a positive example to companies on the sidelines, decided if they should invest in Seattle or not.

The amphibious tours will do more than just strengthen the region's economy, it will show off the best of Seattle's people, sites, arts, commerce, and natural beauty.

Seattle is major city and the tourist and residents of Seattle deserve a fun and entertaining way to experience all this city has to offer.
