

RETURN

WILLIAM L. STUTH, SR., individually; and
AQUA TEST, INC., a Washington Corporation

Petitioners,

v.

WASHINGTON UTILITIES AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION,

Respondent.

Thurston County Superior Court No. 05-2-00782-3

Docket No. A-050528

Page No.

- 001 Petition for Declaratory Order to Designate Public Service Company on behalf of William Stuth and Aqua Test, Inc., from Rhys Sterling, received March 16, 2005.
- 015 Letter to Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (WUTC) from Richard Benson on behalf of Department of Health, RE: Support of application, received March 25, 2005.
- 017 Letter to WUTC from Rhys Sterling on behalf of William Stuth and Aqua Test, Inc., RE: Request for status of petition, received April 5, 2005.
- 018 Letter from Carole J. Washburn, Executive Secretary to Rhys Sterling, RE: William Stuth and Aqua Test, Inc., RE: Notification that the Commission will not enter a declaratory order, dated April 8, 2005, with Proof of Service.

021 Letter to Carole J. Washburn from Rhys Sterling on behalf of William Stuth and Aqua Test, Inc., RE: Request for assistance as to whether additional administrative review of such declination is available, received April 15, 2005.

022 Letter from Carole J. Washburn, Executive Secretary to Rhys Sterling, RE: William Stuth and Aqua Test, Inc., RE: Response to request for assistance, dated April 20, 2005, with Proof of Service.

23 Pages