I was aware that there would be a protest to my application. My intent was to gain occasional access to the airport and cruise terminals as a supplement to our charter permit. The thought was to be able to accommodate multiple reservations within the same trip if necessary. The tariffs were only to reflect the prices that we would charge from such areas IF that was to happen. We do not want to really take on regular service like a Shuttle Express. We only have one 20 passenger mini bus. They have a whole fleet of vans, towncars, and buses. There was never any intent to take business from anyone. I am new in this arena and was just putting something together to submit to the UTC. So, I apologize if thing were misinterpreted. I'm not trying to take over the world....with a 20 passenger mini bus. I was also not aware of all the specific territories that were owned by Shuttle Express and others. I notice that there are many different carriers servicing the ports and airports, some of which are from out of state/country. I didn't think it would be such a big deal to be able to service these areas from time to time.

With that being said, I will respectfully withdraw my application for the auto transportation permit. Thank you.
