RE: General Rate Increase, G-42
Ref: TG-190869

Dear Executive Secretary:

Attached is the general ledger for Pullman Disposal Service for the test year 2018. We request that the account activity contained in this general ledger is to be treated as confidential information by the commission.

This information is requested to be designated as confidential due to the nature of business conducted by a private entity. Because this general ledger contains substantially all of the activity conducted during the year by Pullman Disposal Service, Inc. it contains valuable commercial and financial information. As Pullman Disposal Service is a privately held company, they are not required to have their commercial and financial information subjected to public disclosure. We understand that this information is useful to the commission for the use of ratemaking, however ask that this information be treated as confidential in regards to public disclosure.

This submission includes a spreadsheet containing highlighted confidential information titled "General Ledger 2018 – Confidential" as well as a spreadsheet with all confidential information redacted titled "General Ledger 2018 – Redacted". Each spreadsheet contains a label identifying the confidential information and its treatment. This is in accordance with WAC 480-07-160 regarding confidential and other restricted information.

Thank you for considering this request.

Very truly yours,

GL BOOTH · JG DAVIS & ASSOCIATES, PLLC
