The information for Qwest, Verizon and CenturyTel is from the FCC Report 43-08, available on the FCC's Website; the information for Embarq is from the company's filed service quality report for December, 2005. The information for AT&T and MCImetro comes from the companies' most recently filed service quality reports - November 2006; and the information for Eschelon comes from confidential sample report submitted with its petitions, Docket UT-061443, currently pending. The information for SBC comes from its sample report, currently filed under its merger docket with AT&T, Docket UT-050309, petition currently pending.

¹ AT&T is an affiliate of TCG, and together the companies make up more than two percent of the state access lines.

² SBC and AT&T merged and therefore SBC is now an affiliate of AT&T and TCG.

³ MCImetro Access Transmission merged with Verizon, and is therefore an affiliate of Verizon.
