Passenger Rules

Adult fares: Published fares are adult fares and apply to passengers who have reached or passed their 5th birthday. No child seats will be provided.

Animals: Generally dogs, cats and other live animals or birds will not be carried. Exception: Service animals traveling with passengers will be carried free of charge. Service animals will not be permitted to occupy a seat, but must lie or stand at the feet of the passenger.

Baggage: All passengers will be allowed 2 checked bags and one carry on size bag. If passengers exceed the number of bags allowed, no fee will be assessed, but they may be required to wait until the next ride depending on the order of arrival and available space. The company shall not be held responsible for loss or damage to baggage carried onboard the vehicle unless it can be shown that the company was in some way negligent.

Baggage liability. An auto transportation company must include provisions in its filed tariff relating to its liability for loss or damage to baggage checked by the passenger.

- (a) The minimum amount of liability must be:
 - (i) At least two hundred fifty dollars per adult fare; and
 - (ii) At least one hundred dollars per child's fare.
- (b) Passengers may declare a value in excess of two hundred fifty dollars, by paying an additional charge, and must allow the passenger to recover the increased amount. The passenger's declared amount may not exceed the actual value of the baggage and its contents.
- (c) The company will not be held liable for any one bag or item in excess of one thousand dollars.
- (d) The company will not offer excess value coverage on articles of extraordinary value including, but not limited to:
 - (i) Negotiable instruments, Papers, Money, Manuscripts, Irreplaceable publications, Documents, Jewelry and watches.

Children's fares: Children under 5 years of age, when accompanied by an adult passenger, and not occupying a seat, will be carried free of charge.

Holidays: Closed Thanksgiving, and the week preceding and following Christmas.

Intermediate application: Fares to and from intermediate points not shown will be the same as the fare to or from the next more distant station for which fares are named.

Passenger Rules (cont'd)

Objectionable passengers: This company reserves the right to refuse to transport persons under the influence of drugs or alcohol, or who are incapable of taking care of themselves, or whose conduct or behavior may be objectionable to other passengers. The carrier also reserves the right to refuse carriage of any materials that the carrier considers unsafe and not in the best interest of the passengers.

Refunds and Ticket limitation: Punch cards do not expire and will be honored until they have been completely used. Punch cards are not transferable, and a valid military issued ID will be cross checked against the name on the punch card. Tickets that have been purchased with no rides used will be refunded at the original purchase price. Partially used tickets will be refunded charging the regular one-way fare and round-trip fare, as necessary, for each ride and refunding the balance of the purchase price for the ticket packet.

Schedule maintenance: Carrier will not be liable for delays caused by accidents, breakdowns, bad conditions of roads, snow storms or other conditions beyond the control of the carrier and does not guarantee arrival at, or departure from, any point at any specific time. The time schedules provided are schedules the carrier endeavors to maintain but does not guarantee to be able to do so at all times due to conditions listed above.
