Attachment to Attachment C of Household Goods Carrier Permit Application Submitted by Workspace Development LLC, dba Bank & Office Interiors Answers to Paragraph 2b and 2c

2b. Bank & Office Interiors is in the furniture business with a product and services mix of 75% /25%. Our service offering includes office and household moves. We are currently bidding on a large contract with an organization that will require office and household moves within the state of Washington. To be awarded this contract, we are required to be able to do both office and household moves. If the Household Goods Carrier permit is not transferred our revenues and our employment levels will be negatively impacted.

2c. The applicant was an independently run division of the owner which is out of Hartford, Connecticut. The managers who bought the division (applicant) have been running the business for the owner for over 10 years. There will be no change in the continuity of service or the safe operations of the applicant as it will be the very same people who have been providing the service and safe operations for over 10 years.
