DECLARATION OF APPLICANT:

I understand that filing this application does not in itself constitute authority to operate as a household goods mover.

As the applicant for a household goods permit, I understand the responsibilities of a motor carrier, and I am in compliance with all local, state, and federal regulations governing businesses, including household goods movers, in the state of Washington.

I understand that if the Commission grants my application as a new entrant I will be granted temporary authority to provide service as a household goods carrier on a provisional basis for at least six months. During this time, the Commission will evaluate whether I have met the criteria in WAC 480-15-330 to obtain permanent authority. I also understand that I must comply with all conditions placed on my temporary permit and that failure to do so will result in cancellation of my permit.

I certify or declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the information contained in this application is true and correct.

Household Goods Carrier Permit Application

Question:

Describe the services you wish to provide. Explain how your services will enhance customer choice, promote competition, or fill an unmet need for service:

Response:

Gentle Giant provides high quality household goods moving and storage services. This includes general household items such as furniture and appliances as well as specialty items such as pianos and fine art.

Gentle Giant brings three distinct elements to the public within the markets we serve: the commitment to quality, the commitment to employees and the commitment to the communities in which we reside.

What makes Gentle Giant unique is that we have developed a reputation for consistently delivering high quality on a very large scale. Within our home market of Massachusetts, we dispatched 10,000 moves in calendar year 2003. By working in the Washington market we will provide a high quality solution for a broad range of requirements. As a specific example of our commitment to quality please see the Statement of Support – Attachment A to the Application from Attorney Teresa J. Lawson who moved with Gentle Giant from Boston, Massachusetts to Port Townsend, Washington. Additionally, attached please find letters of support from some of the organizations who have recently bestowed awards to Gentle Giant including the Small Business Administration, the Better Business Bureau, and the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce.

The founder and President of Gentle Giant wrote the Mission Statement in the mid 1980's. In that statement he said that, "Our people are outstanding, intelligent, and highly trained. We treat our employees with respect and compassion and expect that they will extend the same courtesy to our customers." This commitment and perspective applies to the over 200 employees today the same way it did when written for the small team of Giants in the 1980's who helped establish our reputation. Underscoring Gentle Giant's commitment to employees is the company's selection in the Spring of 2004 from hundreds of applicants as one of the 50 best place to work in Massachusetts by the Boston Business Journal.

The list of charitable contribution is extensive. In calendar year 2004 alone Gentle Giant will contribute over $75,000 in support of many charitable organizations and community athletic activities. Through out the years one of the pillars of the Gentle Giant success has been our relationship with the rowing community. To that end, Gentle Giant co-founded and supports a rowing club dedicated to the development of the youth in the town of our corporate offices. The Gentle Giant Rowing Club (www.gentlegiantrowing.org) now provide the youth in Somerville, MA with the opportunity to participate in a sport that builds character as well as physical conditioning. In recognition of this contribution, the Somerville Chamber of Commerce awarded Gentle Giant with its 2004 Powderhouse Award as Business Neighbor of the Year.

Question:

Briefly describe your experience in the transportation/household goods moving industry:

The Founder and President of Gentle Giant Moving Company started the business with one ad and a rental truck in 1980. From there he has grown the company into the largest households goods moving company in New England. The collective moving experience of our management team and senior crew chiefs is well over 250 years. For a complete detailed outline of our services and experience, you are welcome to visit our website at www.gentlegiant.com.

Like the Founder, the District Manager of the Seattle office started his own moving business. After running this business for 10 years starting in 1988, Pat Inman joined Gentle Giant as a branch manager in 1998. Since that time Pat has developed to become the District Manager overseeing over 100 Giants working out of 9 Branch locations.

Sean Wynne will become the local Seattle Branch Manager. Sean joined Gentle Giant in the Spring of 1999 and began "Chiefing" or running jobs in June of that years. During the past five years, in addition to obtaining a graduate degree, Sean has received extensive training in all aspects of the moving business. This training has encompassed the technical skills and the development of an understanding of the compliance requirements related to providing moving and storage services. Sean's training, like that of all Gentle Giants, is focused on ensuring crew safety, motor vehicle safety and household goods safety. In addition, Sean has undergone specific training related to sales, customer service, and human resources.

To Whom it May Concern:

I am writing on behalf of Gentle Giant Moving Company, who is applying for permission to operate in your state. As president of the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce, I wish to ensure that all businesses within my jurisdiction operate ethically and are positive contributors to the local residential and business communities.

Two years ago, the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce bestowed its honor of "Small Business of the Year" on Gentle Giant Moving Company. Not an award for best moving company but rather for the best small business in Greater Boston, Gentle Giant outshone other applicants across other industries in criteria that included:

- Product/service innovation
- Workplace innovation
- Workplace development
- Hiring and retention
- Diversity Initiatives
- Corporate Culture
- Community involvement and charitable work

Gentle Giant is a company that I am proud to have headquartered here in Boston. In my opinion, as an exemplary corporate citizen in Greater Boston, they will no doubt be likewise in other cities to which they expand.

Sincerely,

Dear Commissioners:

It is with great enthusiasm that I write this letter on behalf of Gentle Giant Moving Co., Inc., one of the premier moving companies in Massachusetts. It is my understanding that the company would like to expand its operations to include Washington.

I became very familiar with this creative moving company and its founder Larry O'Toole when O'Toole was selected as the U.S. Small Business Administration's 2004 Massachusetts Small Business Person of the Year. O'Toole advanced to the competition for National Small Business Person of the Year and finished in second place, which is quite an accomplishment given that every state submitted their state winners for the national competition. The other state winners represented every conceivable type of business from daycare centers to manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers. O'Toole's recognition was partially based on his dedication to employee retention and customer satisfaction, quite a unique philosophy in the moving industry.

As part of the review process for this award, SBA reviewed Gentle Giant's financial statements for three full years and determined that the company was profitable, in sound financial condition and has shown growth in revenues and in the number of employees. The committee also evaluated O'Toole's leadership abilities as well as the company's community contributions.

Gentle Giant has shown phenomenal growth and profitability and has proven to be a superb corporate citizen. Gentle Giant has supported the AIDS Action Committee, the Boys and Girls Club of Somerville, the Somerville Homeless Coalition among others.

Feel free to contact me if you would like more information. Please know that this is a voluntary reference and that the SBA will in no way benefit.

Very truly yours,
