DECLARATION OF APPLICANT:

I understand that filing this application does not in itself constitute authority to operate as a household goods mover.

As the applicant for a household goods permit, I understand the responsibilities of a motor carrier, and I am in compliance with all local, state, and federal regulations governing businesses, including household goods movers, in the state of Washington.

I understand that if the Commission grants my application as a new entrant I will be granted temporary authority to provide service as a household goods carrier on a provisional basis for at least six months. During this time, the Commission will evaluate whether I have met the criteria in WAC 480-15-330 to obtain permanent authority. I also understand that I must comply with all conditions placed on my temporary permit and that failure to do so will result in cancellation of my permit.

I certify or declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the information contained in this application is true and correct.

TRANSFER OR ACQUISITION OF PERMANENT HOUSEHOLD GOODS AUTHORITY UNDER EXCEPTIONS IN WAC 480-15-260

1. The Commission will grant an application for permanent authority without public notice or comment if the applicant is fit, willing, and able to provide service and the application is filed to transfer or acquire control of permanent authority for one of the following reasons (check one, if applicable):
- A partnership has dissolved due to the death, bankruptcy, or withdrawal of a partner, and that partner's interest is being transferred to one or more of the remaining partners or a spouse;
 - A shareholder in a corporation has died and that shareholder's interest is being transferred to a surviving spouse or one or more surviving shareholders;
 - A sole proprietor has died and the interest is being transferred as property of the estate;
 - An individual has incorporated, and the same individual remains the majority shareholder;
 - An individual has added a partner, but the same individual remains the majority partner;
 - A corporation has dissolved and the interest is being transferred to the majority shareholder;
 - A partnership has dissolved and the interest is being transferred to the majority partner;
 - A partnership has incorporated and the partners are the majority shareholders; or
 - Ownership is being transferred from one corporation to another corporation when both are wholly owned by the same shareholders.

NOTE Documentation must be included with your application. Documentation may be in the form of a corporate resolution, partnership agreement, court order, death certificate, will or other proof of right to inherit, estate executor's statement, community property agreement or other such documentation that may support your request.

2. The Commission will grant an application for permanent authority without temporary permit operations following public notice or comment if the applicant is fit, willing, and able to provide service and the application is filed to transfer or acquire control of permanent authority for the following reason (check box, if applicable):

Ownership or control of a permit is being transferred to any shareholder, partner, family member, employee, or other person familiar with the company's operations and the household goods moving services provided. If you check this option, please complete the following:

- a. Has the permit been actively used by the current owner to provide household goods moving services during the last twelve-month period? No Yes
- b. Explain why the transfer of ownership or control is necessary to ensure the company's economic viability:
More than 70% of Rainier Moving Systems' current scope of business is dependent on this permit.
- c. Describe the steps taken by the applicant and the current owner to ensure that safe operations and continuity of service to the customers are maintained: The new owner has managed Rainier Moving Systems for 10 years and will continue to operate all the services (levels of safety and service) currently offered.
