RE: Household Goods Moving in Washington State

Dear Ms. Karlsen:

The Utilities and Transportation Commission has information that you are conducting household goods moves within the state of Washington. Advertisements for your piano moving services have been found on your Web site, www.propianomove.com. You do not have a valid permit, as required by state law, to conduct this type of work. Conducting household goods moves requires a permit issued by the commission.

To avoid enforcement action, your complete household goods permit application, supporting materials, and application fee must be submitted to the commission by March 30, 2010.

Until you obtain a permit, you must immediately cease operating as a household goods mover in Washington state. Operating as a household goods mover without the required permit is illegal and subject to a penalty of $5,000 per violation. This means that you may receive this penalty for each day you operate in violation of the law.

You must also immediately cease advertising as a household goods mover in Washington state. Advertising for the transportation of property for compensation in Washington without a proper permit is against the law. The penalty for advertising without a permit is $5,000 per violation. This means that you may receive a penalty for each and every advertisement. At this time, the commission has documented advertisements on your Web site for Pro Piano Move's piano moving services.

If you advertise or operate as a household goods mover without a permit, the commission will take enforcement action against you. Such action will include the above-mentioned financial penalties; and you will be served with a subpoena and be required to appear before a judge.

Again, to avoid enforcement action, your complete application, supporting materials and application fee must be submitted to the commission by March 30, 2010. If you believe your company is not operating as a household goods moving company, as defined in WAC 480-15, please submit your rationale in writing by the same date.

If you have questions about the household goods laws, please contact Rayne Pearson, Compliance Investigator, at (360) 664-1111.

Should you decide to apply for a household goods moving permit, please note that you still may not operate as a household goods mover in Washington state until you have received a permit. To request a permit application, please call (360) 664-1222. You may also download an application from the commission's Web site at www.utc.wa.gov/mover.

Sincerely,

David W. Danner
Executive Director and Secretary
