Subject: Operating Authority

Hello Tina,

yesterday my wife (Sheryl Taylor) came in to your office and dropped off an application for a Common Carrier Permit Authority for me under the business name TG Transportation, LLC.

I would like to withdraw my application for intrastate operating authority at this time, as I just found out that I probably will also need to get the INTERSTATE operating authority as well and I understand that may take a long time to get. And then I also heard that I need to get an IANA authorization to pick up containers at the ports.

So for now, please cancel my application and return my $275 fee. Once I get things sorted out, I will most likely resubmit an intrastate application to you.

I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused you and your office.

Sincerelly,

Tom Grzankowski
