DECLARATION OF APPLICANT

I understand that filing this application does not in itself constitute authority to operate as a household goods mover.

As the applicant for a household goods permit, I understand the responsibilities of a motor carrier and I am in compliance with all local, state and federal regulations governing businesses, including household goods movers, in the state of Washington.

I understand that if the commission grants my application as a new entrant I will receive temporary authority to provide service as a household goods carrier on a provisional basis for at least six months. During this time, the commission will evaluate whether I have met the criteria in WAC 480-15-330 to obtain permanent authority. I also understand that I must comply with all conditions placed on my temporary permit and that failure to do so will result in cancellation of my permit.

My employees are sufficiently trained to comply with commission rules regarding estimates, bills of lading, rates and charges and terms and conditions of household goods moves. In addition, my employees are sufficiently trained to comply with commission rules regarding vehicle operation, maintenance, and all other safety requirements. My company will provide a copy of the customer survey to each customer for whom we provide transportation service.

I certify or declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the information contained in this application is true and correct.

TRANSFER OR ACQUISITION OF PERMANENT HOUSEHOLD GOODS AUTHORITY UNDER EXCEPTIONS IN WAC 480-15-187

1. The commission will grant an application to transfer existing permanent authority, without requiring a provisional permit, public notice or comment, if the applicant is fit, willing and able to provide service and the application is filed to transfer or acquire control of permanent authority for any one of the following reasons (check one, if applicable):
- A partnership has dissolved due to the death, bankruptcy, or withdrawal of a partner, and that partner's interest is being transferred to a spouse or to one or more remaining partners;
 - A shareholder in a corporation has died and that shareholder's interest is being transferred to a surviving spouse or one or more surviving shareholders;
 - A sole proprietor has died, the sole proprietor devised or bequeathed the company by will, and the applicant is seeking transfer of the permit in accordance with the bequest or devise set forth in the will.
 - An individual has incorporated and the same individual remains the majority shareholder;
 - An individual has added a partner but the same individual remains the majority partner;
 - A corporation has dissolved and the interest is being transferred to the majority shareholder;
 - A partnership has dissolved and the interest is being transferred to the majority partner;
 - A partnership has incorporated and the partners are the majority shareholders; or
 - Ownership is being transferred from one corporation to another corporation when both are wholly owned by the same shareholders.

Documentation supporting the checked box above must be included with your application. You may submit a corporate resolution, partnership agreement, court order, death certificate, will or other proof of right to inherit, estate executor's statement, community property agreement or other such documentation that may support your request.

2. The Commission will grant an application for permanent authority without requiring a provisional permit after the application has been published on the application docket subject to comment for thirty days if the applicant is fit, willing, and able to provide service, the applicant has filed to transfer or acquire control of permanent authority, and all the following conditions exist:

- Ownership or control of a permit is being transferred to any shareholder, partner, family member, employee, or other person familiar with the company's operations and the household goods moving services provided. If you check this option, please complete the following:
 - a. Has the permit been actively used by the current owner to provide household goods moving services during the last twelve-month period prior to the application? No Yes
 - b. Need a certified statement from the applicant and the current owner explaining why the transfer of ownership or control is necessary to ensure the company's economic viability:
 - c. Include certified statement from the applicant and the current owner describing the steps taken by the parties to ensure that safe operations and continuity of service to customers is maintained.

Well, I finally got it together but we were a little stumped by the last attachment. Nothing on there fits with what has happened here with our two corporations and so we didn't check anything on that page.

If you have any questions feel free to call me at 800-239-7700 ext. 98230 or my cell at 800-447-7043. Thanks.

What Satisfied Customers Are Saying

Reviewer: Dijonna - 7/19/2011 11:01:02 AM

One of Coleman's teams delivered my household goods today in Sneads Ferry, NC. I just wanted to say thank you and express how grateful we are for this team. They did a wonderful job and were so pleasant to have around the house. They went above and beyond and showed attention to detail to ensure I was happy with everywhere they were placing things. I have been active duty for 7 years and have experienced a lot of moves. These guys were the best yet.

What Movers Are Saying

Reviewer: Dijonna - 7/19/2011 11:01:02 AM

One of Coleman's teams delivered my household goods today in Sneads Ferry, NC. I just wanted to say thank you and express how grateful we are for this team. They did a wonderful job and were so pleasant to have around the house. They went above and beyond and showed attention to detail to ensure I was happy with everywhere they were placing things. I have been active duty for 7 years and have experienced a lot of moves. These guys were the best yet.
