Megan Banks, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington, declares as follows:

1. I am employed by the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) as a Compliance Investigator in the Consumer Protection and Communications Section. As a Compliance Investigator, my responsibilities include conducting investigations regarding the business practices of regulated utility and transportation companies. As part of those duties, I investigate household goods carriers that may be operating without the required Commission permit.
2. I began an investigation into the activities of Bellingham Delivery Service in January 2015, after finding an advertisement on www.craigslist.org offering moving services. The advertisement included a telephone number, (360) 303-7202 and a name, Marc.<sup>1</sup>
3. On January 6, 2015, I conducted a search of Washington Department of Revenue's Business Licensing Services for "Bellingham Delivery Service." The search produces two records for Bellingham Delivery Services and both entities are governed by Marc William Dryer.<sup>2</sup>
4. I reviewed Commission records related to Marc Dryer d/b/a Bellingham Delivery Service to determine whether the company held a household goods permit. According to Commission records, as of January 29, 2015, there is no record of Marc Dryer d/b/a Bellingham Delivery Service now (or ever) holding a household goods permit. A review of commission records produced an investigation that dates from February 2012. A previous investigator sent a compliance letter on February 10, 2012, to Mr. Dryer at 1101 Cedar Hills Ave.,

<sup>2</sup> See Attachment B for the two business licenses associated with Bellingham Delivery Service, which I printed on January 6, 2015.

Bellingham, WA 98229. According to Commission records, the compliance letter was not returned.

5. On January 5, 2015, I texted (360) 303-7202 and requested a move within Bellingham. A person who identified himself as "Marc" with "Bellingham Delivery Service," responded by text message on January 5, 2015, and stated that a move would cost $85 an hour for two men and a truck.
6. On January 16, 2015, I sent an email through the company's January 16, 2015, craigslist.org advertisement requesting an estimate for a move within Bellingham.<sup>3</sup> On January 16, 2015, a man who identified himself as "Marc Dryer" with "Bellingham Delivery Service" responded and stated that it would cost $85 an hour for two men and a 16ft box truck.<sup>4</sup>
7. On January 29, 2015, I confirmed that no permit application had been submitted for "Marc Dryer" or "Bellingham Delivery Service." A search on www.craigslist.org produced four advertisements for moving services posted on January 17, 2015.<sup>5</sup>

DATED this 12th day of February, 2015, at Olympia, Washington.

Hi! Were moving within Bellingham from a 1 bed to a 2 bed apt. Can u give us an estimate? Also, are there any additional costs, like do we have to rent a truck or anything? Were hoping to move by the end of Jan but are a bit flexible on the date... ideal would be a Friday or Saturday :) Thx! Maggie
