DECLARATION OF APPLICANT

I understand that filing this application does not in itself constitute authority to operate as a household goods mover.

As the applicant for a household goods permit, I understand the responsibilities of a motor carrier and I am in compliance with all local, state and federal regulations governing businesses, including household goods movers, in the state of Washington.

I understand that if the commission grants my application as a new entrant I will receive temporary authority to provide service as a household goods carrier on a provisional basis for at least six months. During this time, the commission will evaluate whether I have met the criteria in WAC 480-15-330 to obtain permanent authority. I also understand that I must comply with all conditions placed on my temporary permit and that failure to do so will result in cancellation of my permit.

My employees are sufficiently trained to comply with commission rules regarding estimates, bills of lading, rates and charges and terms and conditions of household goods moves. In addition, my employees are sufficiently trained to comply with commission rules regarding vehicle operation, maintenance, and all other safety requirements. My company will provide a copy of the customer survey to each customer for whom we provide transportation service.

I certify or declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the information contained in this application is true and correct.

TRANSFER OF PERMANENT HOUSEHOLD GOODS AUTHORITY UNDER EXCEPTIONS IN WAC 480-15-187(2) or (3)

1. The commission will grant an application to transfer existing permanent authority, without requiring a provisional permit, public notice or comment, if the applicant is fit, willing and able to provide service and the application is filed to transfer or acquire control of permanent authority for any one of the following reasons (check one, if applicable):
 - A partnership has dissolved due to the death, bankruptcy, or withdrawal of a partner, and that partner's interest is being transferred to a spouse or to one or more remaining partners;
 - A shareholder in a corporation has died and that shareholder's interest is being transferred to a surviving spouse or one or more surviving shareholders;
 - A sole proprietor has died, the sole proprietor devised or bequeathed the company by will, and the applicant is seeking transfer of the permit in accordance with the bequest or devise set forth in the will.
 - An individual has incorporated and the same individual remains the majority shareholder;
 - An individual has added a partner but the same individual remains the majority partner;
 - A corporation has dissolved and the interest is being transferred to the majority shareholder;
 - A partnership has dissolved and the interest is being transferred to the majority partner;
 - A partnership has incorporated and the partners are the majority shareholders; or
 - Ownership is being transferred from one corporation to another corporation when both are wholly owned by the same shareholders.

Documentation supporting the checked box above must be included with your application. You may submit a corporate resolution, partnership agreement, court order, death certificate, will or other proof of right to inherit, estate executor's statement, community property agreement or other such documentation that may support your request.

2. The Commission will grant an application for permanent authority without requiring a provisional permit after the application has been published on the application docket subject to comment for thirty days if the applicant is fit, willing, and able to provide service, the applicant has filed to transfer control of permanent authority, and all the following conditions exist:
 - Ownership of a permit is being transferred to any shareholder, partner, family member, employee, or other person familiar with the company's operations and the household goods moving services provided. If you check this option, please complete the following:
 - a. Has the permit been actively used by the current owner to provide household goods moving services during the twelve-month period prior to the application? No Yes
 - b. Provide a certified statement from the applicant and the current owner explaining why the transfer is necessary to ensure the company's economic viability:
 - c. Provide a certified statement from the applicant and the current owner describing the steps taken by the parties to ensure that safe operations and continuity of service to customers is maintained.

To whom it may concern,

As an active member of the military, my time to devote to B&Z Moving has been seriously curtailed since its inception. With the additional responsibility that comes from a recent marriage, I have been forced to acknowledge that I simply do not have the time necessary to run B&Z Moving LLC myself in a fashion that will best meet the needs of its customers.

Rather than simply close the business, my financial and office manager, Leilani Austen, has convinced me that she is both willing and capable of taking over the company, allowing me to keep the business within our family, and continue to be involved when and where time allows and Leilani Austen deems necessary, as a consultant. This both addresses my concerns regarding my available time, and also allows for the hard work that I had performed to get B&Z Moving where it is today not to go to waste, which is, for me, a winning proposition.

Sincerely,

Zachary Gripp

To whom it may concern,

The sale of B&Z Moving LLC will not affect the safe operation of same, nor the continuity of its services to the public.

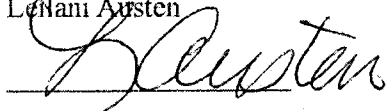

Employees of B&Z Moving LLC will continue to serve in their present capacities, and as such will continue to be held to their present safety standards and will bring their experience to those tasks necessary to continue normal business operations. The seller (Zachary Gripp) has and will be assisting with training, hiring, and consultation where needed to ensure that the buyer (Leilani Austen) understands the safe and ethical practices required in the household goods transport industry. Likewise, the buyer has been participating in the ongoing function of the business for some time prior to this purchase, and has established an understanding of the necessary protocols to ensure safe business operations.

The familial relationship between buyer and seller allows for a smoother changeover of business between parties than would normally be possible. Seller has acknowledged that his other obligations do not allow him to properly run B&Z Moving LLC to the best interests of its customers, but will still be involved in day to day operations and decisions related to same through the buyer, and as such will be able to assist in ensuring that business continues in an appropriate manner.

It is felt that these steps will be sufficient to ensure that the transfer of business ownership will not cause any undue risk in terms of either safety or continuity.

Signed,

Leilani Austen
