 MONROE POLICE DEPARTMENT 818 W Main St Monroe, WA 98272 (360) 794-6300	Case Supplement Report
	Case Report # 2018-00015848

NARRATIVE

On 09/14/2018 at approx. 1546 hours, I was on patrol as a Field Training Officer with N. Steinbach. We were traveling north on 179th when I noticed multiple calls being entered into dispatch. I could see both a, "Medx" and "colp" at the same location near North Kelsey Street at the Monroe Rite Aid and Denny's.

Due to the call type and multiple calls in the same matter, I then advised Steinbach to begin a code response to the location.

As we drove to the location, we were advised there had been a train vs. pedestrian at the location. We drove to the location and arrived quickly. We arrived from the south and stopped in the area of the railroad tracks on the Blueberry Lane side.

I could see there was a stopped freight train that had stopped at the crossing. I could see the railroad crossing arms were down, lights were flashing and the crossing bell was clearly sounding.

I crossed over a train car as there was no one I could see on the south side. I then could hear people telling me, "he's over there" and pointing east. I was able to cross over the train and I could see a person on the gravel on the north side of the tracks on the east side of Kelsey Street. I could see the person was lying with it's feet toward the train, I could see the train was on the north tracks. I approached and I could see the person was lying on it's back with it's head facing north. I approached and I could very clearly see there was what appeared to be brain matter on the ballast rock near the person. I could see the person appeared to be male and as I looked closer, I could see there was a significant head injury, extremely large open wound near the left hip area and other very severe injuries. The person was very clearly deceased with massive trauma.

We began coordinating response to the incident and began by keeping the scene secure. At that time, I noted Steinbach's camera was recording. I looked around and I could see items strewn about that appeared consistent with a pedestrian vs. train incident. I could see a shoe and noted the male appeared to have lost his. I could see a hat that appeared to have blood on it along with sunglasses and other bodily fluids that indicated the path of travel for the person.

Fire personnel arrived and came to assist. Medics confirmed the person was deceased and we covered the body with white sheets.

During this time, I noted there were many witnesses around the scene nearby. In the Rite Aid parking lot there was a large group of High School age children. Officer Erdmann went to speak with that group. There was a person in a truck, stopped at the railroad crossing arms. That male was contacted by Officer Tucker as it appeared the male had direct sight of the incident as it occurred.

After some time, I was asked by Sgt. Johnston to help identify the person. I returned to the body and assisted Steinbach with checking pockets of the individual. We were able to locate a slip belonging to 11B [REDACTED]. The paper indicated 11B [REDACTED] was a tenth grade student at Monroe High School. I was able to locate the male as 11B [REDACTED]. I notified Sgt. Johnston and advised him of the potential Monroe High School connection. Steinbach and I photographed the located items and placed them into a bag for later evidence booking.

A portable shelter was brought to the location and Steinbach and I assisted in placing the shelter over the body and then we placed black plastic to shield the scene from the public nearby.

This report was submitted from an electronic device owned, issued, or maintained by a law enforcement agency using my user ID and password. I certify or declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

 MONROE POLICE DEPARTMENT 818 W Main St Monroe, WA 98272 (360) 794-6300	Case Supplement Report
	Case Report # 2018-00015848

NARRATIVE

I am Evidence Technician Acree of the Monroe Police Department.

On September 14th, 2018 at approximately 1630 hours, I was in my Monroe Police Department issued uniform when Director Willis dispatched me to the scene of the reported train pedestrian collision at the railroad track crossing at Kelsey St. Upon my arrival the train was stopped blocking Kelsey street, the railroad crossing arms were in the down position, the lights located on them were flashing and the warning bells were still ringing.

I parked my van, exited and walked over to Sergeants Johnston, Robinson, Officer Stamey and Detective Henderson who were on the south side of the Kelsey tracks. Detective Henderson then briefed me on where they were in processing the scene.

At this point Detective Henderson and myself walked down the length of the train looking for some indication of braking and anything of evidentiary value. Detective Henderson took photographs. When we arrived at the front engine we examined it for impact areas. The areas on the front of the train that had visible blood and human matter was measured and photographed, then the entire front of the train was photographed. It was noted that at this crossing, Lewis Street, the railroad arms were in the down position and flashing and the warning bells were still sounding.

Detective Henderson and I then went into the engine compartment of the train where he took photographs and asked about obtaining a copy of the video. The conductor blew the horn to verify it was in working order. We then exited the train and walked back down the opposite side of the track toward the Kelsey crossing. At this time we then began the process of Detective Henderson taking mid range and close up photos of the evidence and scene, I then collected each piece of evidence and properly stored it in an evidence bag.

The medical examiner arrived on scene and took photographs of the scene and body, prior to her moving the body to transport him, Detective Henderson and myself took the evidence back to his vehicle and transported it back to the police department. After we arrived at the police department I placed the evidence in temporary locker 31. Detective Henderson gave me the memory card from the camera and I downloaded the photographs into the I Drive under 18-15848. I then made a CD copy for the medical examiner. At this point Office Steinbach gave me a bag containing personal belonging of the victim, keys and some papers that she obtained initially at the scene for identification purposed. I then placed these items in the bag with the rest of the evidence in temporary locker 31.

On Monday September 17th, 2018, I entered all evidence into property in our records management system and tagged each piece with a computer printed label.

 MONROE POLICE DEPARTMENT 818 W Main St Monroe, WA 98272 (360) 794-6300	Case Supplement Report
	Case Report # 2018-00015848

NARRATIVE

I am Officer Steinbach of the Monroe Police Department.

On 9/14/2018 at approximately 1546 hours I was dispatched to 18824 SR 2 for reports of a priority collision. Dispatch advised that a subject was hit by a train. At the time I was travelling northbound on 179th Avenue. I started a code response and quickly responded to the location.

I arrived with Officer Southard on the south side of the train. The train was stopped on the north set of tracks. There were multiple cars stopped for the train and pedestrians gathering and pointing toward the train. The crossing bars and warning lights marking the train crossing were flashing and there was an audible crossing signal. I crossed over the train cars with Officer Southard. I observed a body that appeared to be male lying north of the train, face up and feet toward the train. It was immediately apparent when we got closer that the male individual was deceased. I observed a large open wound on the male's left hip area and severe head trauma to the front and left side of the male's head. Dispatch was advised that the male was deceased.

I crossed back over the train and contact the incoming aid units. I advised aid that the individual was deceased and requested something to cover the body with. I covered the body with the blankets that were given to me by the aid unit.

After the scene was secured, Sergeant Johnston advised us to look for a name. Officer Southard and I started to look for identification on the body. I removed keys from the front right sweatshirt pocket of the individual. Officer Kornish located some papers next to the body. The papers were class schedules from Monroe High School and identified the individual as 11B. Sergeant Johnson, Sergeant Robinson, and Sergeant Ryan were immediately advised that the victim was a juvenile.

Additional units from Monroe arrived and placed crime scene tape. Officers started interviewing and obtaining witness statements. Officer Erdmann spoke to a group of juveniles in front of Rite Aid. Officer Michel spoke to a group that was on the south side of the train. Officer Tucker spoke to a male that was in his vehicle north of the train when it crossed.

Placards were placed to mark evidence. In the area between the intersection and the body, I was able to see a hat, a shoe, glasses, and many areas of blood spatter. I took photographs of the scene and of placards marking the evidence. The keys and two pieces of paper from the body were photographed and placed in a plastic bag which was secured in my car.

For an extended period of time during this call, I performed auxiliary tasks such as obtaining needed supplies. After the Medical Examiner had finished with the scene, I assisted in bagging and moving the body to the Medical Officer's van.

After the Medical Examiner removed the body, I observed a piece of paper and a small roll of bags that had been under the body. I photographed these items and bagged them. I returned to the Monroe Police Department and turned over the evidence items to Evidence Technician Renee Acree.

I booked all photographs taken at the scene into digital evidence at the Monroe Police Department.

	Case Report # 2018-00015848

NARRATIVE

I am Officer Patton, Javier A. Badge 1244 of the Monroe Police Department. This is my report.

On September 14, 2018 at approximately 1600 hours I received a phone call while off duty from Sgt. Ryan. He requested that I respond to a train vs. pedestrian fatal collision at the N Kelsey St crossing.

I arrived on scene at approximately 1627 hours. I contacted Officers on scene to get information about what happened, and what parts of the investigation have already been conducted. I was informed that Officer Stamey was the Officer in charge of the case. I was told that a teenage boy had been struck by the train, and had been killed by the impact. I could see where the body had come to rest on the north side of the tracks, a short distance east to N Kelsey St. A white sheet had been placed over the body, and later a tent had been assembled over the body to keep unauthorized observers away.

I contacted Officer Stamey and then met him at the front of the train. The train had come to a stop at the Lewis Street crossing. I viewed the outside of the train and saw there was blood and biological matter on the front and north side of the train. I photographed those, and later submitted the digital memory card to evidence.

I contacted the train crew. After I identified myself, I asked them to tell me what had happened. I was told that the train was traveling eastbound on the north track at 42 mph. There is a 45 mph train speed limit for this section of track. As the train approached the Kelsey St crossing, both crewmembers saw a person in a red sweatshirt cross in front of the train from south to north, stopping at the northern edge of the railroad, referred to at the foul point. The person then crossed again, southbound, directly into the path of the oncoming train. The crew said the brakes were applied and they heard the impact of the person against the front of the train. Due to the momentum of the train, it did not come to a stop until it reached the Lewis St. crossing. The crew were reluctant to provide written statements until an investigator from BNSF arrived. I provided them with statement forms, collected their contact information and gave them Officer Stamey's business card. The crewmembers were identified as Ernest J. Pries, Jr. and Luke A. Berg.

I then returned to the Kelsey St crossing to conduct a baseline measurement of the scene with Officer Stamey.

Railroad workers had arrived on scene and had turned off the crossing bell, making communication much easier. The crossing bars remained down and the lights remained flashing.

Using a PK Nail that was driven into the gap between pavement sections at the west edge of the N Kelsey St crossing as the reference point, I laid out a 300 foot measuring tape along the north edge of the tracks.

Officer Stamey and I took measurements, recording them on a measurement sheet. We took several measurements of biological matter on the ground, but not all, as there were many very small pieces that we saw as we took measurements of the larger pieces. We also measured the locations to a hat, shoes, sunglasses, and to the victim's head and feet.

When I was not actively engaged in measurements, I maintained security perimeter on the north side of the train at the N Kelsey crossing. During that time I was contacted by a reporter from the Monroe Monitor. I provided him with directions to meet Sgt. Johnston at the incident command center for an official information release.

Later, I assisted the Medical Examiner, along with a few other Officers, with removing the victim's body from the scene and onto a gurney.

I also assisted with securing the scene and removing equipment from the scene once the initial investigation was

NARRATIVE

On 9/14/2018 at approx. 1546 hours, I Officer Michel assisted on a Ped vs Train collision. When I arrived on scene I was instructed to get statements from witnesses, Renee Billerback, Lauren Noel, Kaden Peterson, and Alexandria Peck. They were all in vehicles that were stopped for the train at the N. Kelsey St. crossing. There vehicles were all on the south side of the crossing.

I got statements from all four witnesses, in there statements they all said the subject that got hit by the train was standing on the south side of the crossing on the Westside of Kelsey St, near the sidewalk. They all reported that when the train was coming the subject ran to the center of the track then stopped and appeared to face the train. Some of the witnesses said they saw him dragged by the train.

I verified with witnesses that they saw no other people on the tracks which they confirmed. Two of the witnesses made drawings on there statement of what they saw. Once all statements were completed I put them on Officer Stamey's desk and cleared the call.

	Case Report # 2018-00015848

NARRATIVE

The author of this report is Spencer Robinson; A Commissioned Police Sergeant for the City of Monroe.

September 14th, 2018 at about 1546 Sergeant Robinson was the oncoming patrol Sergeant for the shift. Dispatch advised of a pedestrian being struck by the train at N. Kelsey Street crossing.

Sgt. Robinson advised he was in route and arrived shortly after. Upon arrival patrol officers on scene advised the victim was deceased.

Sgt. Johnston also arrived on scene. A command center was made and Sergeant Johnston took over logistics and patrol operations while Sgt. Robinson managed the scene and investigation personnel.

Major Crimes Detective Paul Henderson was called to the scene as well as Traffic Investigations Unit Motors Officer Stamey and Patton. Evidence Technician Acree was also called to the scene.

Motors Officer Stamey was identified as the primary investigator, Detective Henderson assisted by Officer Steinbach took photographs and marked evidence.

Initially during first walk through of the scene, Sgt. Robinson used his evidence placards and placed them at critical points of evidence including clothing, body tissue and blood marks which indicated the path of travel post impact.

A tent was placed around the body to prevent on lookers from viewing and protect the scene of its final resting place post impact.

Witnesses in a vehicle on the South side of tracks were identified and a patrol officer was assigned to interview and obtain witness statements. Additionally witnesses were identified on the North side of the tracks as well and Officers Tucker, Erdmann, Kornish and Southard all assisted at the scene.

Sgt. Robinson assigned Motors Officers Javier and Stamey to contact the train engineers and conduct follow up investigation.

It was relayed to Sgt. Robinson the victim crossed the tracks, and then turned back towards the tracks, at some point waiving at the train before being struck. It was unknown at the scene why the victim was on the tracks or crossed while a track was coming.

Visibility was clear and sunny. Temperatures were mid warm to moderate. The visual distance for both directions is well over 300 yards. In addition the train track lights and warning system were visually working properly. Additionally witnesses all stopped and identified that a train was clearly coming and stayed clear of the tracks.

Follow up investigation with friends and other possible area witnesses were assigned to Motors Officer Stamey. Sgt. Robinson cleared the scene without incident.

 MONROE POLICE DEPARTMENT 818 W Main St Monroe, WA 98272 (360) 794-6300	Case Supplement Report
	Case Report # 2018-00015848

NARRATIVE

On 09-14-18, at 1545 hours Monroe units were dispatched to a train/pedestrian collision at the Kelsey St crossing. When I arrived on scene the train cars were blocking the Kelsey St crossing. I saw the signal lights were flashing, the warning bell was sounding and the crossing arms were down. I was then directed by Sgt. Johnston to go to the locomotive and contact the train employees. I went to the locomotive which had stopped at the west edge of the Lewis St crossing and contacted the Engineer, Ernest PRIES. He told me he had already reported the collision and all of the train traffic had been stopped and the tracks were safe. At the time of the collision it was overcast and daylight. It had rained earlier in the day but was dry at the time of the collision.

I asked PRIES what happened, and what he had seen. He told me he was in the cab of the locomotive which was heading eastbound on the north mainline track at 42MPH. PRIES told me as they were approaching he sounded the whistle and bell and saw the crossing arms were down with the lights flashing. He told me about 150 feet from the Kelsey St crossing he saw a person run from the south side of the tracks northbound to the other side of the tracks. He told me the person stopped at the edge of the tracks, turned around, moved to the center of the north tracks, turned facing the train and held up their arms. PRIES told me at this point the pedestrian was now about 30 feet in front of the locomotive, and the locomotive hit the person. He told me he then put the locomotive into emergency mode and the train came to a stop just before the Lewis St crossing.

I asked PRIES if he could tell if the person was trying to get out of the way and he said he saw the person who he thought was a male clearly standing in front of the train with his arms and hands fully extended in the air. He said it did not appear like the male was moving at all just standing in the center of the tracks.

I talked to the Conductor, Luke BERG who was also in the cab of the locomotive and he told me the same as PRIES. He also told me he saw the male cross the tracks but then turned around and stood in front of the train with his arms up. Both PRIES and BERG provided written statements after the Train Master arrived on scene.

After talking to the Engineer and Conductor I went to the collision scene. The evidence had already been marked and Detective HENDERSON was on scene taking photos of the train and all of the evidence. Officer PATTON and I laid a base line tape on the north side of the north mainline track. I used a PK Nail that was already in place as RP#1 and marked the spot with paint. From RP #1 we measured all of the evidence moving eastbound taking measurements off of the baseline tape and I marked all of the measurements on a log sheet.

After the measurements and pictures were taken, the medical examiner was called. The medical examiner arrived and after she conducted her investigation she took possession of the body.

On 09-15-18, I contacted Chris NEUFANG who was 11B for several years. NEUFANG told me has known 11B since he was 4 years old and called him 11B even though he and 11C Ginger were never married. He told me he and Ginger were no longer together but he still has 11C come to his house on weekends so he can see NEUFANG'S other kids. He told me that lately 11C has been down a bit and has also been acting out. When I asked him what he meant he said [11B] has been upset because he has to do chores and would rather just play video games. He told me he has talked to [11C] several times about the way he talks to Ginger and has told him that he needs to show Ginger more respect. He also told me that [11B] has told his other son that he did not want to live with Ginger any more. NEUFANG told me [11B] never said anything to him about wanting to live anywhere else. He told me when he comes to his house and leaves he has always been happy and has not seen or heard that he had been depressed just not happy doing chores or what his mom tells him to do. I obtained all of NEUFANG'S information and entered it into the case.

NARRATIVE (continuation) recorded interview with 11C about the collision. Krista informed me she approved, and she told me she would notify 11C ahead of time.

Upon meeting with 11C, I told her I wanted to speak with her about the collision involving the train and 11B. I asked 11C if she was comfortable with a tape recorded statement and she told me yes. 11C also informed me she had an interview with a BNSF Officer, which was tape recorded.

During the interview, 11C informed me she along with 11C and 11C were at the Rite Aid pharmacy at the time of the collision. 11C said as she exited the pharmacy, she noticed 11B get hit by the train. 11C said she walked over to 11B to check on him to see if she could provide aid or CPR. 11C told me she checked his pulse and realized he did not have one. 11C also told me due to the extent of 11B injuries, first aid would not have helped him. 11C told me she did not know who 11B was at the time of the collision.

See interview transcripts for further information.

On 09/28/18 at approximately 1400 hrs, I met with Rhonda Spencer and 11C, at their residence 11C.

Prior to meeting with Rhonda and 11C, it had been brought to my attention that Justin's father had been in a long term dating relationship with 11B father, but the two were no longer in a dating relationship. I was told 11C and 11B had remained friends and 11C might have information which could be helpful for this investigation due to the relationship.

I conducted a tape recorded interview of 11C with 11C Rhonda present. 11C advised he knew 11C well, and described their friendship similar to that of brothers. 11C said he was not aware of any events or changes in 11B life which were of major significance. 11C advised 11B and he spoke on a regular basis and 11B had not shared any incidents of bullying from others.

See interview transcripts for further information.

Case Supplement Report

Case Report # 2018-00015848

NARRATIVE

On 09-14-18 at about 1546 hours I was alerted by dispatch of a train pedestrian collision at the intersection of the railroad tracks 500 block of North Kelsey in Monroe. As I was enroute to the location I heard Officer Southard advise dispatch that the apparent victim was "Code Black" indicating obvious loss of life. I arrived at the intersection south of the railroad tracks. I could see that a Burlington Northern Santa Fe Railroad freight train was stopped on the tracks. The lead engine was between Kelsey and Lewis Street indicating that the train had been traveling east bound. A number of Monroe Police Officers were already on scene. Officer Southard and Officer Steinbach contacted me and advised that the apparent victim was on the north side of the tracks a short distance due east of the Kelsey Street crossing. I requested Southard to attempt to identify the victim. A few moments later Southard advised me that he had obtained Monroe School District student identification information from the body of the victim. The information led Southard to believe that the victim was 11(b) Juvenil [redacted], a tenth grade student at Monroe High School.

As Monroe Officers arrived on the scene I advised Officer Stamey that he would be the lead investigator of the collision. I also requested Sergeant Robinson to be the supervising sergeant of the investigation. I asked Sergeant Ryan to assist by obtaining information about the deceased in preparation for family victim notification. I then began notification of key Monroe Police Department personnel including Interim Chief Dickerson and Director Willis. I spoke with Director Willis about contacting officials from the Monroe School District. She was able to reach Dr. Federica Smith, Superintendent of the Monroe School District. I remained on scene obtaining resources through City of Monroe Public Works for street closures as well as investigative needs. I also maintained substantive communication with Director Willis who was acting as the agency Public Information Officer and liaison with the Monroe School District.

I remained on scene until the conclusion of the scene investigation.

This report was submitted from an electronic device owned, issued, or maintained by a law enforcement agency using my user ID and password. I certify or declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yes.

Detective Henderson: Do I have your consent to record this interview?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yes.

Detective Henderson: Would you give your full name and spell it please?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : 11(c) Juvenile Crime Witnesses

Detective Henderson: Would you give your date of birth please?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : [REDACTED]

Detective Henderson: Would you give your address please?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : 11(c) Juvenile Crime Witnesses

Detective Henderson: Would you give your cell phone number please?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : 11(c)

Detective Henderson: Alright uh, so obviously I'm talking to you today about an incident that happened on this past Friday. Um, and did you—uh, you attend uh, Monroe High School?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yes I do.

Detective Henderson: Alright. And were you at school on Friday?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yes.

Detective Henderson: Alright. Um, so after you got off school—you get an early release on Friday, is that correct?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Alright. So after you got off school what happened? What did you do?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : I rode the bus to my friend 11(c) house, me and 11(c), 11(c) and uh, we were just hanging out and then we decided to go get some snacks at Fred Meyer for the game or just to eat while we wait for the game to start. So when we were walking Jaime and 11(b) were sitting like close to the train tracks where there's a brick and they were like just talking. We stopped by and said hi. Uh, another of my friends drove by and I said hi so I—I went to go say hi to him and then I came back. Jaime went home and then us three, me, 11(c) and 11(c) went to the store at Fred Meyers and uh, about like ten/twenty minutes passed. We got our stuff and were heading back when the train started coming and uh, we were like crossing the street. I wasn't focusing until 11(c) pointed out 'Look, it looks like 11(b) is like...' he didn't say 11(b), '...but it looks like he's trying to beat the train.' Or something, but then I looked and he like quickly ran to the train and then stood in front of it and just waited for it to get close enough and then he stepped in front of it and got hit and that's when I called 911 and uh, we were checking if like the body was like—or if he was like breathing or anything and uh, the person who answered my call told me to stay on the line until authorities arrived.

Detective Henderson: Okay. Um, you mentioned after school uh, the three of you got on the bus and went to 11(c) house?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Do you know where he lives? What his address is or what street he's on?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : He lives on Blueberry.

Wit

Detective Henderson: On Blueberry?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. Um, and then you guys walked from his house on Blueberry to Fred Meyer?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Alright. Um, had you seen 11(b) at any point that day before you saw him at, at, that uh, you mentioned it was like a, like a brick thing.

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Like one of those concrete um, I don't know what they're called uh, those big pillar things.

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. So you haven't seen him at high school?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : No.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Um, do you know 11(b) at all?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Uh, I've known him since like kindergarten, but he wasn't really my friend. So I didn't really know him that well.

Detective Henderson: Okay. So you kinda just had seen him in school?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Alright. Uh, do you have any classes with him now?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : No.

Wit

Detective Henderson: No? Okay. Um, and you mentioned that he was uh, hanging out with uh, a guy named...

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Jaime.

Wit

Detective Henderson: ...Jaime, okay. Uh, do you know Jaime?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah. He played soccer with 11(c) and we hung out with him at the fair.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Oh okay. So you see him once in a while?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: I guess he's a little older?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah he goes to college.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Oh okay. Uh, now is Jaime and 11(b) friends?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah well, well his sister told us yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. So you didn't know that, but your—your—you think that because Jaime's sister told you?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah they said that they grew up together.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. And did she tell you that on the same day as the accident?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Uh, yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. Alright, so the three of you are walking to Fred Meyer on Blueberry and then um, you took a left to go up to Highway 2? Is that—if I showed you a map were you able to tell me?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Um, so on this map here this is the railroad tracks and this...

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Ahem.

Wit

Detective Henderson: ...is Blueberry and so your friend would be somewhere over here, right?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. And Fred Meyer is up here.

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Ahem.

Wit

Detective Henderson: There's Denny's and that's Rite Aid. This is Highway 2. Um, so you guys went this way?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: And then you went up North Kelsey Street?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yes.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Alright. And then this is about where the big—11(b) and Jaime were at?

J I

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Right—before the tracks, right?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Ahem.

Wit

Detective Henderson: And they were hanging out over here? Um, and you guys—you said that uh—did you say hi or did somebody else in your group say hi?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Uh, we said hi to Jaime.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay.

11(c) Juvenile Crime : And I don't know if 11(c) said hi to uh, 11(b).

Wit

J I

J I

Detective Henderson: Okay. But you guys were mostly talking to...

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Jaime.

Wit

Detective Henderson: ...Jaime.

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah we just said hi and then that's pretty much it.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. Um, and then you just kept walking?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: You guys kept walking? Okay. Was—uh, when you kept walking did Jaime stay there with 11(b)?

J I

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Uh no, 11(b) just stayed there and then Jaime was heading home.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Oh he was going home?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: So you saw him leaving?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. Do you know which direction he was walking?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : This way.

Wit

Detective Henderson: South?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. So the opposite direction of you guys?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Ahem.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Alright and then the rest of you—the three of you kept walking up and went to Fred Meyer?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Uh, do you know about how long you were at Fred Meyer?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Like twenty minutes.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. And uh, 11(c) bought some food or something?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah he bought like Sprite I think and some chips.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. That's a lot of walk just for some Sprite and chips.

11(b) Juvenile Crime : And then his mom asked for some food or something like that.

Vi ti

Detective Henderson: Oh okay. Uh, and then you guys were walking back um, and when did—when you were walking back you mentioned that you could tell the train was coming.

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: How could you tell?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Cuz uh, the railroad or what are they called?

Wit

Detective Henderson: The arms?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: The crossing arms?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah they were coming down and the bell was like dinging.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay.

11(c) Juvenile Crime : And then we looked and we could see the train coming.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Now you—when you say you looked you could see from behind Denny's?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: This way? Or was it when you were still over here?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : No like right here.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. So you could see behind Denny's?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Ahem.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Um, so you saw the crossing guard arms were down. Did you ever—do you remember hearing the whistle of the train?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah I do.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Yeah? And was that about the same time or was that back here somewhere?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : It was back here.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Back there? Okay. So about the same as when you were...

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Ahem.

Wit

Detective Henderson: ...in front of Denny's? Okay. Um, do you remember—I know earlier you mentioned you weren't really paying attention...

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah. I was paying attention to the road to cross.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Yeah. So you—at that point you had not seen 11(b) yet?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : No.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. And that—you said you---you didn't see 11(b) until 11(c) pointed it out.

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. And where were you at when he pointed it out?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Uh, I was like uh, on Rite Aid side kind of.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. So you had already crossed...

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah we were like already crossing.

Wit

Detective Henderson: ...crossing the street, but you had...

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: ...already gone all the way across?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Ahem.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. So you're somewhere in the middle of the road?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Uh and when you first looked at, at 11(b) what did you see?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : I saw him like kinda speed walking with his hand in his pocket towards where the train was going to pass.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay.

11(c) Juvenile Crime : He like, once he got to the, where the train was gonna pass he stopped and waited for it to get a bit closer and then like I think he like noticed that he wasn't directly in front of the train so he took a step more forward towards the train and then he got hit like three sec—or two seconds.

Detective Henderson: Okay. Now there's two different train tracks here. There's um, there's one closest to Denny's and then one that's closer to Blueberry. Um, do you remember which—did he stop in between or on the one and not the other?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : He stopped on Denny's side.

Wit

Detective Henderson: On the Denny's side? Okay. Uh, and then you said he moved?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.
Wit

Detective Henderson: A little bit? So when he—when he first stopped before he moved was he still on the tracks or was he not or could you tell? Maybe you couldn't see.

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Uh, it looked like he wasn't on like on the railroad from our perspective.
Wit

Detective Henderson: Yeah.

11(c) Juvenile Crime : But then he took a step and then he was in front of the train.
Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. And that was right before he got hit?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.
Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. So it was pretty like uh, fast? It all happened...

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.
Wit

Detective Henderson: ...pretty fast? Okay. Uh, do you remember if he still had his hands in his pockets or had he taken them out or...?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : He had his hands in his pocket the whole time until he got hit and then the impact made his hands come out.
Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. Uh, and then you mentioned that you immediately got on the phone and called 911?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.
Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. And then um, do you recall anybody coming out of Rite Aid...

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.
Wit

Detective Henderson: ...at that time?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Three females, three other students from Monroe High School.
Wit

Detective Henderson: Oh three girls that you know?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah. Well no.
Wit

Detective Henderson: You don't really know them?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.
Wit

Detective Henderson: You just re—you just recognized them that they were from the high school?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : And I know one of them kind of, but they're not really my friends.
Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. Did any of them actually see what happened?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Uh, one of them like saw like barely though.
Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. So they were actually...

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Just coming out.
Wit

Detective Henderson: Just coming out?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.
Wit

Detective Henderson: Alright. Um, and did they do anything to help?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah one of them uh, went over to the, to 11(b) to see if he was breathing.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Ahem.

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Uh, she was gonna give him CPR. She was ready, but she saw that he had no pulse so like his chest wasn't moving.

Detective Henderson: Okay, alright. Did you go over there too?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Uh no I was on the phone and uh, I have a weak stomach.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. Uh, what about your two friends that you were with?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : They were with us...

Wit

Detective Henderson: Did they...

11(c) Juvenile Crime : ...with—with me.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. So...

11(c) Juvenile Crime : ...and the two other girls.

Wit

Detective Henderson: ...the three of you guys stayed together...

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: ...with the two girls? Okay. Um, I know earlier you mentioned that you're not friends with 11(b).

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Ahem.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Uh, do you know people that he hangs out with or kinda—do you know anything about him?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Not really I just like I've seen him hanging out with this kid named 11(c) Juvenile.

Wit

Detective Henderson: 11(c) Juvenile ?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. Uh, is that a student at Monroe High School?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. Do you know what grade he's in?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Uh, same as me, sophomore.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. Uh, and you don't have any classes with 11(b) ?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : No.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. Um, so you wouldn't have noticed any type of like changing of behavior or anything like that?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : No.

Wit

Detective Henderson: No? Okay. When you first saw him when you guys were walking to Fred Meyer did he seemed like he was doing okay?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah he seemed pretty fine.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. Seemed normal?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Alright. And was he doing anything uh, when—was he like drawing or eating or doing anything when you guys passed him?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : He was just sitting like with his hands in his pocket on the brick and then Jaime said that he had giving him
Wit like a cracker that he got from the store.

Detective Henderson: Oh Jaime said that to you guys?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.
Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. Alright um, and at any point during that day on Friday, at school or anywhere else when you guys were walking around did you ever see 11(b) ?
J I

11(c) Juvenile Crime : No.
Wit

Detective Henderson: No? So the first time was at that bus stop area?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah. I'm pretty sure we would've seen him because apparently the bus we rode he rides it too.
Wit

Detective Henderson: Oh okay.

11(c) Juvenile Crime : But he wasn't on it.
Wit

Detective Henderson: He wasn't on that bus?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.
Wit

Detective Henderson: But he—who told you that he rides the same bus?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : The bus driver.
Wit

Detective Henderson: Oh the bus driver?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.
Wit

Detective Henderson: Why did he mention that?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Um, my friend rides it and he told me that she mentioned it in the morning on Monday.
Wit

Detective Henderson: Oh the next morning?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.
Wit

Detective Henderson: After this whole thing happened?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.
Wit

Detective Henderson: The bus driver mentioned that? Okay. Uh, and that's the same bus that 11(c) normally drives home right?
J II

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.
Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay. Um, now I don't have—know how that works. Does everybody have different buses they take to go home?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.
Wit

Detective Henderson: So can you guys get on any bus you want?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Mmmm...
Wit

Detective Henderson: Like if you wanna go visit somebody?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : No, not in particular.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Oh okay.

11(c) Juvenile Crime : You have to get a bus note.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Oh, did you guys get a bus note?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yeah.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Alright. Um...is there anything else that you think would be important or you wanna add?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Hmm, not really.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Okay, alright. So do you certify or declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington the facts stated on this tape are true and correct to the best of your knowledge?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yes.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Has your statement been made freely, voluntarily and without threats or promises of any kind?

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Yes.

Wit

Detective Henderson: Alright, I'm gonna have you sign here right by the witness signature.

11(c) Juvenile Crime : Do I put my, 11(c) or just...

Wit

Detective Henderson: Uh yeah if you can that would be good. Thank you and I will sign next to your name. The time is now 4:44pm and this concludes this statement.

	Case Report # 2018-00015848

NARRATIVE

On 09-15-18, I interviewed a witness, Jaime ARELLANO at the police department. I tape recorded the interview and this is a synopsis of that interview. I asked ARELLANO how he knew the victim, 11(b) Juvenile. He told me that it was his 11(b) friend. I asked him how well he knew him and he told me they were friends but not super close. He said he would talk to him at school last year but that was about it. I asked ARELLANO about the incident yesterday, and seeing 11(b) at the railroad tracks. ARELLANO told me he was walking to Chase Bank to make a deposit when he saw 11(b) sitting on the cement blocks near the railroad tracks. I asked him which side of the tracks they were on and he said the same side as Blueberry Lane. He told me he stopped for a minute and was asking 11(b) how he was doing. He told me 11(b) seemed ok and didn't seem down or depressed. ARELLANO told me he asked 11(b) why he was sitting there and 11(b) told him he was just watching the trains. ARELLANO told me he had to go and said goodbye to 11(b) and told him he would talk to him again if he was still there when he walked back from the bank.

ARELLANO told me on his way back he stopped and bought a package of cookies and when he crossed the tracks 11(b) was still sitting on the cement blocks. He told me he stopped again to talk to 11(b) and shared his cookies with him. He told me they were talking about stuff in general when three guys had walked up. ARELLANO told me they were some friends he knew from last year at school. ARELLANO told me he talked to them about a couple different things. He told me one of the guys liked a girl he knew and was asking about her. ARELLANO told me he said good bye to them and they walked towards Fred Meyer. He told me he said goodbye to 11(b) and gave him a half hug and walked away towards Main St to go home.

ARELLANO told me at about 3:50 he received a call from his friend (one of the three he had just talked to) telling him the guy he had been talking too, 11(b), had been hit by a train. I asked him if he had ever known 11(b) to be depressed or talk about suicide and he said no. He told me they both went to Monroe High School, but that he had graduated last year so he doesn't see him as much this year. I asked him if he ever saw him run in front of the train and he said no. He then told me he had heard rumors of 11(b) being bullied but he said 11(b) had never told him he had been bullied. I asked him a couple of times if there was anything else he could tell me that he would help with the investigation and he said no. I then concluded the interview and had ARELLANO sign the taped statement interview form.

Later in the day I contacted ARELLANO again to clarify a couple of statements he had made and to get the names of the three friends he had talked to when he was with 11(b).

A freight train was stopped on the tracks and blocking the North Kelsey Street crossing. The crossing guard arms were down and the alarm bell was sounding. I spoke with Sergeant Robinson, who was coordinating the scene with Sergeant Johnston. He gave me a brief update to include what was known up to this point. There were many other officers on scene that had been delegated with different tasks. Officer Stamey and Officer Patton were assigned to work on the collision aspect of the case, while I was assigned to investigate the death. I was told the deceased juvenile had been identified as 11(b) Juvenile, who is a freshman at Monroe High School. I was also advised that other officers were contacting possible witnesses, to include three male high school students who had been walking nearby and some adults who had been in vehicles that were stopped for the train. I was also told that 11(b) had been talking to someone near the bus stop south of the railroad tracks prior to the incident (this person was later identified as Jaime Arellano). Since I had seen what appeared to be a news helicopter flying overhead on my drive to the scene, I requested a pop-up tent be placed over the body. Sergeant Robinson took care of this request while I made my way to the opposite side of the train to survey the scene.

After crossing onto the northern side of the railroad tracks, I was able to see the scene in its entirety. I noticed some placards had already been placed on the ground and later found out this had been done by Sergeant Robinson as an attempt to identify possible evidence so officers on scene would not destroy it. I began taking overall photographs and decided not to remove the already existing placards as they had been placed prior to my arrival. However, it should be noted the photographs taken with these initial placards in place should not be used to identify the numbering system associated with evidence that was collected. After taking the initial photographs of the scene, I placed my own set of numbered placards in relation to items that were deemed of evidentiary value. The next set of photographs and documented numbers associated with each piece of evidence corresponds with the correct set of placards. Some of these items were collected as evidence whereas other marked items (i.e. biohazard material) were documented and disposed of properly.

Officer Stamey pointed out the approximate impact point which he concluded from witness testimony. The location was at the west corner of the concrete that made up the railroad crossing area, on the northern most railroad track. The front of the train was now located just before the railroad intersects with North Lewis Street (aka State Route 203). The train had been traveling eastbound during the collision. I walked from the initial impact point to the front of the train on the northern side, documenting anything that was of evidentiary value. I also walked back to the initial impact scene on the south side of the train, but did not find anything of value on this side. [11(b)]'s body was resting a short distance north of the railroad tracks and south of the Rite Aid parking lot. The force of the collision had thrown him across North Kelsey Street to the position he was currently at. In between the impact point and [11(b)]'s body was a field of debris to include shoes, glasses, black BNSF baseball hat, blood marks and stains, brain matter, and other biohazard material.

After walking to the front of the train with Evidence Technician Acree, I located the area of impact on the lead engine. BNSF engine cars have distinct paint jobs with black on the bottom third and orange on the top two-thirds. At the front of the engine, there is a rim jutting out where the orange paint begins. Just below this rim is a square metal case protruding from the bumper area with a red lid. It was on the red lid and the bottom corner of the orange rim where a substantial amount of biohazard substance was located. It appeared to be blood and possible brain matter, mostly contained in a small area with some remaining remnants wrapping around the side of the train (north side). The area of the red lid was photographed with a measuring tape from the ground, which at this location was the concrete that runs along the intersection area.

I climbed up the stairs into the engine compartment. I spoke with Luke Berg (Conductor) and Ernest Pries (Engineer) who had been in control of the train during the collision. I was given a brief explanation of the data monitors and the braking system. Berg and Pries provided signed written statements which were collected by Officer Stamey. Pries explained to me how the locomotive had been traveling at 42 miles per hour while approaching the Kelsey Street intersection. He had activated the horn as per policy and could see the lights and crossing arms at the intersection were functioning properly. Pries saw a pedestrian run northbound from outside the crossing arms and across both sets of tracks before suddenly stopping just to the north of the tracks the locomotive was traveling on. Pries was sounding the whistle and bell when the pedestrian sidestepped onto the tracks and faced the train before disappearing under the nose of the locomotive. He immediately activated the emergency brakes but knew the pedestrian had been struck. After speaking with Pries, I took photographs of the monitors and the current position of the brake which was engaged in the "full" position. I also heard the horn as it was activated by the conductor. The headlights on the engine were also activated and all four were working.

Upon walking back to the initial impact point, I assisted Evidence Technician Acree with collecting evidence. After this was complete, Investigator Rebecca Shankles with the Medical Examiner's Office arrived on scene. She gave me their case number for reference, #180915-5. I photographed the body while Shankles was conducting her own investigation. Other officers assisted her with collecting the body while I assisted Evidence Technician Acree with transporting the evidence back to Monroe PD. Prior to leaving the scene, a BNSF representative informed me that video from the main engine would be requested but may take a few weeks to download. I gave my contact information for when the video was available. After arriving at the police department, I assisted with booking the evidence and also requested a copy of the photographs be hand delivered to the Medical Examiner's Office per Investigator Shankles' request. 09-19-2018

I spoke to Officer Springer who is the School Resource Officer at Monroe High School. He was aware of the case and was working with school officials to assist with the investigation, including students who needed counseling or other services due to the death of a fellow student. I was also notified of social media posts (specifically on Facebook) alleging fellow students had dared [11(b)] to jump in front of the train. Other posts alleged that [11(b)] had been bullied to the point of committing suicide. Many of these posts implicated the three juvenile males who witnessed the incident as being the people who either bullied or dared [11(b)]. I read through some of the comments, some of which alluded to hoping the juveniles, "could live with themselves" after being responsible for what happened. Due to the sensitive nature of these allegations, I decided to conduct an in-person tape recorded statement with all three of these juveniles. I also noted that each of them had already provided a signed written statement at the scene while cooperating fully with police during the initial investigation. One of the juveniles, [11(c) Juvenile Crime], had called 911 to report the collision. In both [11(c)]'s and [11(c)] written statements, they refer to the deceased as "Leslie", as if not knowing what his actual name was. Upon a later review of the 911 call by [11(c)], it does not appear that he personally knew the deceased.

Officer Springer advised that he had spoken with [11(c) Juvenile Crime], who agreed to speak with me at the Monroe High School. After meeting with [11(c)], he agreed to have the interview taped, and signed the Monroe PD Tape Recorded Witness Statement form after our conversation was complete. School Resource Officer Springer was also present during the recorded interview. The interview began at 1355 hours and ended at 1412 hours. After the interview was complete, I noticed the recording device was no longer working properly. Upon returning to the police department, it was discovered the audio file was only around two seconds long and did not record any verbiage. Because [11(c)] had previously provided a written statement and due to the sensitive nature of this incident, I have elected not to re-interview him but rather provide a synopsis of his recorded interview. The following is what [11(c)] explained: After getting out of school, he began walking home with two of his friends including [11(c) Juvenile Crime] and [11(c)]. They ended up getting a ride from another friend who dropped them all off at his house on Blueberry Lane in Monroe. A short time later, the three of them wanted some food and began walking to Fred Meyer. After turning northbound onto North Kelsey Street from Blueberry Lane, he saw Jamie and [11(b)] sitting at the bus stop. He said hi to Jamie and noticed that [11(b)] was eating some chips from a bag. He knew who Jamie was from school but only recognized [11(b)]'s face. He was not friends with [11(b)] and didn't have any classes with him. He also didn't interact with 11(b) and couldn't remember ever speaking to him except maybe in middle school. 11(c) said he remembered 11(b)'s face from when both of them attended Park Place Middle School. The three boys walked past Jamie and 11(b), continuing on their way to Fred Meyer for some food. 11(c) wasn't sure exactly what time this was, but believes it was around 3 pm. Upon returning from Fred Meyer, 11(c) and his two friends were walking south past Denny's when he saw 11(b) still sitting at the bus stop but Jamie wasn't there. The three heard the train whistle and knew the train was coming so decided to cross the street to the Rite Aid side. They begin to cross, not using the crosswalk because cars were already stopped for the train, but instead crossing between the train tracks and SR 2. While crossing the road, 11(c) noticed 11(b) stand up from the bus stop and begin walking really fast in their direction. He thought it was really strange because the train was really close and then told his two friends, "He's walking towards the train!". 11(c) was still walking across the street with his friends and had just made it to the sidewalk when 11(b) was struck by the train. He couldn't remember many details right before the collision or afterwards. When I asked 11(c) if 11(b) made any movements immediately prior to the collision, he could not remember.

Upon returning to the police department, Sgt. Hatch informed me that he had received a voicemail from 11(b) (Kim) of 11(c). I listened to the voicemail and called her back at the provided phone number (425-344-7647). Kim advised she did not want 11(c) being interviewed at the school and would bring him to the police department tomorrow so I could speak with him. She also told me that 11(c) Juvenile's mother was standing next to her and would bring her own son to the police department tomorrow at the same time. C I

I contacted Medical Examiner Rebecca Shankles, asking when I could obtain 11(b)'s phone. She had previously collected the cell phone from the scene because it was still in his hand. Rebecca emailed me back, informing me the cell phone had been released yesterday with the decedent to Purdy & Walters at Floral Hills in Lynnwood. Prior to emailing me back, she had contacted the funeral home and informed them that I needed the cell phone as part of my investigation.

I immediately contacted the funeral home at 425-672-1800 and advised them of the situation. I was told the cell phone was in their possession and would be waiting for me to pick up tomorrow.

09-20-2018

I requested Evidence Technician Renee Acree to collect the phone from Purdy & Walters. When Renee collected the phone, she was also given two pieces of paper that had been on the decedent's person when it arrived at the funeral home. She was informed that one of the pieces of paper had a drawing on it and said something about a Kermit suicide. Renee brought the items back to Monroe PD and took photographs of the pieces of paper. On the bottom right corner of one piece of paper is a small drawing of what appears to be Kermit the Frog along with writing just beside it saying, "Kermit suicide". Pictures of the paper were submitted to evidence. The cell phone was shattered and the battery compartment was extruding from the body, making it impossible to turn on or obtain data from the internal hard drive.

11(c) came to Monroe PD with his mother and I conducted a recorded interview with his permission. The interview began at 1604 hours and ended at 1619 hours. His account leading up to the collision was very similar to what 11(c) explained the previous day. However, 11(c) remembered that upon returning from Fred Meyer and crossing the street from the Denny's side to the Rite Aid side, the railroad crossing arms were down and he could see the train coming from behind Denny's. He also remembered seeing 11(b) walking fast towards the tracks but didn't think much of it other than he must be trying to "beat" the train. 11(b) was walking with his hands inside the front sweatshirt pocket. Once he made it to the tracks, he stopped and faced the train just before being struck. 11(c) also said he only knew of 11(b) because they went to the same middle school but he rarely if ever saw him at the high school. He never hung out with him and they didn't have any classes together or speak to each other. He also didn't have any knowledge of 11(b)'s personal life.

11(c) Juvenile was waiting in the police department lobby with his father. I conducted a recorded interview with his permission which began at 1630 hours and ended at 1644 hours. 11(c)'s account of the day was exactly the same as 11(c) and 11(c). He also reiterated the first time any of them had seen 11(b) that day was when Jamie and him were sitting next to each other by the bus stop just south of the railroad tracks. 11(c) didn't know 11(b) except that he went to school with him a couple years ago at Park Place Middle School but since starting high school he never saw him. After saying hi to Jamie, the three friends went to Fred Meyer where 11(c) bought some groceries. They were walking back when he heard the train whistle sound and saw the crossing arms down across the roadway, so they decided to cross the street to waste time inside Rite Aid while the train crossed. He was paying attention to crossing the road when 11(c) pointed out how 11(b) was walking towards the train. 11(c) looked down the road and saw 11(b) walking really fast towards the tracks with his hands inside the front sweatshirt pockets. Then Wesley suddenly stopped and just before the train went by, he took a step over to be directly in front of the train and was facing the train when it struck him. 11(c) immediately got on his phone and called 911. He saw three girls from high school walking out of Rite Aid but only one had actually walked outside in time to see what happened. She ran over to 11(b) and checked on him to see if he was breathing while 11(c) continued to speak with the dispatcher. He stayed on the phone until police arrived.

10-02-2018

I received the 911 recordings from Snohomish County 911. I reviewed them and then booked the duplicate discs into evidence. I had previously been contacted by Joel Donohue who identified himself as being 11(b) Juvenile. During our initial phone call, we agreed to meet on this date in order to discuss the ongoing investigation. I met with Joel at Monroe PD and he brought along two other adult males. Joel was concerned over the rumors of 11(b) being bullied or dared to jump in front of the train. Without giving specifics of the case, I explained to Joel how my investigation included the rumors on social media and how at this time there was no evidence to suggest these rumors were in any way true. I advised that he not trust anything on social media and wait until the police report was complete before coming to any conclusions. I also told Joel that video from BNSF would be viewed by me when available, but a copy was not being made available for the case; meaning nobody else could watch it. Joel showed me a text message conversation on his cell phone that he explained was between him and 11(b). The first message I saw was from Joel asking 11(b) how he was doing. This message appeared to have been in late June or early July of this year. Part of the reply by 11(b) advised that he was not supposed to be speaking with 11(b) until after he turned 18. Joel acknowledged the reply and there were a couple of future sporadic messages sent by Joel to 11(b). In most cases, 11(b) would only reply with a thumbs up emoticon. Prior to ending the meeting, Joel explained he was going to the Monroe High School and wanted to speak with the principal regarding the rumors going around social media about the three students who witnessed the collision. Joel wanted to figure out a way to stop the rumors since they were not true.

10-03-2018

I met with Ginger Davies at Monroe PD, who had previously requested a meeting with me to discuss the investigation. Ginger was extremely frustrated with how the case was being handled because the Medical Examiner's Office had released 11(b) body to Joel Donohue. She explained that even though Joel was 11(b) Juvenile, they had never been married and Joel has been estranged for the past 15 years; never wanting anything to do with 11(b). She further explained how Joel owes over $60,000 in child support and just made her pay him $4,000 to get 11(b) body back. She had been forced to have a funeral without 11(b) body present. Since the body was released to Joel, he wouldn't let her have the body until she paid him all the claimed expenses for the two funeral homes that Joel had taken 11(b)'s body to. Ginger said she was forced to hire an attorney to help track down where 11(b) body was at and to get it back so she could cremate his remains because Joel was refusing to speak with her.

Ginger also noted how Joel had begun communicating with 11(b) this past summer. It was at this same time when 11(b)'s attitude had suddenly changed. She had told 11(b) that he wasn't allowed to speak with Joel until he became an adult. Ginger didn't want the two of them speaking because she believed Joel was a bad influence and didn't want her son going down the wrong path. She wasn't sure if 11(b) continued to communicate with Joel, but believed this to be the case and wondered if the actions to end his life were directly related to the recent communication with Joel. Ginger also expressed her concern with Joel spreading rumors on social media suggesting she was at fault for 11(b)'s suicide. Ginger advised she was shown the social media posts by a friend of hers who was concerned with the rumors being spread by Joel. Prior to the end of our meeting, I let Ginger know that I was awaiting video from BNSF and would contact her again once I had a chance to view it.

10-04-2018

I met with BNSF employee Greg Beam who had the video from the locomotive with him. Greg played the video on his department laptop and I was able to view it. The video clearly shows 11(b) jogging past the crossing arms (which were down with the lights flashing) and over the railroad tracks until coming to a stop on the northern edge of the most northern set of tracks. 11(b)'s hands are in his sweatshirt pockets as he faces the train and then sidesteps once to become more centered with the oncoming locomotive. Just after he disappears from under the front of the locomotive, a tennis shoe can be seen flying in the air and landing just south of the Rite Aid parking lot. On the north side of the tracks, a subject on a bicycle is seen waiting on the east sidewalk behind the crossing arms. The video also shows three subjects walking southbound on North Kelsey Street along the Denny's side. They begin to cross the road through vehicles that are stopped for the train. One of the subject's is seen moving his head towards the location where 11(b) is running and just before the three subjects finish crossing the road, all three of them are now looking in the direction of 11(b) just before the collision. There is a considerable distance between 11(b) and the three subjects walking southbound, and the video does not show any indications of acknowledgement between them prior to 11(b) already being upon the train tracks. Even at this point, the only indication of acknowledgement is one of the subjects looking in 11(b)'s direction. BNSF does not provide video copies, so one was not included as part of this case.

I called Ginger and we set up a meeting for later in the day to speak in person. At that meeting, I told her what was viewed on the video. I also explained that all of the witness testimony corroborated what had been seen on the video. Based on evidence from the investigation, there would be a press release explaining a final determination. Ginger asked to have a copy of the final report and 11(b)'s personal belongings. I told her that when everything was complete, I would let her know so that she could make the appropriate request.

Later on the same day, Ginger called me back, expressing concern regarding contact between 11(b) and 11(b). She wanted police to subpoena the phone records so she could see any text messages. I advised this was not possible because at this point there was no crime and a subpoena would require probable cause of a crime in order for a judge to approve it. I advised Ginger to call the cell phone provider and find out if she could obtain the records on her own.

10-15-2018

Officer Springer informed me that he had conducted a tape recorded interview with Jaime Arellano. Jaime is the last known person to speak with 11(b). Officer Springer's report has been included in the case.

10-23-2018

I called Andrew Yardley and spoke to him over the phone. There was a written statement from Andrew, but it did not specify where he was at during the incident or what he was doing there. I asked Andrew to clarify and he explained that on the day in question, he was driving his truck and had driven south on Kelsey Street from SR 2. The crossing arms had come down and he was the first vehicle stopped for the train, heading southbound.

I called Adrianna McKenna and spoke with her regarding the relationship between 11(b) Juvenile Crime and 11(b). Adrianna explained how they currently live in Idaho but used to live near 11(b) and that is how the two kids became friends. 11 was supposed to visit 11(b) this past summer but it didn't work out and the two haven't seen each other in person for about a year and a half. Their relationship consisted mostly of online video games and social media chatting. After hearing about 11(b)'s death, Adrianna spoke to 11(c) and told him it was important for 11(b)'s mom to know what 11(b) was chatting about prior to his death. 11(c) looked up messages on Facebook and she read through them, finding some concerning remarks.

I asked Adrianna if she still had the messages. Adrianna explained she had saved them on her phone and could send them to me. I sent Adrianna an email and asked her to reply with the messages attached. I received an email reply from her a few minutes later. The email included numerous messages between 11(b) and 11, with the first message dated September 1st. The majority of messages were from someone using the moniker of "WOLFBOT". Adrianna said this is the moniker used by 11(b). The messages showed 11(b)'s anger towards his mother for grounding him and on another occasion from his mother taking away the internet. One of the messages was 11(b) telling 11 what the voices in his head were telling him on a daily basis. This message showed a conversation he was having with himself regarding suicide. On yet another message, 11(b) suggested that his "tomb stone (sic) is going to say cause of death suicide". I printed off the email, to include the messages, and included them in the case file. I also spoke to 11 over the phone. 11 explained that he and 11(b) were really good friends ever since they met at Park Place Middle School in 8th grade. They lived close by until he moved to Idaho but have maintained their friendship online and often play video games together. I asked 11 if the messages that 11(c) shared with me were something recent or if 11(b) had been sharing those types of feelings with him for a while. 11 stated it's been going on for a while. 11(b) first shared these feelings with him back in 8th grade. I also asked 11 if 11(b) was always blaming his anger on his mother disciplining him, or if there were other problems. 11 said it's been other things as well, including teachers giving him bad grades at his current school. 11(b) also was angry because there were autistic kids in his class that really bothered him and he had a hard time getting his work done. 11 couldn't think of anything else that may help with the investigation and I thanked him for his time.

I called the phone number listed for Joy Grigg; a name listed as a possible witness to the incident. Joy answered the phone and explained what her involvement was in the incident. She had just gotten off the Community Transit bus when she saw the victim hit by the train. Joy didn't have any more details because she had just stepped off the bus and looked up in time to see the collision. She had given her name to police at the scene and was later given a ride home by a police officer. Joy gave her address as 701 West Elizabeth Street, #5, Monroe.

I called Kerri Arellano and left a voicemail asking for her to call me back.

10-24-2018

Kerri Arellano called me in the morning and I spoke to her regarding the incident. I had spoken to Kerri before when she came to Monroe PD with Ginger Davies. Kerri explained that her son is Jaime Arellano who was the last known person to speak with 11(b). Jaime had been talking with 11(b) near the railroad tracks and afterwards, he walked back home to watch his younger brother while she went to Fred Meyer. Kerri was at Fred Meyer when she received a phone call about what happened. She rushed over to the scene and spoke with law enforcement. Kerri also went with police to Ginger's house for the death notification. She did not witness the incident, but as a good friend of Ginger's, she has been very involved with what has transpired afterwards.

11-01-2018

After the incident, Monroe PD posted a press release on their Facebook page. There were numerous comments, but one in particular was from Jeremy Bubna which stated the following:

"That is my sons good friend, Just had the boys vigile the other night. So so sad, make sure you talk with your kids about excepting dares. This could be any one of our kids apparently his buddies dared him to run across the tracks in front of train and he tripped." Through Facebook, a request was made for Jeremy to contact me. A short time later, he called and we spoke over the phone. Jeremy explained the initial conversation with his son was very brief and after making the Facebook comment, he learned that 11(c) was not actually friends with 11(b). Jeremy also said that 11(b) was the person who told him about the dare, but he believed it was just from rumors at the high school and nothing specific that his son knew about. I asked Jeremy if I could have the Monroe PD School Resource Officer contact his son at the high school to find out specifics of this rumor. Jeremy agreed and told me that 11(c) is 11(c) Juvenile Witnesses To. He also gave me information for 11(c) Juvenile, Chelsea Guizzotti, at 425-345-4555.

I contacted School Resource Officer Springer and requested that he contact 11(c) to find out if there was a specific person who told him about a dare or if it was just from generic rumors he was hearing at school.

I received a copy of the Snohomish County Medical Examiner's report. The report noted that toxicology samples were taken and a separate report would be issued with those results. The report listed the manner of death as suicide. This report was added to the case packet.

I called Officer Springer and spoke to him regarding his conversation with 11(c). 11(c) explained that he had not heard anything from school and the information regarding a dare was from an assumption that his mother made. He had later mentioned this to 11(c), who misinterpreted it to be factual information. 11(c) was not aware that 11(c) had made the Facebook comment.

11-02-2018

I attempted to call Chelsea Guizzotti at 425-345-4555 and received an automated message stating, "The person you are trying to reach is not accepting calls at this time". Monroe High School had one other contact number for Chelsea at 425-487-9561. I called this number and received another automated message stating the number was disconnected.

After investigation, this case is being closed without criminal charges. There is no evidence of foul play and 11(b)'s mental state at the time of his actions is unknown; as is his motivation for running onto the train tracks and facing the train.

This report was submitted from an electronic device owned, issued, or maintained by a law enforcement agency using my user ID and password. I certify or declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

Detective Henderson: 11(c) do you understand that this statement is being recorded?

11(c): Yes.

Detective Henderson: Do I have your consent to record this interview?

11(c): Yes.

11(c): Uh, 11(c) or 11(c) Juvenile. Uh 11(c) Juvenile Witnesses To Crime.

Detective Henderson: Would you give your date of birth please?

11(c): 11(c) Juvenile.

Detective Henderson: Alright, do you know your home address?

11(c): Uh, Snohomish.

Detective Henderson: Okay. And do you have a cell phone?

11(c): Uh yes.

Detective Henderson: Do you know your cell phone off the top of your head?

11(c): I do not.

Detective Henderson: Okay. Um, so obviously were here to talk about the incident that happened on Friday—this pas—previous Friday.

11(c): Yes.

Detective Henderson: Um, and so I'm just kinda gonna start off with maybe explaining um—did you go to school that day, on Friday?

11(c): Yes.

Detective Henderson: Okay. And um, what time did you get off of school?

11(c): Uh, 2:20.

Detective Henderson: Alright, so at 2:20 on Friday what happened after that?

11(c): Uh, I rode the bus—I went—I went—I rode the bus home and then my friend drove, wait, no. I rode 11(c)'s bus with 11(c) and we went to 11(c)'s like that and then we hung out at his house for a while and we were gonna go get food from Fred Meyer's so we all decided to leave and we were walking and when we were at the start of the train track we saw Jaime and 11(b) sitting on a cinder block uh, talking and then me, 11(c) and 11(c) walked up to them. 11(c) was talking to the—I forgot his name. I literally just said it...uh, was talking—started talking and then 11(c) ran to the, his buddy who honked his horn on the road, cuz he wanted to talk to 11(c). So 11(c) was over there. I was there and then when 11(c) was done talking 11(c) came back and we all walked to Fred Meyer's. We got to Fred Meyer's uh, 11(c) got his stuff and we then left there and then when we were walking back we were reaching the tracks and the uh, the gates were down and the sound of the train was coming and then 11(c) wanted like he was like 'Let's go across.' Cuz we were just gonna crossed it before the train got near uh, but 11(c) didn't want to so then we stayed and 11(c) was gonna cross the road, 11(c) was looking at it and I was kinda in the middle fo—going across, but also looking. And then we saw 11(b) walking to the train track with his hands in his pocket, pockets and then he stepped onto it and

I think he stepped next to it, but then when it was getting like really close he took a step to the left, that's what I saw, and then stepped onto the track looking at it and then got hit.

Detective Henderson: Okay. Um, so first after school you went over—you took the bus uh, with your friend 11(c) ?

11(c) : Ahem.

Detective Henderson: And 11(c) ?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: So it was 11(c) 's' bus?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Okay. And that—and he lives off Blueberry? Is that...

11(c) : Yes.

Detective Henderson: Okay. Um, so you guys went to his house first?

11(c) : Ahem.

Detective Henderson: Um, do you know how long you were there for?

11(c) : No.

Detective Henderson: No?

11(c) : I don't remember the times.

Detective Henderson: Okay. But you guys—somebody decided that you wanted to go to the store?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: And, to get some food?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Alright. Uh, do you have any idea what time that was when you left the house?

11(c) : Uh, no. I don't remember what times.

Detective Henderson: Yeah.

11(c) : It...

Detective Henderson: If you had a—if you had a...

11(c) : Maybe 4:00ish.

Detective Henderson: 4:00ish? Okay.

11(c) : I...

Detective Henderson: And had you been at the house for a while?

11(c) : We were at the house for a while. We got there and then I was in there and then they left to pick up his little brother. I was just hanging out at the house, cuz I didn't leave with them.

Detective Henderson: Ahem.

11(c) : I didn't know where they went so I was just hanging out at the house. Then they came back and then we hung out in 11(c) 's room. We probably—we actually probably—it was probably like 3:00ish.

Detective Henderson: Okay. And you guys get early—get off early on Fridays?

11(c) : Uh, yeah, 1:40.

Detective Henderson: Okay so left at 1:40?

11(c) : Yeah, left at 1:40.

Detective Henderson: Okay. Um, so you went to Fred Meyer?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: And on your way to Fred Meyer um, you mentioned seeing 11(b) and some other guy?

11(c) : Yeah. I—Jaime.

Detective Henderson: Jaime?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Okay. And where were they at exactly, do you remember?

11(c) : Uh, they were on the, like a cinder—big cinder block next to the train track.

Detective Henderson: Right next to the train track?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Okay. And that was on Blueberry or Kelsey?

11(c) : It was on the very end, directly next to the train track where the...

Detective Henderson: Yeah.

11(c) : ...incident happen.

Detective Henderson: Can I show you a map?

11(c) : Yeah. I might be able to.

Detective Henderson: So I'll do it this way here, so if this Denny's, right? Fred Meyer is over here?

11(c) : Ahem.

Detective Henderson: And then you have um...

11(c) : 11(c)'s house would be way over here. So he was like there, there like...

Detective Henderson: Right here?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Okay, so right by the tracks?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Alright. And you guys were over here on Blueberry?

11(c) : Yeah. And we walked...

Detective Henderson: You walked along the street?

11(c) : Yes.

Detective Henderson: Alright. And then when you were going north to Fred Meyer that's when you saw them?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: So you walked right past them?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Alright. And did you guys have a conversation at all?

11(c) : Not me, but 11(c) did, 11(c) .

Detective Henderson: 11(c) ?

11(c) : Yeah. He uh, talked to Jaime. I don't know what about. I wasn't listening.

Detective Henderson: Okay.

11(c) : But then Jaime got up and then uh, walked away, because he was leaving and Jaime's in college so he had to go to college I think. He was riding the bus.

Detective Henderson: Oh so he doesn't go to school with you guys?

11(c) : No.

Detective Henderson: Alright.

11(c) : He's older.

Detective Henderson: But 11(c) knows who Jaime is?

11(c) : Ahem, yeah.

Detective Henderson: Alright. Are they friends or do you...?

11(c) : They're friends.

Detective Henderson: Okay. But you recognized Jaime?

11(c) : I recognized him, but not really.

Detective Henderson: But you, how do you recognize him?

11(c) : Uh, face looks familiar.

Detective Henderson: Okay. And how do you recognize 11(b) ?

11(c) : Uh, I—he—he's been uh, few of my classes I think eighth grade.

Detective Henderson: Okay. So he hasn't been in your classes in high school?

11(c) : I don't think so, no.

Detective Henderson: And where did you guys go to middle school at?

11(c) : Uh, Park Place.

Detective Henderson: Park Place, okay. So you went to school together there?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: And he's been in a couple of your classes?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: So you recognize him from that?

11(c) : Yeah, yeah.

Detective Henderson: Do you ever see him at the high school?

11(c) : I think I've seen him once.

Detective Henderson: Okay. So you guys aren't friends, you don't hang out, nothing like that?

11(c) : No.

Detective Henderson: Okay. Um, and then you went to Fred Meyer, you guys bought some food or something...

11(c) : Yes.

Detective Henderson: ...and you were walking home? And was the plan—what was the plan uh, when you were walking home?

11(c) : Uh, just to go back to 11(c)'s and hangout there until the football game started.

Detective Henderson: Okay. Um, and the—the reason I ask is cuz somebody had decided to cross the street here?

11(c) : Yeah uh...

Detective Henderson: At the...

11(c) : We were going over here and uh, we...

Detective Henderson: You were past Denny's?

11(c) : Yeah—wait. We uh, we were next to it like, so we were like there.

Detective Henderson: Okay.

11(c) : This is the—the scaling, I don't know, a bit weird for me. Uh, we were probably like right there.

Detective Henderson: Ahem.

11(c) : And I think that's when Danny said we should uh, cross it, because the train was probably like way over here or farther.

Detective Henderson: Okay.

11(c) : But uh, we were just gonna run and cross and then 11(c) didn't want to and we were about here, we were walking so when 11(c) was like 'I wanna go over here.' Cuz we can go into Rite Aid to waste time on the train, cuz it was a long one.

Detective Henderson: Okay. Cuz that's what I was curious, cuz if you're going over here I'm like, but why are you crossing the road, cuz you wanna be on that side.

11(c) : Yeah we—we were gonna—we were gonna go into Rite Aid to...

Detective Henderson: Okay.

11(c) : ...just waste time.

Detective Henderson: Because of the train?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Got it. Now, you had mentioned hearing a sound uh, about the train. So you knew the train was coming?

11(c) : Ahem.

Detective Henderson: Do you recall where you were at on your way back when you first heard uh, or knew that the train was coming?

11(c) : I think it was—I—I think we just first knew when we saw the gates were down.

Detective Henderson: Ahem. And where—do you remember where you were at on this road when it happened?

11(c) : We probably just crossed the road. We were at the start of Denny's, maybe.

Detective Henderson: Okay. So like just crossed Highway 2?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Alright. So you're still pretty far away, cuz...

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: ...it takes a little while to walk that far.

11(c) : But we see like the lights flashing maybe like right there.

Detective Henderson: Yeah. So were cars already stopped here waiting?

11(c) : No there was no cars.

Detective Henderson: No cars?

11(c) : No cars.

Detective Henderson: Okay. And you guys uh, started walking or at least one of you started walking across the street?

11(c) : Yeah 11(c) uh, be—straight after we said 'don't go across' he started to walk across. He's like 'I'm—let's go to Rite Aid, waste time.'

Detective Henderson: Okay. Now did you notice 11(b) down here still?

11(c) : No and...

Detective Henderson: You weren't paying attention?

11(c) : No.

Detective Henderson: You were just kind of with your friends and...

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: ...you guys were kinda talking about crossing the road or not crossing the road?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Okay. At what point did you actually see 11(b) again?

11(c) : I think 11(c) — 11(c) might've maybe noticed something or maybe, I don't know, but uh, I saw him like standing, walking towards it or speed walking and then him stepping on the tracks and that's when I saw him. I—I don't know where I was. I was probably in the middle of the road walking across.

Detective Henderson: Okay. But you mentioned that 11(c) might've said something to get your attention?

11(c) : Yeah I think he said uh, he—I think we all thought he was gonna race it, like go past.

Detective Henderson: Oh race it?

11(c) : Yeah like run past it. Not like run with it...

Detective Henderson: Yeah.

11(c) : ...but go across.

Detective Henderson: So was that what got your attention to look that way?

11(c) : Yeah, I think.

Detective Henderson: Okay. And uh, you said that he—that 11(b) was speed walking?

11(c) : Yeah he was like speed walking so it looked like he was gonna cross the track.

Detective Henderson: Okay. And so when you first saw 11(b) what were you thinking?

11(c) : Uh, he's crossing the track. I mean I didn't really think too much of it.

Detective Henderson: Did you see the train at that point?

11(c) : A little bit, yeah I think yeah.

Detective Henderson: A little bit?

11(c) : Yeah we saw it uh, I don't—maybe...

Detective Henderson: This is the, the train track right here.

11(c) : Yeah and it was coming this way.

Detective Henderson: You could see the train at that point?

11(c) : Yeah. I don't know where it might've been—it might've been like there. It—it was really close.

Detective Henderson: (Unintelligible).

11(c) : Not really, but just, it was like...

Detective Henderson: So, so when you saw the train you saw 11(b) and he was speed walking? Did you sense that there was an issue?

11(c) : No I didn't think there was, something bad is gonna happen.

Detective Henderson: Okay. So you thought he could still beat the train?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Alright. Um, so can you explain that last part then when you first start seeing 11(b) uh, speed walking?

11(c) : Ahem.

Detective Henderson: Um, what happened at that point?

11(c) : Uh, he like after he, when he was walking?

Detective Henderson: Yeah when he was walking.

11(c) : So he walked over to it and then stepped on to the—I think he stopped on the track, but then took a step to the right I think, it looked from my angle.

Detective Henderson: Ahem.

11(c) : So like he wasn't even on the track like he was here and then...

Detective Henderson: Now there's two sets of tracks so could...

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: ...can you recall which side he stopped at? If you don't remember that's fine.

11(c) : The one in the, so if you're looking at it like this, the train was the right one, right? That's what track it was on.

Detective Henderson: The one closest to Denny's?

11(c) : Ahem.

Detective Henderson: Yeah.

11(c) : So I think he stopped on the left, this side and then took a step to the right.

Detective Henderson: Okay.

11(c) : Or he was standing in the middle and just readjusting, cuz he didn't know which train it was.

Detective Henderson: Ahem. Um, and do you recall which way he was looking?

11(c) : He was looking straight at the train.

Detective Henderson: At the train?

11(c) : Yeah this way.

Detective Henderson: Okay. And you mentioned he had his hands in his pocket?

11(c) : Yeah in his short pockets.

Detective Henderson: Okay. Do you remember him ever taking them out of his pockets?

11(c) : Uh, no.

Detective Henderson: No? Okay. Um...alright, and then uh, what happened after he was hit?

11(c) : Uh, I think 11(c) was like turning around, like immediately pulling his phone out when he like hit the ground, when he was on the ground.

Detective Henderson: Ahem.

11(c) : Uh, and then 11(c) was like, 11(c) was like turning or he was looking at it, but he was like, didn't wanna look at it. And I was kinda in the middle just kinda looking at it and then I don't know, looking at 11(c) seeing if, what he was doing. He was calling the cops and uh, then the, when we were about like probably entering Rite Aid we saw the three girls come out.

Detective Henderson: Okay. So you mentioned uh, 11(c) was calling the police?

11(c) : Ahem.

Detective Henderson: Um, and then did all three of you guys go into Rite Aid?

11(c) : No. We never went into Rite Aid.

Detective Henderson: You didn't? You just saw the three girls coming out of Rite Aid?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Okay. Uh, so had the girls been in Rite Aid when it was happening?

11(c) : So the one girl that saw the other two saw nothing. The one girl that saw she only saw the, 11(b) hitting the ground.

Detective Henderson: Okay. So she stepped outside of Rite Aid right as it...

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: ...was happening?

11(c) : So she didn't see the, him walking onto the tracks.

Detective Henderson: Okay. So you guys didn't go into Rite Aid. Um, did any of you actually go over to check on 11(b) ?

11(c) : No.

Detective Henderson: Okay.

11(c) : The girl did.

Detective Henderson: The girl did?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: The kid—the one who actually saw?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Okay.

11(c) : She—she didn't...

Detective Henderson: Do you know her?

11(c) : No I didn't recognize her. She didn't get like too close. She was probably like five feet within it.

Detective Henderson: Ahem.

11(c) : The distance of it.

Detective Henderson: Okay. And did you guys just hang out there until the police got there?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Okay. And I know the police contacted you there on the scene, right?

11(c) : Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Okay. Alright um, do you—I—I know you already told—said earlier that you don't hang out with 11(b) , you don't really consider yourself friends with him.

11(c) : Right.

Detective Henderson: Um, do you know anything about him or...

11(c) : No.

Detective Henderson: ...have you seen anybody interact with him at school?

11(c) : No.

Detective Henderson: No?

11(c) : Like never really saw him.

Detective Henderson: Nothing? Okay. Um, do you know if Jaime is friends with him?

11(c) : 11(b) ?

Detective Henderson: Yeah with 11(b).

11(c): Uh, I—I think they were.

Detective Henderson: You think they were?

11(c): I think they were.

Detective Henderson: Okay. Have you seen them together before?

11(c): No. I think they just like talk, cuz they both were there. Like he would've, Jaime would be going for a bus. I think 11(b) would just like hangout there.

Detective Henderson: Okay. And had you seen 11(b) at any point during earlier that day, so uh, at school or anywhere else?

11(c): No.

Detective Henderson: No? That was the first time you'd seen 11(b)?

11(c): Yeah.

Detective Henderson: Okay. Uh, alright. Is there anything else that you think would be important or you wanna add?

11(c): No. I think—I think we got it.

Detective Henderson: Okay. Uh, do you certify or declare under penalty of perjury under the State—under the laws of the State of Washington the facts stated on this tape are true and correct to the best of your knowledge?

11(c): Yes.

Detective Henderson: Has your statement been made freely, voluntarily and without threats or promises of any kind?

11(c): Yes.

Detective Henderson: Would you please sign this document right where it says witness signature?

11(c): Is it okay if I print, cuz I don't know...

Detective Henderson: Yeah that's fine. Thank you. The time is now 4:19pm and this concludes this statement.

Officer Stamey: Okay, so, again, Jaime tell me your first and last name again.

Jaime Arellano: Jaime Arellano.

Officer Stamey: Okay so this is gonna be a continuation of the interview that we did a little bit ago. Uh, are you still willing to talk to me on tape?

Jaime Arellano: Yes.

Officer Stamey: Okay. So the time is 4:05. Uh, so I had a couple extra questions after, I talked to you earlier. So to give me a little bit of a picture, when you saw the three kids that you said were your friends that you had stopped and talked to...

Jaime Arellano: Ahem.

Officer Stamey: Where were they—when did you see them?

Jaime Arellano: Um...

Officer Stamey: Before or after the bank?

Jaime Arellano: After.

Officer Stamey: After the bank?

Jaime Arellano: Ahem.

Officer Stamey: Okay. And where were they at?

Jaime Arellano: They were walking from Blueberry and they cut through the dead part of the grass towards Kelsey St

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: They were going towards Fred Meyers.

Officer Stamey: Okay. Did you ever see them talking to 11(b) ?

Jaime Arellano: Um, no. As soon as I left they just continued to Fred Meyers.

Officer Stamey: Okay. Uh, okay. So you never saw them talking to 11(b) ?

Jaime Arellano: Uh, no not at all no. Not when I was there. I mean they didn't really talk to him they just talked to me and then when I left they left.

Officer Stamey: Okay. So were you were you talking to 11(b) when they stopped and talked to you?

Jaime Arellano: Um, I was still sitting next to him.

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: But we weren't having a conversation.

Officer Stamey: What bank did you go to?

Jaime Arellano: Uh, Chase.

Officer Stamey: Chase? Okay, that's what I kinda assumed. Did they say anything to you about 11(b) ?

Jaime Arellano: No not at all. I mean besides when my friend called me and said that 'the guy that you were sitting with um, got hit by, he got hit by the train' said that they were on their way back from Fred Meyers and then they saw the thing go down and they saw him like running in front of it and it got hit, but that was about it.

Officer Stamey: What uh, who was it that called who?

Jaime Arellano: Um, my friend 11(c) Juvenile . I talked to a police officer when I called him again. I don't know who it was though.

Officer Stamey: Okay. So they were coming back from Fred Meyer when they saw it?

Jaime Arellano: Um, that's what yeah that's what I think. That's what they told me.

Officer Stamey: Okay. Uh, so just to reiterate what you kinda told me uh, so you saw—you were sitting with 11(b) and this was after you came back from Chase or before?

Jaime Arellano: After.

Officer Stamey: After? Okay. So you were sitting with 11(b) uh, and that's when the three friends walked past you and talked to you for a minute? What did you guys talk about do you know?

Jaime Arellano: Um, we just talked about school and then my friend said that he met a girl in Seattle.

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: And then he showed me a picture of her. And then that was it and then I said—I asked them where they were going. They said Fred Meyer. And I said, and then that was it.

Officer Stamey: Okay. Um, and then you got up and walked the opposite direction?

Jaime Arellano: Yeah after I said bye to everybody.

Officer Stamey: Okay. And then 11(c) Juvenile called you a little bit later?

Jaime Arellano: Ahem.

Officer Stamey: So do they know 11(b) at all?

Jaime Arellano: I don't think so, like I've known 11(c) for a long time. I met 11(c) at the fair and then the other guy was a red-head...

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: ...I just met him like right there. I don't even know his name.

Officer Stamey: Oh okay. Let's put down red-head. Okay. Okay I think that was pretty much it. So they really don't know him.

Jaime Arellano: Not that I know of.

Officer Stamey: Okay. Uh, and did you see them talking to him afterwards?

Jaime Arellano: Um, no. I don't—I didn't—I didn't hear anything. I didn't see anything, because like I walked—I kinda like walked slowly and then like I didn't turn around when I was walking. So I didn't...

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: ...see that no. Cuz I was on my phone trying to connect my speaker.

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: So like I was—I didn't wanna like, like walk too fast, cuz then I—I didn't know where I was walking so I was like, like slowly pacing you know.

Officer Stamey: Oh okay.

Jaime Arellano: And then I didn't hear any talking from behind me.

Officer Stamey: Okay. Okay um, I believe that answered most of my questions that I had. And they didn't say anything about 11(b), cuz you don't know—you don't know if they know him?

Jaime Arellano: Yeah they just—they didn't know his name, cuz my friend said—when 11(c) called me said the guy you were talking to for like—I think he just like ran in front of the train.

Officer Stamey: Okay. Okay uh, so that would end this uh, time is 4:10. Is there anything else you wanna add before I end it? I'm sorry.

Jaime Arellano: Uh no. That—that's all I can...

Officer Stamey: Nothing else you...

Jaime Arellano: Yeah.

Officer Stamey: Okay. Okay, so I'm gonna end it and still 4:10.

Jaime Arellano: Yeah.

Officer Stamey: Okay, so I'm going to ask about the incident that happened yesterday uh, at Kelsey Street where the, the train person that was on the tracks.

Jaime Arellano: Okay.

Officer Stamey: Um, first of all how do you know that person?

Jaime Arellano: Um, he's my mom's best friend's uh, son.

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: And so like we were always like—no, we weren't like super close, but like I, we were like friends and I would always go out of my way to say hi to him at school at school and like...

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: ...cuz I knew he was and he was important to my mom so he was kind of like important to our family too.

Officer Stamey: Okay. And what's his name?

Jaime Arellano: Um, 11(b).

Officer Stamey: Do you know his last name?

Jaime Arellano: No.

Officer Stamey: Okay. So, so go ahead and tell me uh, what happened yesterday?

Jaime Arellano: Um, well I was—I left my house around like 3:00, cuz I had to go to the bank and to open up an account for college and um, I saw him sitting on a cement block by the train track and I just asked him what was going. He said nothing much and then I told him I'll be right back, cuz I have to go finish uh, I have to make my account. He said okay. And then I waved bye to him. I—we did that and I bought—bought some cookies and then I my way back I—I saw him peek his head over like around that metal pole, cuz he was sitting down still (unintelligible) it was like blocking.

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: So I like looked and I waved and he waved and he smiled and I came over there and I offered him a cookie. I asked him what was going on. He said nothing much just watching the trains. And I didn't think that was weird, cuz I—I like—people watch—like people...

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: ...like to watch different things. And uh, I asked him how school was. He said fine. I asked him who his teachers were. He told me who his teachers were. Then my three friends from uh, on, from Blueberry Lane they came over and I was just talking to them about uh, school and a girl my friend liked and then I told them I had to go. I shook all their hands said good bye and then I gave like 11(b) a kind of a half hug and told him bye and that I'll see him later and I'll see him around and he said bye and then I walked home and then my friend called me around 3:50 telling me that the person that I was talking to got hit by a train.

Officer Stamey: Okay. So you weren't there when he got hit by the train?

Jaime Arellano: Uh-uhm (negative response), just I was the last person he talked to.

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: And he...

Officer Stamey: Uh, okay so let me back up just a little bit. So the concrete blocks that you're talking about are they on the Rite Aid side of the tracks or...

Jaime Arellano: Uh-uhm (negative response).

Officer Stamey: ...the other side?

Jaime Arellano: Uh the, they're on the other side. So if you're coming from Blueberry and you take a left they're like...

Officer Stamey: Right there, that, that bus stop?

Jaime Arellano: Yeah.

Officer Stamey: Okay. Okay.

Jaime Arellano: He, he seemed fine. Like he was, he smiled and he was talking with me and we were uh, eating cookies and he—like I didn't see anything wrong.

Officer Stamey: Okay he didn't—he didn't seem sad or...?

Jaime Arellano: No.

Officer Stamey: Okay. Uh, and he didn't say anything to you about, about the train other than he was just watching the trains?

Jaime Arellano: Yeah he said that he likes to watch the trains. He was just watching the train.

Officer Stamey: Okay. Um, have you've known him ever be depressed or...?

Jaime Arellano: Um, no I haven't.

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: I've never like I never knew that...

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: ...he was depressed or...

Officer Stamey: And I—and I don't know if he was or not that day.

Jaime Arellano: Oh

Officer Stamey: I'm just asking...

Jaime Arellano: Okay.

Officer Stamey: ...how he's been.

Jaime Arellano: Um, no not that I recall. Every time I talked to him in the hallways of school last year he always like would smile and he would talk to me and we'd walk and I'd walk with him like halfway to his class and then I have to go.

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: But he seemed normal.

Officer Stamey: And you both go to Monroe High School?

Jaime Arellano: Um, yes, but I graduated this last year.

Officer Stamey: Oh okay. Uh, so when you left him he didn't say anything about running in front of the train or anything like that?

Jaime Arellano: Um, he didn't.

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: He just said bye.

Officer Stamey: Have you ever seen him run in front of the trains or, or anything like that?

Jaime Arellano: I have not. I haven't seen him do anything like that before.

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: So...

Officer Stamey: Um, so you let—do you know what time you left him?

Jaime Arellano: Um, it was probably—it was around like 3:30.

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: 3:35

Officer Stamey: So a little bit before that?

Jaime Arellano: Yeah.

Officer Stamey: Okay. Um, so were you—were you walking when you saw him?

Jaime Arellano: Yeah I was walking.

Officer Stamey: And then you walked to your house?

Jaime Arellano: Yeah so...

Officer Stamey: On Village?

Jaime Arellano: Yeah, so I walked um, in front of the old Monroe Middle all the way towards the tracks and then I—I walked the same way back.

Officer Stamey: Okay. Um, is there anything else that you can think of that would—that would help with this?

Jaime Arellano: Um, I mean I'd never like I never—I don't know if he was bullied or not. I don't—I never talked to anybody about that. He never brought it up to me. Um, but uh, I don't know like I guess it's like spreading that I think he was bullied a little bit, but I didn't know anything about that.

Officer Stamey: Okay. So he never said 'hey...'

Jaime Arellano: Uh-uhm

Officer Stamey: '...this—this guy is bugging me.' Or anything or any...

Jaime Arellano: No.

Officer Stamey: ...body else?

Jaime Arellano: No.

Officer Stamey: And, okay um, and, and when you said there's things being said is that like—how—how are you find that out?

Jaime Arellano: It's just like uh, I—it's not like—it's—I don't—it's like social media like...

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: ...people are just posting about it. It was kind of like I didn't know. At least I found out like that way.

Officer Stamey: Okay. But from what you—from what you know of him you say he's never—that you don't—you don't think he's ever been bullied or anything?

Jaime Arellano: No.

Officer Stamey: That he never told you anything?

Jaime Arellano: Yeah he never told me anything at all.

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: I just asked him is he okay like if, 'you need anything?' He said no I'm okay.

Officer Stamey: Okay. Um, does he have very many friends...

Jaime Arellano: Um...

Officer Stamey: ...that you know of?

Jaime Arellano: I, well one time I saw him playing tag—hide-and-peek tag with like two/three of his friends at the high school after school.

Officer Stamey: Okay.

Jaime Arellano: So like I thought he has—like oh he has friends, that's cool like that's good.

Officer Stamey: Okay. But so last year when you went to school with him he was a freshman and you were a senior?

Jaime Arellano: Yes.

Officer Stamey: Okay. Okay. Um, I'll just ask you one more time. Is there anything else that you can think of that would help us try to figure out what happened yesterday?

Jaime Arellano: Um, honestly I—I don't know. I mean the only thing that I, may—possibly that he was bullied, but like I, again and I don't know anything about it.

Officer Stamey: But you don't—you were just seeing that on social media?

Jaime Arellano: Yeah.

Officer Stamey: Right, not...okay. Okay uh...so I asked you do you have anything else that would—you would like to add to this statement. Uh, do you certify or declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington the facts on this tape are true and correct to the best of your knowledge?

Jaime Arellano: I do.

Officer Stamey: Okay. Has your statement been made—been made freely, voluntarily and without threats or promises of any kind?

Jaime Arellano: Yes.

Officer Stamey: Okay. Would you please sign this document? I just need you to sign right there on the x for me. Okay. Uh, the time is now 1:56pm and this concludes the statement.

 9 anything and neither had We asked her what
 10 she was talking about and she said that someone had 11 just gotten hit by the train. We saw 3 other boys
 12 walking into the Rite Aid parking lot and approached
 13 them asking if they saw what just happened. They 14 said yes, and one of them was already on the 15 phone with 911. Then approached the body to see
